JOHN SABAETHANI BARBEE born December 25, 1794 died September 3, 1856. Married Lucy Margaret Thurman December 1, 1825. where?

John S. Barbee owned and lived on the old farm later owned by the McNary's. There is an old family cemetery located on this farm. Many people of the name Barbee are buried there. The farm on which this cemetery is located is west of the old Sullivan Interurban Line on what was known as the Stop 11 road.

Children of John Sabaethani Barbee and Lucy Margaret Thurman were:

1. Rachael Ann Barbee	b. 7-12-1840	d. 11- -1909.
2. Amanda A. Barbee	b. 6-23-1828	d. 9-14-1852.
3. Martha Jane Barbee	b. 3-13-1833	d. 5-13-1856.
4. Lucy Margaret Barbee	b. 4-14-1844	d 9-28-1930.
5. Mary Barbee	b.11-27-1849	d. 2- 7-1928.
6. Isophene Barbee	b. 2-24-1847	d. 6- 1-1802.
7. Eveline Barbee	b. 5-1-1831	d.

Seven children of this family died in infancy.
Lucy Margaret Thurman Barbee born 1806 and died 1-10-1880.

The above information was secured from Mrs. Claudie Price. John S. Barbee was born in Virginia, exact place unknown. He went from Virginia to one of the Carolinas thence to Spencer County, Kentucky. John Henson and John S. Barbee were cousins. ? ?

The above family lived near the family of Lameth and ~~Lucas~~ Clarke Barbee. and were known to be related. My father told me that his grandparents (John Henson and Summersville) called the above Couple Uncle John + Aunt Peggy. If we take this literally then, Lameth + John Sabathanai were brothers.

Was this name Sabathanai a misspelling? There was a Sebastian on the tax rolls in Stafford Co. Va. are these one + the same?

The above John S. Barbee is listed on family records as John Labathan. I believe this is a mis-spelling and should be John Sebastian. (See tax list of Stafford Co. Va.)

Notes About Glaude (Claud) Barbee of New York and Virginia.

Name Spelled Barious Ways--Barbier, Barbe, Barbee, Barbie, Barbre, Barber, Barba, Bybee, Barbet, Barby, Barb.

1701 Glaude (Claud) Barbee immigrated to Virginia "Among the Huguenot immigrants to Virginia was Glaude (Claud) Barbe and sa Femme (Wife). Dear Ruth,

I'm finally getting around to sending this material to you. The other family sheets were given to my sisters to fill out - I don't know if they ever got it done and sent to you or not.

I hope this finds you well - We are both fine. I haven't worked much on the family tree lately but dug it out the other day & ran across these things to send to you.

I appreciate all the help you've given me. It has been an interesting past time - working on the family tree.

Love,
Martha Davis

Death of James A. Barbee.

James A. Barbee was born near Youngstown, Ind., May 7, 1848 and died in Lerna, Oct. 28, 1918, aged 70 years, 5 months and 21 days. Rev. Mac Tate had charge of the funeral services and interment at Upper Muddy.

For nearly forty years the deceased had been a citizen of Pleasant Grove township. He was married to Miss Jennie McGahan, Jan. 4, 1872, and to this union were born five children, four daughters and one son. Those living are: Mrs. Lora Brasier, Zalma, Mo.; Verne O. Barbee, Danville, Ill.; Mrs. Oda Easton, Greenup, Ill., and Mrs. Lillie Kimball, Greeley Colo., besides these he leaves a wife and several grand children to mourn his loss. The floral tributes were many and the relatives wish to thank each and everyone for sympathy shown during their bereavement.

Miss Patricia Bateman

Dear Miss Bateman:

What are your charges for research in Virginia?

I am the fifth generation of the Barbee family in Vigo County, Indiana. The first in this County was Lameth who married Clark or Clarke Wigginton. Lameth is also found on the reconstructed tax lists in Stafford County, Virginia as late as 1810. Near him on the tax list is Susannah. He was married in 1811 in Nelson Co. Ky. He enlisted in the War of 1812 in 1814 of Stafford). He entered land in Vigo County, Indiana, in 1831, 35, 36. He died in Vigo County.

1788 Francis Barbee died in Powaton County, Virginia. He left six children: Edward, John, Sally, Francis, William, Pleasant, and wife Susannah. The encircled names are found in the families of Lameth & his son John Henson. I believe these are all of the same family but with some missing generations. Of course these common names are found in the descendants of John Barbee of Middlesex County, Virginia. For the first time I feel that I'm on the right track in solving the Barbee families, but I need help

son of
JOHN and Ann Miller BARBEE

JOSEPH BARBEE was born in Virginia, and came to North Carolina before Orange County was formed. He died October 1773 in Chatham County, N.C. He was survived by his wife MARY, and ten children.

HIS WIFE. The maiden name of JOSEPH'S wife MARY is not known. See some speculations about her name at the end of this sketch, page 133.

LAND GRANTS to JOSEPH BARBEE in NORTH CAROLINA. He applied for a grant in Bladen County, for 640 acres, date of application not known. Grant #44 in Bladen County, was issued to him 26 April 1753. Why the grant was recorded in Bladen we do not know, as Orange was formed in June 1752, and this land was in Orange. The description of the grant reads: "begin at a red oak by the side of the great branch (of New Hope Creek) N 425 poles to a red oak on John West's line, thence west 245 poles crossing New Hope, S 425 poles, & 245 poles to the beginning on New Hope". Recorded in Grant Book 11, page 21.

Other grants in Orange Co., N.C. to JOSEPH BARBEE were

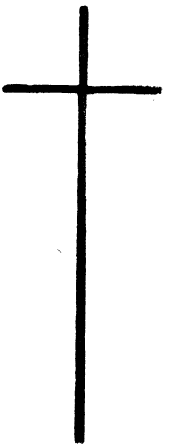

28 Oct 1754,	Grant	#151	for	600 acres,
July 1760	"	#407	"	617 "	,
2 Aug 1760	"	#155	"	393 acres,	See APPENDIX B
June 1761	"	#396	"	500 "	, for more detailed
20 Jan 1763	"	#134	"	700 "	, information about
20 Jan 1763	"	#163	"	700 "	. these grants.

The location of JOSEPH'S land is shown on the map on page 161. When Orange was divided in 1770 some of this land fell into Chatham. There are many land transactions concerning JOSEPH recorded in the deed books of Orange. JOSEPH'S wife Mary signed nearly all these deeds with him.

JOSEPH BARBEE was on the earliest list of "Tythables" in Orange that is known, taken in 1753-4 by Alexander Mebane first Sheriff for Orange, and filed at the Court for October 1754. JOSEPH was listed with Christopher Rhodes and five slaves.

JOSEPH BARBEE was active in various capacities in Orange County. The first reference to him in the ORANGE COUNTY COURT MINUTES is in March 1755 when he was appointed as a "Grand Juror to attend the next Supreme Court on the 4th of May next".

On 24 April he witnessed a Bill of Sale from Hannah McClayland to John Rhodes of Rowan Co., N.C. Planter. This was recorded at Sept 1755 Court. (Note by R.H.S. Hannah McClayland was the widow of William Rhodes of Middlesex Co., Va., and mother of John, and Christopher Rhodes who was listed as a Tythable with JOSEPH BARBEE.)

And we flourish.

But - - - as the sun's warmth
Passes away into autumn,

So must we.

How wonderful though,

Life comes to the tree again.
God's love shines and - - -
Unto everlasting life we pass.

Dear loved ones,

I am writing this letter as sort of a form letter, that I can send to you all at the same time. Please do not feel any lack of appreciation on my part for concerns shown by you, but it is difficult to write, under the circumstances, and to repeat the same sad details over and over again, is only harder for me. So forgive me for the seemingly impersonal way that I am trying to inform you all.

Carol had been doing so very well, up to that fatal sunday, when suddenly the artificial heart valve, that she had installed almost 6 years ago, broke. It was a "Flap" type valve, and the flap broke off at the struts and the valve was then of course totally inoperative. She was conscious but having great difficulty in breathing, because of the poor blood flow through her system, when I got her to the Spooner emergency receiving area at the hospital. Her heart rate was very high, but no higher than it had been on rare occasions in the past, and no higher than it had been during the time that she had originally had valve failure (of her own God given valve) about 6 years ago. The doctor ignored what both Carol and I thought was the problem, which was that the valve was not operating at all (as we could not hear the familiar clicking sound that we had been living with for the past 6 years), and insisted that the problem was NOT the valve, but that the heart was fibrillating and all he had to do was to get the heart rate down, and she would be feeling fine in a few moments. I told him that I felt the valve was inoperative, and Carol said the same thing, adding that her lungs were filling with fluids (again the result of the poor blood flow) and she was coughing and could not get her breath if she layed back,(which was what the doctor seemed to want her to do all of the time.). Even though she was already having problems with the lungs containing fluids, the doctor pumped one I-V bag of fluids into her and started on the second. he gave her medication to reduce her heart rate, and ended up using far more of this medication to accomplish this reduction, because the heart was not fibrillating, but was instead being commanded by the brain to beat at the accelerated rate, because that way a sufficient amount of blood was being circulated to keep her conscious and alert, and keep her from oxygen starvation. Insisting that she should be "feeling better", even though with every reduction of her heart rate, she "Felt worse", he continued to medicate her until her heart rate was where "HE" thought it should be. When this happened, she went unconscious and never came out of it again. I believe that she was clinically dead before they put her in an ambulance and drove her to Duluth. They applied CPR all the way there and while her body was warm and pink, I believe that the oxygen starvation damage to her brain had already taken place. She was taken into surgery, the valve was found to have broken, and the flap was not even in her heart yet, as it had moved from the heart and through a major artery of her system . (Later it was found that it had lodged near the stomach, and was not restricting any blood flow or causing any problem there.) They installed a new valve, and after a couple of hours of effort, were able to get it beating and get her off of the heart lung machine and to the critical care ward. There was doubt at that time that she would recover, but still hope. The heart doctor felt that there was a high possibility of brain,kidney and /or liver damage, because the CPR all the way from Spooner would not (most likely) have been able to provide sufficient oxygen for these organs to survive in a health state. Later, it appeared that the kidneys and liver were OK, but when her eyes dilated the next day, things looked grim. Tests were run to determine if there was any sign of active brain waves, and they all were negative. We allowed her to remain on the life support system until Scott and his family were able to get here from the Airforce Base in Washington state, and say their last fairwells, and then it was removed and we all lost a very special and loving person, that was such a major portion of my life.

When Carol originally had the serious heart valve failure problem (about 6 years ago) the symptoms were almost identical, which was one of the reasons that we (Carol and I) felt that it was the valve that was not working, Combined with the knowledge that the noise of the metal valve was no longer apparent, it should have been sufficient, in my mind, for the Dr. to concern himself with the possibility that Carol and I were correct in our analysis of the cause of her problem at that point in time. This time the attending doctor simply chose to ignore that possibility. As a result, what he did was exactly the opposite of what should have been done. She had excessive fluids in her lungs, and he pumped fluids into her which only served to further complicate things. She had an accelerated heart rate, because her brain was commanding that action, as it was the only way to continue a sufficient flow of blood to keep her conscious and alert, and he took very strong efforts, with excessive medications, to force that heart rate back to a near normal one, which was not adequate to keep her alive. 6 years ago the doctor, (a different one, at the same emergency receiving area) diagnosed valve failure, gave her no medication at all (because he wanted the heart rate to stay where it was, as she needed it there), and gave no I-V injections, because she already had more fluids than her system could handle well. As a result there was time for us to drive back to our home in Minong, pack a bag, drive to mpls, where she walked into the hospital, ended up with a valve being replaced, and lived on for these past 6 years. I feel so very certain that she would be here with us today, recovering and looking forward to years of continued life, if the doctor had not insisted that he was right and that there was no chance for US to be right. After all, there were only the 2 possibilities, and if he was wrong, he was doing the opposite of what should have been done. When his actions continued to make things progressively worse, he ignored that and simply forced the heart rate down where he wanted it to be. He should have considered the fact that, if he was wrong, he was forcing a situation on us all, that he was not qualified to deal with, and one where the nearest hospital that could deal with it was over 60 miles away. He was taking actions that COULD NOT be reversed, if he was wrong. Common sense would suggest that getting her to a hospital where EITHER of the two possible causes of her problem, could be attended to, before taking any action to alter her present state. She was uncomfortable, and having a hard time trying to breath, but she was conscious and the condition would not had gotten much worse, because the flap of the valve had been broken for well over an hour and a half by that time, and the area where the flap was supposed to be, was not going to get any bigger. I just know that there would have been sufficient time to get her to Duluth, because it is only about an hour and 15 minute, with an ambulance, and she was still alive and conscious for longer than that, from the time we got to the emergency room in Spooner. He was so cock sure of himself, kept saying "Well, you SHOULD be feeling better now". When she felt worse, he ignored the possibility that he could be MAKING it worse with his treatment, and kept right on with it. He even turned his back on her, called his wife, and was talking about two plates of BROWNIES, while she was struggling for her life. This is not going to end here, as I don't want anyone else to have to go through a loss like this, when a persons life can be saved with the correct action being taken. She should be here with us now, and I will never forgive the carelessness with which her life was treated. I feel guilt, because I could have stopped him, or insisted that he listen to us, but I guess , in a situation like that, we have to try and trust that the dr. knows what he is doing, and we stand idly by hoping and praying that he is right. But, he should have known better. I was not certain that what he was doing was so reverse to what he should have been doing, but he should have been aware of that possibility. In retrospect, I feel I could have stopped him, drove her to Duluth, and have her with me today, but that sort of action is a hard thing to do, when the possibility exists that he could have been correct, and my action could have ended up killing her. Now, I know that I was right, and he was wrong, and , while it does not change things, I am extremely angry and vengeful.

Carol and I had been to church that morning, been out for breakfast after church, been to a local boat show, and had returned home, where she had gotten busy raking up pine needles and stuff like that. She had been feeling so very well, and had recovered completely from the 2 minor strokes that she had had, and her blood protime, (clot time) had gotten under control, and had been perfect for the last month or so. We were totally unprepared for this situation. I learned later that there had been a failure rate of 1 in 100 of the metal valves (of the type that Carol had), since the alteration to their design had taken place about 7 years ago. No one had ever contacted us with that information, and if they had, and I had been able to tell this failure rate to the Dr. in Spooner, it might have made him feel that there was a better chance that OUR analysis of her problem, could have been right. I feel that there is no excuse for not alerting people, that have that valve installed, that that possibility of failure does exist. I am very angry about that fact as well.

We had a lovely day for the funeral, and the church was full of those friends and relatives that knew her for the wonderfully kind and sweet person that she was. Always so giving, asking nothings, patient, and loving to a fault. She had been no longer working since last october, and was about to have her first summer since we were married, where she would not be working and be able to be home and plant her flower garden and her vegetable garden, and go fishing when she wanted to, and just spoil the grandkids etc. Talk about an unfair situation. We had just gotten through covering all the kitchen with new formica counter tops, building new storage cabinets for her clothes and linens etc (which she had not even gotten time yet to put things in), and varnished the kitchen cabinets and painted the ceilings, and were so looking forward to getting the rest of the house all shaped up, now that she would be here all the time to enjoy it. Then this happens. It is one thing to LOSE someone you love, but when you are left with the feeling that she was TAKEN FROM YOU NEEDLESSLY, it really makes you upset. Someone has to pay for this loss, and I have to do what I can to see that it never happens again to anyone else because of this doctor. I wanted a different doctor to be there, but he was not available. Had he been there, I believe it would have been a completely different result as well. I know it does not help, to cry over spilled milk, but I can not live with myself, if I do not bring things to the surface and to light. Others trust this doctor, and to me, he can not be trusted.

Bernyce and Arnold, Helen, Bud and Mickey, were all able to get here. Jan and Roger came from Mpls, and spent the week, Tony and Nancy were here, of course, as they live in Minong, and Scott and Karen and the children were able to get here from Washington state. Scott and his family will be staying until about the 18th or 20th of the month. That is a blessing, as I would hate to think of having to be alone here, right away, and it will be difficult even later, of course. Carol would want me to go on with my life, and to be of help to our children and the grandchildren, if and when I can. It is hard to follow in her footsteps, as she was so unselfish, and giving, and it came so naturally to her. She never asked for anything, and always gave from her poor ailing heart so steadily. I know before I start, that I will never be able to accomplish everything that she would have, but I will do my best to do what I know she would have me do. I sometimes wonder, how can I go on? God seems to give us strength, if we ask for it, and he has promised to not cause us to be burdened with more than we can bear. I feel that he has gotten pretty close to my limit this time however. I only can hope that he will continue to support me with his love and strength and compassion, as I know he crys with me, at the terrible loss that we all feel. The scriptures say that he loved her even more than I do, although that seems hard for me to believe, having loved her and still loving her, so very very much. We were so happy, and I can rest in assurance that we will be together again. So when we are, I want to be able to stand tall and be able to feel that all I did in her absence was what I felt she would have me do. I have many reasons to live, with the children and the grandchildren, and that has to be my goal now. Make their lives as good as I can, if and when I am able to be of assistance to them. My daughters in law both have stated that Carol and I were more like parents to them than even their own were. They loved her very much, and it has been a very bad time for them also. I have to stop feeling sorry for myself, and realize that there are others that hurt as well, and as much as I. Carols mother, bless her sweet soul, has been able to stand up very well under all of this. She is such a tower of strength, and so kind and good. Carol took after her a lot, in so many ways. Carols brothers and sisters from North Caroline, Colorado, Iowa etc. were all able to get back here, but none of them were able to visit her bedside in the hospital. Basically, I am glad that they didn't, because they would not have recognized her at all. She had been through so much, and her body had absorbed so much fluid that she appeared to be 300# rather than the 150# which was her real weight. Fortunately, she looked very good at the funeral, and I was able to feel good about having the casket open. She was buried in the greenwoods cemetary here in Minong, where we have long since had our plots awaiting us.

Karen, Scotts wife, has been busy trying to get the house spotless for me, and trying to organize many things that Carol and I had been letting go, while we had been redecorating many of the rooms etc. She has been organizing my clothes, cleaning and waxing, cooking meals, and all the other things that she can do to try and make things easier for me. She is so very thoughtful, and was so loved by Carol. They had had many long talks, when they spent a month with us after they got back from the Phillipine Islands, in February. I was so glad that they were able to get back here, and that Carol was able to have spent that month with the Grandchildren that she loved so dearly. She planned to wear out the new rocking chair that I bought her, but I guess that is up to me to do now. Many of my relatives knew how wonderful Carol was, and if those that did not know her well would take the goodness that they saw in her, and multiply it 1000 fold, they might reach a better level of how great a person she really was. It is so hard to lose such a really wonderful part of ones life. I know that I am far from being the only person to whom that has happened, but when it happens to you, it is always too real, almost too personal to be able to bear. But we all manage to go on somehow, don't we?

Scott is very unhappy with the present day military, in the airforce, and it is possible that he and his family may plan to move back up here and live with me and look for work around here. It would be nice to have him and his family here. I know, it would be a different life style, having little ones around again, but I am flexible, and can adapt, and if it would be a good thing for them, I have to consider that side of it as well. They have a wonderful marriage, and great kids, and a good sense of what it is in life that is truly of value. They don't want all kinds of fancy things, and the world on the string. They just seem to want happiness, time to life and grow together, and to devote themselves to the children, which they have done very well, so far. Jan and Roger are living in Mpls, and although there have been a few problems, they seem to be working them out, and they have a lovely little boy (Matthew), that is a joy to be around. So cute, so bright, and I guess that all grandparents feel that way about their grandkids. Tony and Nancy, and their two girls live locally, and have just moved into a new house that they built. Carol did not even have a chance to get to see the house after they moved into it. Everything just happened so fast, and so unexpectedly.

When Scott and Karen go back to Washington in the latter part of his month, I will have to get used to being alone. I know that Tony and Jannyce and their families will try their best to help me out in these hard times, but there is a limit to what anyone can do, and so many things that just have to be overcome in time.

I am enclosing one of the funeral notices in this letter for you. Keep it in rememberance of a wonderful person who made this world a better place for so many of us. Try to drop me a line once in a while. Thank you for your concern, your prayers, and your kind thoughts. May God bless you and yours, and keep you all under his protective wing, as we impatiently await that day when we can once again hold those dear loved ones, that have been lost to us, in our arms, and share in the paradise that God intended for us all along. It seems that WAITING can be such a difficult thing, when we know that at the end of the waiting there awaits such joy and bliss.

I love you all,

Dick

FOREWORD

This pamphlet sprang from a casual desire to learn more of our Barbee ancestry. It was originally intended that information would be gathered and recorded only for personal use. Letters were dispatched, over a two and one-half year period, to known relatives, persons of the Barbee name and numerous state and county agencies. Many hours were spent in library and census research. So many promises were made to share information that some sort of multiple duplication process became necessary.

So much information was found in allied Barbee lines in North Carolina, Kentucky Tennessee and Texas, adequate and proper compilation of all material on hand would require years of spare time work, and the cost, if a professional job, would be prohibitive.

In order to fulfill the promise of sharing information without trying to sell a book or asking for contributions. It was decided to mimeograph a brief history giving the basic facts unearthed only on the direct lines of Major Edward Barbee's ancestry and descendents as far as it could be determined. He was undoubtedly a stout fellow, born in Orange County, North Carolina, in 1793; he fought the Indians in Tennessee as a young man and came to Texas in 1837 and lived to the ripe old age of 92. Perhaps a more comprehensive history might be written at some time in the future as considerable information on this and other related Barbee lines has been collected.

Information substantiated by documentary proof is stated as fact. Realistic clues or speculative material is stated so as not to be interpreted as fact. Every effort has been made to record the received information without transcription errors by constant rechecking, however, it is obvious that some information was given from memory. Information sheets have been sent out as many as three times to be completed. Some material was smudged to the point of being wholly illegible. Some have never returned their forms. The tribulations of a family genealogist are unbelievable. Every usable bit of information on direct family lines has been included when made available.

In general, most of the county officers and their clerks were quite helpful, although some never acknowledged receipt of letters addressed to them. It would be impossible to name all who gave assistance, without which this booklet would never have appeared. The most cooperative were Miss Betty June Hayes of Hillsboro, N.C., Mrs. Cordelia Gary of Hopkinsville, Kentucky, and Mr. G.C. Adkins of Clarksville, Tennessee. These people live in the counties of residence of Joseph Barbee and his children and their assistance was invaluable. Mr. B.F. Bell of Tyler, Texas, who is a friend of the Barbee family, but not directly related to them, secured all the information on the descendants of John Pleasant Barbee, which was no small task, and for this, the writer is indebted to him.

There is no authentic record of relatives emigrating to Texas with Major Edward Barbee and his immediate family although there is some evidence that Nancy Barbee Meacham, his sister, and David Laird husband of Elizabeth Walthall, sister of his wife, Susan Pryor Walthall emigrated to Texas either before or in the party with him and his family. There is a picture in existence of "Aunt Patsy"

Meacham who would have been Major Edward Barbee's sister from the relationship given by the owner of the picture. A conditional land grant certificate, to David Laird, was given at San Augustine, Texas, June 9, 1838, one day after Major Edward Barbee receive his conditional land grant certificate at San Augustine, Texas. This David Laird may have been the same David Laird who married Elizabeth Walthall, sister of Major Edward Barbee's wife, Susan Pryor Walthall.

Since starting stencil cutting, evidence seems to indicate these Barbee families stem from William who died in 1720 in Essex County, Virginia and Ann Miller Barbee who died in 1762 in Middlesex County. John and Ann Barbee definitely had a son John, and he seems to be the John Barbee who moved to Orange County, North Carolina where he died in 1799 leaving a large family including the son Joseph, born in 1761, who began the westward trek.

Many present generation Barbees believe one of their long lost Kentucky Barbee relatives originated the "Old Barbee" whiskey brand. Schenley Industries, Inc. advise that one of their subsidiaries is the owner of this trademark, having acquired it in 1933 from the John T. Barbee Company, a Maryland Corporation, incorporated in 1930. Their trademark files revealed an "Old Barbee" label, identifying the distillery as No. 32, 7th District, Woodford County, Kentucky.

The U.S. Commissioner of Internal Revenue advises his earliest records concerning this distillery, indicates that it was operated by J. and F. Laval in the year 1893, however the report for 1894 indicates the name of the distiller was John T. Barbee. He presumably did not see fit to incorporate his business until 1930 which he sold in 1933 after the repeal of prohibition.

Compilation fo this material has brought a great deal of pleasure and it could not have been accomplished without the assistance of that large group of relatives and friends whose assistance is gratefully acknowledged.

ORIGIN OF THE BARBEE FAMILY IN NORTH AMERICA

In nearly all of the forty eight states of the Union you will find members of the Barbee family whose ancestry is traceable to pre-Revolutionary War families of Virginia. Most of the early Texas Barbee families trace their ancestry to Colonial North Carolina and Virginia. During this early period the family name was variously spelled Barbie, Barbier, Barbe', Barby, Barbee and in other ways.

Many of the present generation of Barbees are convinced they are descended from Glaude Barbie, the French Huguenot refugee who was settled in Mannakintown, Virginia in the year 1700-1701 (some think earlier), wverlooking entirely the fact that several Virginia Counties were well populated with Barbees during the latter part of the 1600's. In Albermarle County, North Carolina, John Barbee witnessed the will of Joseph Allford in 1689, eleven years before Glaude Barbie arrived in Mannakintown.

There was another Huguenot emigrant to America of similar name from whom the Barbees more likely were descended. This is Glaude Barbier whose name was sometimes spelled Barbe' and Barbie. He was one of the first settlers of Bushwick, Lon Island (1656) and came from northern France. (See Huguenot Emigrants to America by Charles W. Baird, D.D.)

Jean Barbarie and his two sons, Piere and John Piere came to New York in 1688. Jean was an enterprising merchant and was an Elder and Treasurer of the French Church in New York.

Jone (Jean)(John) Barby is mentioned as emigrating to Virginia in 1656. (See Early Immigrants to Virginia by Stanford) Jone Barbe' is mentioned as being in Virginia in 1656. (See Cavaliers and Pioneers of Virginia by Nugent)

In tracing the first Barbee settlers to Smith County, Texas, it was found that practically all who came to Texas befire the Civil War were from North Carolina. The North Carolina Barbees weem to have settled in Orange County shortly after 1750 and there is strong evidence this group was from Essex and Middlesex Counties in Virginia.

In support of the New York state origin, Walter H. Barbee, Route NO. 1, Dublin, Texas, at the age of 69, in 1953, advised that his grandfather, Hiram Barbee, a great grandson of Christopher Barbee of Orange County, North Carolina, told him that three brothers came from France to New York to found the Barbee families of Virginia and North Carolina.

William and Elizabeth Barbee of Middlesex County, Virginia had several children, one named John who was born in the late 1600's. William married as his second wife, Mary Gray. They had several children, one Gray, born in 1717.

John Barbee, son of William and Elizabeth, married Ann Miller in Middlesex County, Virginia in 1708. They later lived in Essex County, Virginia, where John died in 1750 and Ann in 1762. Ann's will named seven surviving children and two grandchildren. The children were Christopher, John, Joseph, Francis, Mary (Sears), Rose(Sears) and Mical (Pitts). The grand children were named as Christopher Jr. and Thos. Redd. Henry Sears was named as the husband of Rose Barbee and John Pitts as the husband of Mical Barbee. It is presumed that the husband of Mary Sears was deceased as was the mother of Thos. Redd. Ann Barbee had a son and brother-in-law named William Barbee. The will of William Barbee, made in 1752 and probated in Essex County, Virginia in 1757, left his estate to Ann Barbee without mentioning their relationship. He is presumed to be Ann Barbee's brother-in-law. William Barbee of Orange County, North Carolina, whose wife Rachael Barbee returned an inventory of his estate in 1758 is presumed to Ann Barbee's son.

During the years following Ann Barbees death, the records of Orange, Wake and Chatham Counties, North Carolina reveal that five of her sons, one daughter and two sons-in-law or persons of similar names were involved in legal transactions resulting in the authentic recording of their names.

In Chatham County, John Pitts was given several land grants. Henry Sears died in Orange County in 1774. His will named his wife as Rose and one of his several children was named as Barby. Rose Sears obtained a land grant in 1782 in Orange County. There was a Joseph Barbee in both Wake and Chatham Counties and a Christopher Barbee in both Orange and Wake Counties during the Revolutionary War period.

John Barbee who died in Orange County, North Carolina in 1799, left a will naming his trusty brother Christopher and his wife Sarah as executors of his estate. His children were named as Mack(most likely Mark), Young, William, Joseph, Patt, John, Sylva, Edie, Sally, Elizabeth, Rosanna and Theina.

Joseph Barbee, son of John and Sarah Barbee was born February 7, 1761 in Orange County, North Carolina. October 1, 1782 in Orange County, he married Sally Trice who was born about 1768, the daughter of Thomas Trice. Joseph sold his land which he inherited from his father, and two young slaves in 1806 and presumably began the journey to Montgomery County, Tennessee, where in 1814, he purchased one negro slave. Witnesses to this transaction were Joseph's daughter Elizabeth and son Major Edward. In 1818 he acquired 100 acres of land and in 1824, sold it to Ross Jones, his son-in-law.

Joseph's children were, Polly, b. 10-20-1787; Nancy, b. 8-20-1790; Major E., b. 3-1-1793; Elizabeth, b. 9-12-1795; Edy, b. 4-30-1798; Horace, b. 4-30-1800; Young P., b. 5-28-1804; Trice C., b. 7-3-1807; Pirtimon B., b. 2-3-1811; and Sally B. Mitcheam, b. 2-20-1814; Although Sally B. Mitcheam is listed with Joseph's children, she is presumably a granddaughter.

Joseph Barbee died in Christian County, Kentucky, October 3, 1826. His will named his children as Polly Patterson, Henrietta Moore (possibly Rittie), Nancy Meacham, Major E. Barbee, Elizabeth Chism, Eady Jones, Horace G. Barbee, Young P. Barbee and Trice C. Barbee. This leaves Pirtimon B. Barbee and Sally B. Mitcheam(meacham) unaccounted for. Shortly afterward, Joseph's widow, Sally (Sarah) Trice Barbee emigrated to Marion County, Illinois, probably with her daughter Eady and Eady's husband, Ross Jones, or with her son Young P. Barbee as both children moved to Marion County, Ill.

Some of Ed Barbee's descendents seem to think that he lived in Arkansas for a time before coming to Texas. This can not be confirmed however it is know that some of his Barbee cousins did live in Arkansas before moving to Erath and Comanche Counties in Texas about 1857.

According to the Texas land grant records, Ed Barbee arrived in the Republic of Texas in September 1837, being substantiated by a conditional certificate issued June 8, 1838 at San Augustine, Texas by the Board of Land Commissioners of San Augustine County,

The Cherokee Indians in what is now Smith and adjoining counties were being incited to lawless acts by enemies of the young Republic of Texas and in 1839 were driven out of Texas after pitched battles in what is now Smith and Van Zandt counties. Due to the Indian uprisings, with which Ed was familiar in West Tennessee in his youth he probably lived for a time near the established settlements along "El Camino Real"(The Kins Highway), running from Louisiana through San Augustine and Nacogdoches to San Antonio de Bexar until the Cherokee Indian War was concluded in 1839. It would appear that Ed Barbee came into East Texas from a point on the Mississippi River, probably at Natchez, Mississippi or on Red River in Louisiana near Natchitoches.

Ed Barbee received his final certificate from the Board of Land Commissioners of Panola County on Sepetmber 7, 1841, in the town of Marshall, entitling him to 1200 acres of land as the head of a family. His certificate states "he haveing proved to us that he has resided in the Republic three years and performed all the duties required of him as a citizen."

It is presumed that by this time he had staked his claim to his grant in Nacogdoches County (later Smith County) which was surveyed on January 25, 1844. This tract of land was patented to M.E. Barbee on December 14, 1849 and was the first grant to a person bearing the Barbee surname in all of Texas.

Susan Barbee died on February 14, 1857, leaving four devoted sons and a husband. Her obituary quoted in part as follows: "She was emphatically a Christian lady, adorning every station in which she was called to act, as a wife, mother, mistress or neighbor." She is believed to be buried in the Antioch Cemetery, just east of Tyler, Texas, off the Kilgore Highway.

In the area where Ed Barbee settled there were many people from North Carolina. It is interesting to note that the nearest village was named Chapel Hill, presumably for Chapel Hill in Orange Co., North Carolina near Ed's birthplace.

On April 27, 1862, a t the age of 69 years, Ed Barbee married Barbary Dickson, a widow 39 years of age from Butler Co., Alabama with a married daughter, Eliza Jane, wife of D.A. Nelson and four minor children, John T., Julia A., George A. and Susan. Apparently there were no children born of this marriage and nothing is known of his second wife and step children, except as obtained from the Smith County Court records and the 1860 U.S. Census of Smith County.

Sally Barbee applied for and received a Revolutionary Soldier Widow's pension while residing in Marion County, Illinois in 1843. Her application was accompanied by pages cut from her family bible, giving the dates of birth of her husband, Joseph, and their children as listed above. Sally Barbee died in Marion County, Illinois, September 19, 1845.

Rose and Eady Jones were living in Marion Co., Ill., as early as 1830. The census returns of that county in 1840 indicate that Sally Barbee was probably living in the Jones household, and the 1850 census returns give Ross Jones age as 55, his wife Eady's age as 49, (both born in N.C.), and James (16 yrs) and Henderson Jones (8 yrs), presumably sons as living in the same household.

Young P. Barbee is first found in Marion Co., Ill., in the 1840 census of that county. Members of his household in the 1850 census with their indicated ages, sex and birth places are: Eliza 48 F, Va; Henrietta 25 F, Tenn; Joseph 22 M, Tenn; Emily 18 F, Tenn; Jackson 13 M, Iowa; Amanda 11 F, Ill; Young 9 M, Ill. These are evidently his wife and children. Members of his household in 1860 census are: Elisa 56 F, Va; Amanda 20 F, Ill; Young P. 19 M, Ill. In the same census we also find Jackson H. Barbee 23, M, Wisconsin and Sarah Barbee 17 F, Ill., meaning that Jackson had married and established his home.

Family tradition amongst the Marion County Barbees has it that Young P. Barbee went to Missouri and was cut off by high water from flooded rivers. This presumably accourtys for his son Jackson's birthplace beirg given as Iowa in one census and Wisconsin in another, as the present state of Iowa was at one time in Wisconsin Territory. Trice C. Barbee has not been located and it may be that he went ot Missouri or an adjacent state and remained there.

The household of Joseph Barbee, b. 1827, son of Young P. Barbee, can not be located in the 1860 U.S. Census, however in 1870 after his death his widow's household is listed as follows: Amanda Barbee 35 F, Tenn; Thomas 18 M, Ill; James 17 M, Ill; Lewis 15 M, Ill; Young 13 M, Ill; Emily 12 F, Ill; Jefferson 9 M, Ill; Joseph 2 M, Ill; Della 5 F, Ill. There were then three Young Barbees in Marion Co., Illinois.

One of these listed in 1870, Marion County was: Y.P. Barbee 28 M, ILL; Rebecca 21 F, Ill; Florence 8 F, Ill; Lee 5 M, Ill; Ettie 2 F, Ill;

Horace G. Barbee went to Mississsippi, reared a family and left many descendents.

Some of the remaining daughters of Joseph Barbee of Orange Co., N.C., Polly Patterson, Henrietta (Rittie) Moore, Nancy Meacham and Elizabeth Chism may have emigrated to Texas with their brother Major E. This has not been established however it seems that Nancy Meacham and Elizabeth Chism may have moved to Texas.

Records of the War of 1812 show that Major Edward Barbee served as a private in Lt. Col. Henry H. Bryan's Detachment of Infantry in 1812 and that Abraham Loughridge served as a private in Capt. John Moore's Company, 1st Regiment, Col. Wm. Hall's Tennessee Volunteers from Sumner County as a substitute for Major_____Barber (Barba) in 1813 and was stationed at a camp near Nashvill. The furnishing of a substitute was entirely legal and periods of duty were of short duration during periods of threatened security by the Indians.

Major E. Barbee is next found in Montgomery Co., Tenn. in July 1814, when he witnessed a deed conveying to his father Joseph, one negro slave.

Ed as he was called in Texas, over a half century later, was married in Christian Co., Ky., just across the state line from his parents home to Susan Pryor Walthall on May 16, 1822. Susan was the daughter of Thomas S_____Walthall and his wife Rhoda_____. She was born in Virginia, July 26, 1805 and came to Cumberland Co., Ky., about 1810 and to Christian Co., Ky, about 1816. Her father died in 1822 and her mother in 1825 and it is from the Christian County Court r records that this information is obtained. Thomas S. Walthall owned twelve slaves in 1810, sixteen in 1820 and when his estate was inventoried in 1822 there were fifteen slaves. His estate exclusive of real estate was appraised a t $6, 345.50 and when his farm of 323 and 9/10 acres was sold in 1826 it brought $1295.60 and by their standards Thomas Walthall must have been considered well to do.

Thomas Walthall's childern and the name of their husband or wife and their residence are as follows, but not necessarily in the order of their birth:

1. Rebecca (Walthall) Woolridge, husband, Samuel.
2. Susan Pryor (Walthall) Barbee, husband, Major Edward.
3. Thomas S. Walthall Jr., wife, Elizabeth.
4. John H. (N) Walthall.
 The above were residents of Christian Co., Ky. in 1826.
5. Polly (Walthall) Bowman, husband, Granville.
6. William Walthall, wife, Mary.
 The above were resiedtns of Cumberland Co., Ky. in 1826.
7. Louise A. (Walthall) Phillips, husband, Richard B.
 The above were residents of Montgomery Co., Tenn. in 1826.
8. Elizabeth (Walthall(Laird, husband, David.
 The above were residents of Maury Co., Tenn in 1826.
9. Martha B. Walthall, Granville Bowman made her guardian in December 1826
10. Pleasant Thornton Walthall, William A. Walthall made his guardian in December 1825.

Ed and Susan Barbee's first child, Thomas S., named for Susan's father was born April 1, 1823 in Christian County as was their second child Elzie Hamilton, born September 15, 1824. Ed Barbee and family seem to have left Kentucky after the death of his father and the death of Susan's father and mother. There were probably other children however of those who survived and are known to the present generation, the third child was John Pleasant, probably named for Susan's brothers John H. and Pleasant Thornton. He was born March 23, 1829. Conflicting records indicate his birthplace as Tennessee and Mississippi although Tennessee is believed to be correct. The fourth known child was Henry Branch Barbee who was born May 29, 1833 in Tennessee.

Ed Barbee has not been located on either the 1860 or 1870 Census and is thought to have been living with his youngest son Henry in 1860 who had left Smith County and with his second wife, Barbary in 1870, possibly in some other county. Barbary Barbee was still living in 1868 as there is a Smith County deed conveying property to another person in that year.

The 1880 U.S. Census of Smith County lists M.E. Barbee but does not reveal a wife or step children. After living to the ripe old age of 92 years 7 months and several days, and surely after many adventurous episodes in his journeys through North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky and finally Texas, Major Edward Barbee passed away in August 1885, probably at the home of his second son Elzie Hamilton Barbee near Tyler, Texas. Family tradition has it that he is buried in the Antioch Cemetery just east of Tyler, off the Kilgore Highway.

An incomplete list of the descendents of Ed Barbee's four children, I. Thomas S_____Barbee, II. Elzie Hamilton Barbee, III. John Pleasant Barbee and IV. Henry Branch Barbee follow.

The descendents of Major Edward Barbee are listed by sections. Each of his four sons heads a section and the generations following Major Edward Barbee are identified as follows.

1st generation I., II., III., and IV.
2nd generation A., B., C., D., etc.
3rd generation 1., 2., 3., 4., etc.
4th generation a., b., c., d., etc.
5th generation i., ii., iii., iv., etc
6th generation (a), (b), (c), (d), etc
7th generation (i), (ii), (iii), (iv), etc.

Succeeding generations are indented under preceding generations. To determine lineage of any person of any generation it is only necessary to work upward by generations from the person whose lineage it is desired to establish.

ANN BARBEE m JOHN MORGAN
ANN, daughter of WILLIAM and ELIZABETH BARBEE

ANN MORGAN and her brother, JOHN BARBEE, are both mentioned in the will of their father, WILLIAM BARBEE, d 1720/1. He leaves them each "one shilling sterling". See page 3, STUDY for will; see page S-2-8 for law suit against Estate.
In the STUDY, R.H.S. assumed that because the name ANN was sometimes used for HANNAH, that the HANNAH BARBEE b 1685 (see S-1-13) was the same as ANN MORGAN. I think now that Brant Barbee has found the will of JOHN MILLER d 1742 (p S-9-1) which shows that the MILLER family used both names, we should make allowances and indicate that HANNAH was born in 1685, and that a child, ANN, could have been born 1689, and would have been 15 in 1704 when she probably married JOHN MORGAN.
ANN BARBEE married JOHN MORGAN probably in Middlesex about 1704 as there is an entry in the PARISH REGISTER: "John, ye son of John and Ann Morgan was born March ye 17 (1704/5) and baptised 15 April 1705". JOHN MORGAN of Middlesex bought land in Essex Co. in 1703, so we think they moved to Essex after the birth of John.
FLEET # 29, p 21: 8 Dec 1703. Mary Ward of Sittenbourne parish sells JOHN MORGAN of MIDDLESEX CO., planter, for £ 15 and 1500 lb tobo., 150 acres in S. par. on South side of Occupacy run, being part of land "which I the said Mary Ward now Liveth one and bequeath unto me by my husband Richard Barbur" Signed, Mary Ward. Wit: John Dunkin, Tho. Ramsey, John Geernet (name appears as Garnett in bond).
We are not sure where the family of JOHN MORGAN lived; there were several families in the Gloucester area. Please read SECTION 0 for these entries. There seems to be another John Morgan in Essex who must have been in St. Mary's Parish a few years earlier and had a wife Hannah. He acquires land from Blackstone in 1701, then he and wife Hannah, sell the same land in 1704. I do not know whether this could be a cousin of our JOHN MORGAN or not. The JOHN MORGAN who married ANN BARBEE, must also have bought and sold some land which was close to the boundary of St. Anne's and St. Mary's Parish along the fork of the Pewmansend. He finally sold in 1719, with ANN also signing. Although this deed is listed as JOHN MORGAN of St. Mary's Parish, yet other deeds listing the "Portabacco" say either just Essex Co., or St. Anne's Parish, as a deed of William Pickett in 1718, in St. Anne's Parish along Portabacco Swamp lists witnesses as Thos. Hipkings and JOHN MORGAN (DORMAN p 2). JOHN MORGAN also buys land in 1725 from John Morris and William Goulding (in deeds Brant sent), and it is this plantation he bought from John Morris that JOHN leaves to ANN in his will (STUDY, p 4, will of JOHN MORGIN). The witnesses on the will should be: John Davis, Robert Wimpey, Thomas Newton, Mark Weeks. Proved by Robert Wimpey & Thomas Newton, 16 April 1734. ANN MORGAN with William Goulding, John Watkins & Edmond Connolly acknowledged their bond to the Court which was ordered to be recorded.
ANN BARBEE and JOHN MORGAN had 8 sons and one daughter, mentioned in JOHN'S will in 1733: (p 4, STUDY)

I. JOHN MORGAN (b 17 Mar 1704/5, Mddx.; d (?) 1733, Essex). Brant found a bond recorded 19 Mar 1733 in Essex by Grace Morgan, JOHN BARBEE, Wm. Golding, for Grace Morgan as adm. of JOHN MORGAN (Junr. in another deed) decd. This was found in the same entries as the will of JOHN MORGAN Sen. (wife Ann), so we wonder if father and son died in the same accident, or of the same sickness?
In 1728 there is a marriage recorded in WILKERSON of JOHN MORGAN and Grace Hawkins, wid. of John. See p S-9-3 for marriages of Grace. If this is the wife of JOHN MORGAN, JR., then when he dies in 1733 he leaves a dau Ann. On the 19 July in 1737, JOHN BARBEE (with Patrick Donahoe and James Boulware Jr.) posts bond for JOHN BARBEE as guardian of ANN MORGAN. On 20 Sept 1737, Thos. Thorp, Daniel Gains, and Thomas Hawkins entered a bond for Thomas Thorp and Grace his wife as guardians of ANN MORGAN; is it possible that the widow of JOHN MORGAN, Jr., married Thomas Thorp, and JOHN BARBEE took over the guardianship of ANN while they were being married?

If this "guess" is right (that JOHN MORGAN JR. is the son of JOHN & ANN BARBEE MORGAN) then he did not go to North Carolina as we had all thought.

II. WILLIAM MORGAN

III. EDWARD MORGAN

IV. MARK MORGAN. We all believe this to be the MARK MORGAN found in Orange Co. N.C. MARK MORGAN (Maj.) was one of the first Justices in Orange Co., N.C. in 1752, along with John Patterson. (ORANGE CT. MINS. p 1, 4) I have not found a will for MARK, but his widow posts bond as adm. in Aug. 1777 (CT. MINS., 7-14½) for Sarah Morgan and Hardy Morgan. In 1787, there is a will (WILLS, B-3) listed for Sarah Morgan, and she lists sons HARDY and JOHN, and daughters ANNE HART and SARAH YEARGAN, wife of Benj. Yeargan.
Here are two important documents:
MANNING BARBEE chose JOHN BARBEE as his guardian. Bondsmen, Benj. Hart, & JOSEPH BARBEE (CT. MINS. # 98, p 91, Nov 1763, see STUDY, p 6)
Will of HENRY SEARS, Exec. wife ROSE, and JOHN BARBEE, JR. (STUDY, 10)
Wits: MARK MORGAN, BENJAMIN HART, WM. BARBEE (WILLS, A-150, pr. May 1774)
Children of MARK and SARAH MORGAN as taken from her will:

A. HARDY MORGAN, wife Sarah. Will found in WILLS, C-98, pr. May 1797, exec. wife Sarah, John Daniel. Sons: Samuel and Allen.
Letter from J.K.T.S., 17 Oct 1974: "Nancy Morgan (m Chesley Page Patterson) was daughter of Hardy and Sarah Morgan of Orange, as proven in a document in Calloway Co., Ky. Courthouse Clerk's Office: deeds K, p 206, in which Christopher Barbee and his wife Sallie, daughter of Nancy Patterson, decd., was heir of the latter's brother, Lemuel Morgan who died in Orange in 1857. On 12 Mar 1858, the Barbees gave their interest in the Estate to their dau. Emily V. Mathis. Lemuel b ca 1785, was son of Hardy and mentioned in his will. There was a son, Allen, also." Children:

 4. SAMUEL MORGAN

B. JOHN MORGAN. Power of Atty., (WILLS, B-117, pro. Feb. 1791) to "trusty friend John Grant Rencher to manage his plantation", speaks of "my children" but does not name them. Wit: Henry Sears, Jacob Flowers Jr., MARK MORGAN (who this MARK MORGAN is, I do not know. He is probably the one who leaves deed of gift, 1792, to sons Mark, John and Solomon (B-185), but if he is also a son of MARK MORGAN d 1777, he is not listed in SARAH'S will in 1787. It is possible that as an oldest son he had already received his share. Or was he a nephew of MARK d 1777?)

C. ANNE MORGAN m (?) Benjamin Hart. SARAH MORGAN gives ANNE as ANNE HART in her will. From the association of the name Benjamin, we take it that ANNE'S husband was Benjamin Hart.

D. SARAH MORGAN m (1) John Tapley Patterson (d 1781 from smallpox, AM. REV. in Norfolk, Va.) married (2) Benjamin Yeargan (in mother's will). Page S-26-2 for all the children of SARAH MORGAN.

in Gloucester Co., 1667, 1674. Bohannans in Middlesex Co., from 1724 to 1740. I have obtained the will of Dunkin Bohanon (1753, rec. 1754, Orange Co., Va.) sons: William, Dunkin (d 1760, Orange Co., N.C.), Robert, Elliott (d 1781, Culpeper Co., Va.), Sarah Saymer, Judith Askue, Margaret (Rice) Gollorthum. Elliott's will lists: Ambrose, John, Elliott, Mildred Gains, Mary Herndon, and Anna Kirtley. Apparently Dunkin's sons William and Robert were dead, but there were heirs. Dunkin left many slaves between the heirs, but probably could not be sold until the Estate was settled. Were Mary and Judith daughters of either William or Robert?

In the Tax List of 1752-3 (from R.H.S.) in Orange County, N.C., JOSEPH BARBEE & Christopher Rhodes with 5 negroes, and Duncan Bohannan with 4 negroes. Duncan's will in 1760 says land adj. to John Rhodes, and deeds to sons list JOSEPH BARBEE, WILLIAM BARBEE, and Christopher Rhodes as witnesses. 1755 (R.H.S.) Notice Bohannans & Rhodes from Orange Co., VA., also Red, Could JOSEPH have gone into Orange Co., VA., married there before going on to Orange County, N.C.? Also the daughter who married a Redd? See next page.

FRANCIS BARBEE, or his son, married a HAWES? We have found in several places: Caroline Co., HAWES BARBEE married Polly Jones, 13 Dec 1799. Could this be a grandson of FRANCIS, and either his mother or grandmother was named HAWES? Isaac Hawes was witness to will of WILLIAM BARBEE (d 1757, Essex Co.) STUDY, 5. A Samuel Hawes was ... a witness to a deed in 1717 (DORMAN, p 47)

We found FRANCIS BARBEE & JOHN BARBEE in 1787 Tax List (p 11, STUDY)

We found FRANCIS BARBEE in 1800 Tax List, Caroline Co., 1 wh. poll, 2 slaves.

Brant has found will of Isaac Hawes, d 1789, Essex Co. He names grandsons JOHN BARBEE & HAWES BARBEE, sons of his dau. decd. Brant also found will of John Spindle (d 1805) who names (among others) a son BARBEE SPINDLE. Could FRANCIS have had 2 sons, JOHN & FRANCIS, one of whom married the HAWES girl, and a daughter, Mary, who married John Spindle? (deed 1798, John Spindle & ux Mary). Will of John Spindle (Essex 1805) names children: Lewis, BARBEE, Mordecai (m Sarah Noel), Philip, Ann Gray who had children: Wm. & Burton Gray, and daus Martha (m 1811 James Rennolds), and Mary (m 1817, Thos. D. Pitts). BARBEE SPINDLE married Rebecca Jones (dau of Erasmus Jones), found on deeds 1807 & 1822. He married (2) Fanny The will of BARBEE SPINDLE in 1838 lists wife Fanny, children: BARBEE, Joseph, Elizabeth, Virginia (m 1835, Thos. Garnet), Frances (m 1818, Daniel Rennolds), a dau (m Fleming), and Juliet (m Walter Bowie).

We found no BARBEES in the 1810 census of Caroline Co.

Brant found a FRANCIS BARBEE in COUNTY LAND RECORDS VA. MILITARY DISTRICT IN OHIO. He also found in the 1850 census, Franklin Co., Ohio, a HAWES & MARY BARBEE (ages 75 & 70) both born in VA., in the household of Eli Barbee #115-6, 117; William, Eli, and Hawes (33 yrs. old, b in Ohio) next door to one another. Could they be brothers and sons of the HAWES in the household of Eli?

ROSE BARBEE married HENRY SEARS, see page S-10-1, SUPP., for this family.

MARY BARBEE married EDWARD SEARS

1766, MARY SEAYERS bought home place of JOHN & ANN MILLER BARBEE, p 156, STUDY

Brant found a will in Essex of Robert Seayres, 1756 (he m Hannah Lafon), mentions brother Edward Seayres. Could HENRY and ROSE SEARS already be in N.C. and only his brother Edward in Essex in 1756?

MICAL BARBEE married JOHN PITTS (see p 10, STUDY). In PARISH REGISTER p 23, John Pitts & Mary Goodwin m 26 Oct 1684. Also in REGISTER, p 80, Richard Parrott m Sarah Pitts, 15 Jan 1705. Richard, son of Richard who m Sarah Curtis who was dau of Thomas & Averilla Curtis in Gloucester. Could this be the Thomas Curtis on will of Joseph Ham? (see pp S-0-9, S-0-10) I found PITTS in Devon, England.

The two maps in the SUPPLEMENT on Middlesex County, Virginia, are merely what I have put together from the descriptions found in NUGENT and a few other places. As any of you who have read NUGENT closely know, these descriptions are often vague and ambigious. I also think their "mileage calculator" was not too accurate! Most of the time the only descriptions were: "adjacent to and" However, it was these people they were "adjacent to" who turned out to be relatives and friends and for that reason, I was interested in them. It is impossible to give definite lines so the places marked are merely my guesses. I hope they will be of interest to you.
I have quoted some of the grant "descriptions" from which I formed an opinion as to where the BLAND grant was, and thereby, the WILLIAM BARBY land. You will find these descriptions on this page and page S-3-14.

At this late date (Nov. 1975), I have the information that FRANCES JONES who married, 1807, CHRISTOPHER BARBEE (s of JOSEPH, s of CHRIS), p 65, STUDY, was a daughter of a TIGNAL JONES (nfi).
GASKIA JONES married 1800, WILLIAM BARBEE (s of OLD KIT, s of WILLIAM d 1758) p 52, STUDY. She was the daughter of NATHANIEL & ANN JONES. This was the NATHANIEL who had as a great (maybe great-great) grandmother, a lady whose last name was TINGNALL. The Tingnall, or Tignal, was used several times in this family as a first name for the sons. Right now, I can not seem to trace all the families in this line, but because of the peculiar name, it seems there could not be any doubt but that they are all from the same family. (This is the family mentioned on p S-0-11).
Because a son of OLD KIT'S married a JONES from this family, we are wondering if NANCY (OLD KIT'S daughter) also married a JONES from this same family. This then, would be another line of JONES besides the JONES line OLD KIT'S wife MARY was from. This then, gives the J.R. JONES line of Kinmundy, Illinois, THREE different JONES lines to trace!

See page 50, STUDY

This information from a copy of dates from an old family Bible in a letter written before 1900, sent by Helen Womack.

Information from Helen Womack & others
Compiled by K.C.S.

JONES BARBEE (b 23 May 1812, Orange Co., N.C.; d 7 July 1889, buried Barbee Cem. near Dublin, Texas), married (1) 25 Oct 1831 Orange Co., N.C., Frances (Francis) Lloyd (b 12 Mar 1814, N.C.; d 9 Jan 1869, buried Barbee Cem. near Dublin, Texas) Frances was the daughter of Thomas Lloyd Jr. and Delilah Edwards. JONES BARBEE and family apparently left N.C. about 1835-6. He is found in the 1840 census of Haywood Co., Tennessee. He then moved to White County, Ark., where he is found on the 1850 census. One daughter was married in Searcy, Ark. JONES BARBEE then went to Texas as he is found on the 1860 and 1870 census of Comanche Co. He moved to Erath County in 1872 where he is found on the 1880 census. An Indian raid on his property was reported in 1858. A negro slave survived although he was seriously injured and left for dead by the Indians. Helen Womack sent me a copy of an article in the QUANAH TRIBUNE-CHIEF, dated July 26, 1973, which tells of the restoration plans of the Dublin Historical Society to move and refurbish the cabin of JONES BARBEE.

JONES BARBEE married (2) in March 1870, Erath County, Texas, Nancy (Turnbow) Gilbreath. There were no children, but she had several by a previous marriage. JONES BARBEE died 7 July 1889, and is buried in the Barbee Cemetery near Dublin, Texas, in Erath County. See also pp 51, 193, STUDY.

News & Notes

Dear Barbee Family News:

The enclosed Family Group Sheet, is the first Barbees that we have found in America that we can claim as ancestors. They lived in Overwharton Parish, Stafford County Virginia. At the same time, about1700, A William Barbee family was living in MIDDLESEX COUNTY Virginia, they went to Essex county Virginia and later most of this family went to North Carolina. We do not know the relationship between these families, or if one knew of the others presence in a near county.

There are two very good books about, the Barbee families of North Carolina. "A Study of the Barbee Families of Chatham, Orange and Wake Counties in North Carolina" by Ruth Herndon Shields, Belle Lewter West and Kathryn Crossley Stone. This book was printed in 1971. Soon, so many people wrote giving more information, that Mrs Stone had another book printed in 1976. It is a Supplement to " A Study of the Barbee Families et

I would like very much to find the maiden name of Sarah, who married Andrew . And the maiden name of Margaret, who married Thomas 1690-1752.

I have more Family group Sheets, about nine generations. Father to son, and in most cases the sons family.

Good hunting,

Herbert Barbee

FOREWORD

This pamphlet sprang from a casual desire to learn more of our Barbee ancestry. It was originally intended that information would be gathered and recorded only for personal use. Letters were dispatched, over a two and one-half year period, to known relatives, persons of the Barbee name and numerous state and county agencies. Many hours were spent in library and census research. So many promises were made to share information that some sort of multiple duplication process became necessary.

So much information was found in allied Barbee lines in North Carolina, Kentucky Tennessee and Texas,adequate and proper compilation of all material on hand would require years of spare time work, and the cost, if a professional job, would be prohibitive.

In order to fulfill the promise of sharing information without trying to sell a book or asking for contributions. it was decided to mimeograph a brief history giving the basic facts unearthed only on the direct lines of Major Edward Barbee's ancestry and descendents as far as it could be determined. He was undoubtedly a stout fellow, born in Orange County, North Carolina, in 1793; he fought the Indians in Tennessee as a young man and came to Texas in 1837 and lived to the ripe old age of 92. Perhaps a more comprehensive history might be written at some time in the future as considerable information on this and other related Barbee lines has been collected.

Information substantiated by documentary proof is stated as fact. Realistic clues or speculative material is stated so as not to be interpreted as fact. Every effort has been made to record the received information without transcription errors by constant rechecking, however, it is obvious that some information was given from memory. Information sheets have been sent out as many as three times to be completed. Some material was smudged to the point of being wholly illegible. Some have never returned their forms. The tribulations of a family genealogist are unbelievable. Every usable bit of information on direct family lines has been included when made available.

In general, most of the county officers and their clerks were quite helpful, although some never acknowledged receipt of letters addressed to them. It would be impossible to name all who gave assistance, without which this booklet would never have appeared. The most cooperative were Miss Betty June Hayes of Hillsboro, N. C., Mrs. Cordelia Gary of Hopkinsville, Kentucky, and Mr. G. C. Adkins of Clarksville, Tennessee. These people live in the counties of residence of Joseph Barbee and his children and their assistance was invaluable. Mr. B. F. Bell of Tyler, Texas, who is a friend of the Barbee family, but not directly related to them, secured all the information on the descendents of John Pleasant Barbee, which was no small task, and for this, the writer is indebted to him.

There is no authentic record of relatives emigrating to Texas with Major Edward Barbee and his immediate family although there is some evidence that Nancy Barbee Meacham, his sister, and David Laird, husband of Elizabeth Walthall, sister of his wife, Susan Pryor Walthall emigrated to Texas either before or in the party with him and his family. There is a picture in existence of "Aunt Patsy"

Meacham who would have been Major Edward Barbee's sister from the relationship given by the owner of the picture. A conditional land grant certificate, to David Laird, was given at San Augustine, Texas, June 9, 1838, one day after Major Edward Barbee received his conditional land grant certifcate at San Augustine, Texas. This David Laird may have been the same David Laird who married Elizabeth Walthall, sister of Major Edward Barbee's wife, Susan Pryor Walthall.

Since starting stencil cutting, evidence seems to indicate these Barbee families stem from William who died in 1720 in Essex County, Virginia and Elizabeth Barbee; their son John who died in 1750 in Middlesex County, Virginia and Ann Miller Barbee who died in 1762 in Middlesex County, Virginia. John and Ann Barbee definitely had a son John, and he seems to be the John Barbee who moved to Orange County, North Carolina where he died in 1799 leaving a large family including the son Joseph, born in 1761, who began the westward trek.

Many present generation Barbees believe one of their long lost Kentucky Barbee relatives originated the "Old Barbee" whiskey brand. Schenley Industries, Inc. advise that one of their subsidiaries is the owner of this trademark, having acquired it in 1933 from the John T. Barbee Company, a Maryland Corporation, incorporated in 1930. Their trademark files revealed an "Old Barbee" label, identifying the distillery as No.32, 7th District, Woodford County, Kentucky.

The U. S. Commissioner of Internal Revenue advises his earliest records concerning this distillery, indicates that it was operated by J. and F. Laval in the year 1893, however the report for 1894 indicates the name of the distiller was John T. Barbee. He presumably did not see fit to incorporate his business until 1930 which he sold in 1933 after the repeal of prohibition.

Compilation of this material has brought a great deal of pleasure and it could not have been accomplished without the assistance of that large group of relatives and friends whose assistance is gratefully acknowledged.

ORIGIN OF THE BARBEE FAMILY IN NORTH AMERICA.

In nearly all of the forty eight states of the Union you will find members of the Barbee family whose ancestry is traceable to pre-Revolutionary War families of Virginia. Most of the early Texas Barbee families trace their ancestry to Colonial North Carolina and Virginia. During this early period the family name was variously spelled Barbie, Barbier, Barbe', Barby, Barbee and in other ways.

Many of the present generation of Barbees are convinced they are descended from Glaude Barbie, the French Huguenot refugee who was settled in Mannakintown, Virginia in the year 1700-1701 (some think earlier), overlooking entirely the fact that several Virginia Counties were well populated with Barbees during the latter part of the 1600's. In Albermarle County, North Carolina, John Barbee witnessed the will of Joseph Allford in 1689, eleven years before Glaude Barbie arrived in Mannakintown.

There was another Huguenot emigrant to America of similar name from whom the Barbees more likely were descended. This is Glaude Barbier whose name was sometime spelled Barbe' and Barbie. He was one of the first settlers of Bushwick, Long Island (1656) and came from northern France. (See Huguenot Emigrants to America by Charles W. Baird, D. D.)

Jean Barbarie and his two sons, Piere and John Piere came to New York in 1688. Jean was an enterprising merchant and was ar Elder and Treasurer of the French Church in New York.

Jone (Jean)(John) Barby is mentioned as emigrating to Virginia in 1656. (See Early Immigrants to Virginia by Stanford) Jone Barbe' is mentioned as being in Virginia in 1656. (See Cavaliers and Pioneers of Virginia by Nugent)

In tracing the first Barbee settlers to Smith County, Texas, it was found that practically all who came to Texas before the Civil War were from North Carolina. The North Carolina Barbees seem to have settled in Orange County shortly after 1750 and there is strong evidence this group was from Essex and Middlesex Counties in Virginia.

In support of the New York state origin, Walter H. Barbee, Route No. 1, Dublin, Texas, at the age of 69, in 1953, advised that his grandfather, Hiram Barbee, a great grandson of Christopher Barbee of Orange County, North Carolina, told him that three brothers came from France to New York to found the Barbee families of Virginia and North Carolina.

William and Elizabeth Barbee of Middlesex County, Virginia had several children, one named John who was born in the late 1600's. William married as his second wife, Mary Gray. They had several children, one Gray, born in 1717.

John Barbee, son of William and Elizabeth, married Ann Miller in Middlesex County, Virginia in 1708. They later lived in Essex County, Virginia, where John died in 1750 and Ann in 1762. Ann's will named seven surviving children and two grandchildren. The children were Christopher, John, Joseph, Francis, Mary (Sears), Rose (Sears) and Mical (Pitts). The grand children were named as Christopher Jr. and Thos. Redd. Henry Sears was named as the husband of Rose Barbee and John Pitts as the husband of Mical Barbee. It is presumed that the husband of Mary Sears was deceased as was the mother of Thos. Redd. Ann Barbee had a son and brother-in-law named William Barbee. The will of William Barbee, made in 1752 and probated in Essex County, Virginia in 1757, left his estate to Ann Barbee without mentioning their relationship. He is presumed to be Ann Barbee's brother-in-law. William Barbee of Orange County, North Carolina, whose wife Rachael Barbee returned an inventory of his estate in 1758 is presumed to be Ann Barbee's son.

During the years following Ann Barbees death, the records of Orange, Wake and Chatham Counties, North Carolia reveal that five of her sons, one daughter and two sons-in-law or persons of similar names were involved in legal transactions resulting in the authentic recording of their names.

In Chatham County, John Pitts was given several land grants. Henry Sears died in Orange County in 1774. His will named his wife as Rose and one of his several children was named as Barby. Rose Sears obtained a land grant in 1782 in Orange County. There was a Joseph Barbee in both Wake and Chatham Counties and a Christopher Barbee in both Orange and Wake Counties during the Revolutionary War period.

John Barbee who died in Orange County, North Carolina in 1799, left a will naming his trusty brother Christopher and his wife Sarah as executors of his estate. His children were named as Mack (most likely Mark), Young, William, Joseph, Patt, John, Sylva, Edie, Sally, Elizabeth, Rosanna and Theina.

Joseph Barbee, son of John and Sarah Barbee was born February 7, 1761 in Orange County, North Carolina. October 1, 1782, in Orange County, he married Sally Trice who was born about 1768, the daughter of Thomas Trice. Joseph sold his land which he inherited from his father, and two young slaves in 1806 and presumably began the journey to Montgomery County, Tennessee, where in 1814, he purchased one negro slave. Witnesses to this transaction were Joseph's daughter Elizabeth and son Major Edward. In 1818 he acquired 100 acres of land and in 1824, sold it to Ross Jones, his son-in-law.

Joseph's children were, Polly, b. 10-20-1784; Rittie, b. 5-20-1787; Nancy, b. 8-20-1790; Major E., b. 3-1-1793; Elizabeth, b. 9-12-1795; Edy, b. 4-30-1798; Horace, b. 4-30-1800; Young P., b. 5-28-1804; Trice C., b. 7-3-1807; Pirtimon B., b. 2-3-1811; and Sally B. Mitcheam, b. 2-20-1814. Although Sally B. Mitcheam is listed with Joseph's children, she is presumably a granddaughter.

Joseph Barbee died in Christian County, Kentucky, October 3, 1826. His will named his children as Polly Patterson, Henrietta Moore (possibly Rittie), Nancy Meacham, Major E. Barbee, Elizabeth Chism, Eady Jones, Horace G. Barbee, Young P. Barbee and Trice C. Barbee. This leaves Pirtimon B. Barbee and Sally B. Mitcheam (Meacham) unaccounted for. Shortly afterward, Joseph's widow, Sally (Sarah) Trice Barbee emigrated to Marion County, Illinois, probably with her daughter Eady and Eady's husband, Ross Jones, or with her son Young P. Barbee as both children moved to Marion County, Ill.

Sally Barbee applied for and received a Revolutionary Soldier Widow's pension while residing in Marion County, Illinois in 1843. Her application was accompanied by pages cut from her family bible, giving the dates of birth of her husband, Joseph, and their children as listed above. Sally Barbee died in Marion County, Illinois, September 19, 1845.

Ross and Eady Jones were living in Marion Co., Ill. as early as 1830. The census returns of that county in 1840 indicate that Sally Barbee was probably living in the Jones household, and the 1850 census returns give Ross Jones age as 55, his wife Eady's age as 49, (both born in N. C.), and James (16 yrs) and Henderson Jones (8 yrs), presumably sons as living in the same household.

Young P. Barbee is first found in Marion Co., Ill. in the 1840 census of that county. Members of his household in the 1850 census with their indicated ages/sex and birthplaces are: Eliza 48 F, Va; Henrietta 25 F, Tenn; Joseph 22 M, Tenn; Emily 18 F, Tenn; Jackson 13 M, Iowa; Amanda 11 F, Ill; Young 9 M, Ill. These are evidently his wife and children. Members of his household in the 1860 census are: Elisa 56 F, Va; Amanda 20 F, Ill; Young P. 19 M, Ill. In the same census we also find Jackson H. Barbee 23 M, Wisconsin and Sarah Barbee 17 F, Ill. meaning that Jackson had married and established his home.

Family tradition amongst the Marion County Barbees has it that Young P. Barbee went to Missouri and was cut off by high water from flooded rivers. This presumably accounts for his son Jackson's birthplace being given as Iowa in one census and Wisconsin in another, as the present state of Iowa was at one time in Wisconsin Territory. Trice C. Barbee has not been located and it may be that he went to Missouri or an adjacent state and remained there.

The household of Joseph Barbee, b 1827, son of Young P. Barbee, can not be located in the 1860 U. S. Census, however in 1870 after his death his widow's household is listed as follows: Amanda Barbee 35 F, Tenn; Thomas 18 M, Ill; James 17 M, Ill; Lewis 15 M, Ill; Young 13 M, Ill; Emily 12 F, Ill; Jefferson 9 M, Ill; Joseph 2 M, Ill; Della 5 F, Ill. There were then three Young Barbees in Marion Co., Illinois.

One of these listed in 1870, Marion County was: Y. P. Barbee 28 M, Ill; Rebecca 21 F, Ill; Florence 8 F, Ill; Lee 5 M, Ill; Ettie 2 F, Ill.

Horace G. Barbee went to Mississippi, reared a family and left many descendents.

Some of the remaining daughters of Joseph Barbee of Orange Co., N. C., Polly Patterson, Henrietta (Rittie) Moore, Nancy Meacham and Elizabeth Chism may have emigrated to Texas with their brother Major E. This has not been established however it seems that Nancy Meacham and Elizabeth Chism may have moved to Texas.

Records of the War of 1812 show that Major Edward Barbee served as a private in Lt. Col. Henry H. Bryan's Detachment of Infantry in 1812 and that Abraham Loughridge served as a private in Capt. John Moore's Company, 1st Regiment, Col. Wm. Hall's Tennessee Volunteers from Sumner County as a substitute for Major-_____ Barber (Barba) in 1813 and was stationed at a camp near Nashville. The furnishing of a substitute was entirely legal and periods of duty were of short duration during periods of threatened security by the Indians.

Major E. Barbee is next found in Montgomery Co., Tenn. in July 1814, when he witnessed a deed conveying to his father Joseph, one negro slave.

Ed as he was called in Texas, over a half century later, was married in Christian Co., Ky., just across the state line from his parents home to Susan Pryor Walthall on May 16, 1822. Susan was the daughter of Thomas S_____ Walthall and his wife Rhoda _____. She was born in Virginia, July 26, 1805 and came to Cumberland Co., Ky. about 1810 and to Christian Co., Ky. about 1816. Her father died in 1822 and her mother in 1825 and it is from the Christian County Court records that this information is obtained. Thomas S. Walthall owned twelve slaves in 1810, sixteen in 1820 and when his estate was inventoried in 1822 there were fifteen slaves. His estate exclusive of real estate was appraised at $6,345.50 and when his farm of 323 and 9/10 acres was sold in 1826 it brought $1295.60 and by their standards Thomas Walthall must have been considered well to do.

Thomas Walthall's children and the name of their husband or wife and their residence are as follows, but not necessarily in the order of their birth:

1. Rebecca (Walthall) Woolridge, husband, Samuel.
2. Susan Pryor (Walthall) Barbee, husband, Major Edward.
3. Thomas S. Walthall Jr., wife, Elizabeth.
4. John H. (N) Walthall.
 The above were residents of Christian Co., Ky. in 1826.
5. Polly (Walthall) Bowman, husband, Granville.
6. William Walthall, wife, Mary.
 The above were residents of Cumberland Co., Ky. in 1826
7. Louisa A. (Walthall) Phillips, husband, Richard B.
 The above were residents of Montgomery Co., Tenn. in 1826
8. Elizabeth (Walthall) Laird, husband, David.
 The above were residents of Maury Co., Tenn. in 1826.
9. Martha B. Walthall, Granville Bowman made her guardian in December 1826.
10. Pleasant Thornton Walthall, William A. Walthall made his guardian in December 1825.

Ed and Susan Barbee's first child, Thomas S., named for Susan's father was born April 1, 1823 in Christian County as was their second child Elzie Hamilton, born September 15, 1824. Ed Barbee and family seem to have left Kentucky after the death his father and the death of Susan' father and mother. There were probably other children however of those who survived are known to the present generation, the third child was John Pleasant, probably named for Susan's brothers John H. and Pleasant Thornton. He was born March 23, 1829. Conflicting records indicate his birthplace as Tennessesse and Mississippi although Tennessesse is believed to be correct. The fourth known child was Henry Branch Barbee who was born May 29, 1833.in Tennessesse.

Some of Ed Barbee's descendents seem to think that he lived in Arkansas for a time before coming to Texas. This can not be confirmed however it is known that some of his Barbee cousins did live in Arkansas before moving to Erath and Comanche Counties in Texas about 1857.

According to the Texas land grant records, Ed Barbee arrived in the Republic of Texas in September 1837, being substantiated by a conditional certificate issued June 8, 1838 at San Augustine, Texas by the Board of Land

Commissioners of San Augustine County.

The Chorokee Indians in what is now Smith and adjoining counties were being incited to lawless acts by enemies of the young Republic of Texas and in 1839 were driven out of Texas after pitched battles in what is now Smith and Van Zandt counties. Due to the Indian uprisings, with which Ed was familiar in West Tennessesse in his youth he probably lived for a time near the established settlements along "El Camino Real" (The Kings Highway), running from Louisiana through San Augustine and Nacogdoches to San Antonio de Bexar until the Cherokee Indian War was concluded in 1839. It would appear that Ed Barbee came into East Texas from a point on the Mississippi River, probably at Natchez, Mississippi or on Red River in Louisiana near Natchitoches.

Ed Barbee received his final certificate from the Board of Land Commissioners of Panola County on September 7, 1841, in the town of Marshall, entitling him to 1280 acres of land as the head of a family. His certificate states "he having proved to us that he has resided in the Republic three years and performed all the duties required of him as a citizen."

It is presumed that by this time he had staked his claim to his grant in Nacogdoches County (later Smith County) which was surveyed on January 25, 1844. This tract of land was patented to M. E. Barbee on December 14, 1849 and was the first grant to a person bearing the Barbee surname in all of Texas.

Susan Barbee died on February 14, 1857, leaving four devoted sons and a husband. Her obituary quoted in part as follows: "She was emphatically a Christian lady, adorning every station in which she was called to act, as a wife, mother, mistress or neighbor." She is believed to be buried in the Antioch Cemetery, just east of Tyler, Texas, off the Kilgore Highway.

In the area where Ed Barbee settled there were many people from North Carolina. It is interesting to note that the nearest village was named Chapel Hill, presumably for Chapel Hill in Orange Co., North Carolina near Ed's birthplace.

On April 27, 1862, at the age of 69 years, Ed Barbee married Barbary Dickson, a widow 39 years of age from Butler Co., Alabama with a married daughter, Eliza Jane, wife of D. A. Nelson and four minor children, John T., Julia A., George A. and Susan. Apparently there were no children born of this marriage and nothing is known of his second wife and step children, except as obtained from the Smith County Court records and the 1860 U. S. Census of Smith County.

Ed Barbee has not been located on either the 1860 or 1870 Census and is thought to have been living with his youngest son Henry in 1860 who had left Smith County and with his second wife, Barbary in 1870, possibly in some other county. Barbary Barbee was still living in 1868 as there is a Smith County deed conveying property to another person in that year.

The 1880 U. S. Census of Smith County lists M. E. Barbee but does not reveal a wife or step children. After living to the ripe old age of 92 years 7 months and several days, and surely after many adventurous episodes inhis journeys through North Carolina, Tennessesse, Kentucky and finally Texas, Major Edward Barbee passed away in August 1885, probably at the home of his second son Elzie Hamilton Barbee near Tylor, Texas. Family tradition has it that he is buried in the Antioch Cemetery just east of Tyler, off the Kilgore Highway.

An incomplete list of the descendents of Ed Barbee's four children, I. THOMAS S_____ BARBEE, II. ELZIE HAMILTON BARBEE, III. JOHN PLEASANT BARBEE and IV. HENRY BRANCH BARBEE follow.

The descendents of Major Edward Barbee are listed by sections. Each of his four sons heads a section and the generations following Major Edward Barbee are identified as follows.

1st generation I., II., III. and IV.
2nd generation A., B., C., D., etc.
3rd generation 1., 2., 3., 4., etc.
4th generation a., b., c., d., etc.
5th generation i., ii., iii., iv., etc
6th generation (a), (b), (c), (d), etc.
7th generation (i), (ii), (iii), (iv), etc.

Succeeding generations are indented under preceding generations. To determine lineage of any person of any generation it is only necessary to work upward by generations from the person whose lineage it is desired to establish.

THE DESCENDENTS OF THOMAS S. BARBEE AND HIS WIFE MARY ADELINE KIDD
Incomplete.

I. THOMAS S_____ BARBEE. He was the first child of Major Edward Barbee and his wife Susan Pryor Walthall and was born April 1, 1823 in Christian Co., Kentucky, where his parents were married the previous year. He was undoubtedly named for his maternal grandfather, Thomas S. Walthall.

He came with his parents and three younger brothers at the age of 14 to the Republic of Texas in September 1837. On November 6, 1843, the Board of Land Commissioners of Harrison County issued a certificate to Thos. S. Barbbee (note spelling), recognizing his claim to 320 acres of land by virtue of a conditional certificate previously issued to him by the Board of Land Commissioners of Panola County on September 7, 1841. On August 6, 1854, he executed an affadavit in Smith County stating that he had lost or mislaid his certificate and was therefore unable to control it. This affadavit was signed Thomas S. Barbee. The General Land Office in Austin holds the records and show that 320 acres of land were patented to Thos. S. Barbbee (note spelling) on November 21, 1854.in Blanco County.

Whether he ever lived on the Balnco County property is not known, however Blanco County deeds reveal that he sold a one half undivided interest in the property in 1855. He was identified as a resident of Smith County. In 1883 he sold the remaining one half undivided interest in the Blanco County property. Although the deed was signed at Brownings and acknowledged before a Smith County Notary Public on August 8, 1883, he was identified asa resident of Caldwell County, but none of his descendents or relatives have any knowledge of residence in that County. He has not been located on the U.S. Census in Caldwell County or are there any deed transactions in that county under his name.

Entries in his brother Elzie Hamilton's family bible and the Smith County marriage records confirm that he was married to Elizabeth A_____ Stewart on February 7, 1856. Elizabeth was a sister of Narcissa Jane Stewart, wife of Elzie Hamilton Barbee, Tom Barbee's next younger brother. Elizabeth's parents owned the property adjoining that of Tom's brother, Elzie and quite near that of his parents. She was the daughter of George A. Stewart and his wife Mary and was born in Alabama on January 10, 1834. Elizabeth died September 6, 1860 in Smith County.

The Probate Court records of Smith County show an appraisal of the community property of Thos. W. Barbee and his deceased wife E. A. Barbee. The appraisal is signed by Tom's brother, E. H. Barbee and two others and includes the usual items found on a farm. One item was 1000 pounds of pork, presumably cured and appraised at 6 cents per pound. This is in sharp contrast to the appraised value of 500 pounds of bacon at 20 cents per pound when the estate of his brother, John Pleasant Barbee was appraised in March 1863 during the Civil War.

Tom Barbee is variously referred to in several documents as Thomas S., Thomas H., Thomas W., and in some of the land grant records as Thomas S. Barbbee.

According to the 1860 census and Elzie Hamilton Barbee's family bible,

See note page 9 for information obtained after the above was written.

one child was born to Tom and Elizabeth Barbee:

A. LOUCIOUS A_____ BARBEE was as far as can be determined the first and only child of Thomas S. Barbee and his/wife Elizabeth A. Stewart. He was born December 13, 1858, presumably in Smith County and died April 2, 1876.

THOMAS S_____ BARBEE married second in Smith County, on July 1, 1868, MARY ADELINE KIDD who was born in Tennessee about 1835 although one U. S. Census indicates about 1839, Three children are known to have been born to this couple: B., Minnie Gertrude; C., Maud Thomas and D., Forest R. Mary Adeline outlived her husband by many years and after his death, went with her daughter Minnie,, to Trussville,Alabama, where she died in 1934. Thomas is known to have farmed in eastern Smith County where he died sometime after 1885, in which year a letter written by his father to his brother, Henry, said, "Thomas is chopping." This evidently referred to chopping cotton.

B. MINNIE GERTRUDE BARBEE was as far as can be determined the second child of Thomas S. Barbee and his second wife Mary Adeline Kidd. She was born about 1870 (from 1880 census) and married B. INGRIM BASS. Minnie and her husband moved to Trussvile Alabama,/Minnie's mother Mary Adeline to live with them. Minnie died in or near Trussville Alabama in September 1933. Therewere no children born to this couple.

C. MAUD THOMAS BARBEE was as far as can be determined the third child of Thomas S. Barbee and his second wife Mary Adeline Kidd. She was born about 1876 (from 1880 census). She married SAMUEL CLINTON NICHOLSON near Kilgore, Texas. He was born December 5, 1858 near Kilgore, Texas, the son of Walter Caruth Nicholson and his wife Nancy Emmaline Spinks who resided near Kilgore. Maud died in or near Winona Texas about 1916 and her husband, Samuel died in or near Winona about 1934. Three children were born to this couple: 1. Langley; 2. Gladys and 3. Thelma Gertrude.

1. LANGLEY _____ NICHOLSON was the first child of Samuel Clinton Nicholson and his wife Maud Thomas Barbee. He was born in Smith County and died in Winona, Texas when about two years of age.

2. GLADYS_____ NICHOLSON was the second child of Samuel Clinton Nicholson and his wife Maud Thomas Barbee. She was born November 11, 1900 in Winona, Texas. She married WILLIAM LUBMAN and one child was born to this couple:

 a. CHARLOTTE THELMA LUBMAN was born June 17, 1925, in Dallas, Texas.

GLADYS NICHOLSON, after the death of her husband, William Lubman married HUGH L_____ ARMSTRONG and they are living in Phoenix, Arizona, where Hugh is understood to be in the contracting business.

3. THELMA GERTRUDE NICHOLSON was the third child of Samuel

Clinton Nicholson and his wife Maud Thomas Barbee and was born in Winona, Texas, September 7, 1905. She was married September 27, 1925 in Dallas, Texas to BENJAMIN FIELDS JOHNSON, the son of Charlie Johnson and his wife, Willie _____, of Mt. Pleasant, Texas. Benjamin was orphaned at a very early age and little is known of his antecedents. This couple lived in Los Angeles, California where Benjamin was an auto insurance adjuster. He died in Waco, Texas, November 10,1943. Thelma Johnson makes her home in Dallas, Texas. Two children were born to this couple:

a. BOBBY FRANCIS JOHNSON, born October 13, 1926 in Los Angeles, California.

b. CHARLES CLINTON JOHNSON, born January 4, 1929 in Los Angeles, California. He married in Dallas, Texas, March 4, 1952, MARY ALICE HOOK, the daughter of Bruce Hook and his wife Leila _____. She was born August 11, 1931 in San Angelo, Texas.

NOTE

Thomas S. Barbee was presumably named for his grandfather Thomas S. Walthall. In many public documents he is referred to as Thomas W. Barbee. In a Confederate Army Muster Roll deposited in the National Archives in Washington, D. C. after capture by Union Troops during the Civil War, the following information was obtained regarding Thos. W. Barbee who is undoubtedly Thomas S. Barbee, above. The age as given is correct.

THE DESCENDENTS OF ELZIE HAMILTON BARBEE AND HIS WIFE
NARCISSA JANE STEWART
Incomplete.

II. ELZIE HAMILTON BARBEE. He was the second child of Major Edward Barbee and his wife, Susan Pryor Walthall. He was born September 15, 1824, presumably in Christian Co., Kentucky where his parents were married and his maternal grand parents lived.

He came to Texas with his parents in September 1837, at the age of 13, however his conditional headright (land grant) certificate No 91 issued by the Board of Land Commissioners of Harrison County, dated July 3, 1843, states that he arrived in the Republic (of Texas) on September 15, 1841, and was asingle man. This is the date he became 17 years of age and is apparently the date he became eligible to receive a headright grant rather than the actual date of his arrival.

"Ham" as he was called, subsequently received an unconditional grant of 320 acres of land on his appearance before the Harrison County Court on September 14, 1847. This grant was patented to him on December 30, 1851, by proclamation of E. M. Pease, Governor of Texas. This tract of land is identified in Smith County records as the E. H. Barbee Survey and lies approximately 14 miles east of Tyler, Texas and approximately one half mile south of the present Tyler-Kilgore highway.

The deed records of Smith County (Vol. C., page 128) reveal that "Ham" sold his headright grant of 320 acres of land to Mrs. Sabra Baker for $420.00 in cash and a bay horse valued at $100.00 on February 11, 1850, binding himself to secure the patent to the land he was selling.

Two items are of interest in this connection. Mrs. Sabra Baker was the mother of Ann Elizabeth Baker who married John Pleasant Barbee, "Ham's younger brother the following year. John Pleasant lived only a short distance away with his parents. In the description of the property it is designated as being bounded on the north and east by G. A. Stewart who was the father of Narcissa Jane Stewart, "Ham's" wife and Elizabeth A. Stewart who married "Ham's" older brother, Thomas S. Barbee.

"Ham" and Narcissa Jane Stewart were married by Eli E. Cousan, J. P., in Smith County on November 7, 1848, according to their family bible, or December 7, 1848 according to Smith County records. Narcissa Jane was born in Alabama, October 9, 1832, the daughter of George A_____ Stewart who was born in Georgia, May 8, 1802, and his wife Mary A_____, who was born in Georgia, February 27, 1804. The family bible indicates that George and Mary Stewart were married April 10, 1827, apparently in Alabama. There is no available record of their death .

"Ham" was apparently a man of deep religious convictions, according to family tradition and the obituary published upon his death.

"Ham" purchased the headright certificate of Andrew M. Waldrip and received, as Waldrip's assignee, 320 acres of land on the waters of Mud Creek, about nine miles east of Tyler, Texas on October 26, 1850. (Vol. H, Page 130, Smith Co.). This is known as the Andrew M. Waldrip Survey and is where he farmed and reared a large family. "Ham" died November 26, 1890 and his wife Narcissa Jane passed away March 10, 1902. Both were buried in the Antioch Methodist Church Cemetery near their home. Eight children were born to this couple: A. George Edward; B. Louisa Virginia; C. William Josiah; D. Mary Caroline; E. Susan Pryor; F. John Samuel; G. Walter H_____, and H. Emma Eudora.

A. GEORGE EDWARD BARBEE was the first child of Elzie Hamilton Barbee and his wife Narcissa Jane Stewart and was born just east of Tyler, Texas on November 7, 1851. He was the first Texas born descendent of his grandfather, Major Edward Barbee. He was named George for his grandfather Stewart and Edward for his grandfather Barbee.

George married, December 24, 1872, in Van Zandt Co., Texas, CORNELIA TEXANNA PRATHER, who was born, presumably in Smith Co., Texas, August 3, 1855. She was the daughter of Samuel Prather, born about 1817 in South Carolina and his wife Nancy Tunnell, who was born about 1822 in Alabama. Samuel Prather's father was Isaac Prather and his grandfather was Thomas Prather. Samuel Prather is buried in Sherwood Cemetery in Rockwall, Texas.

George Barbee or Ed as he was called, lived about one mile west of the village of Van in Van Zandt Co., Texas. The western limits of the Van oil field are on his old home place where seven of his eight children were born. Ed was a devout Methodist and served his church faithfully in various capacities.

The family moved to Grand Saline about the year 1890 where George died, February 4, 1897. He wife Cornelia died September 14, 1905. They are buried with their infant son , Samuel H_____, in the Union Chapel Methodist Church Cemetery between Garden Valley and Van. Eight children were born to this couple:
1. Fannie Louella; 2. Samuel H_____; 3. Ada Missouri;
4. Oscar Estelle; 5. Claudius Lamar; 6. Effie Ophelia;
7. Donnie Edward and 8. Pirdie May.

1. FANNIE LOUELLA BARBEE was the first child of George Edward Barbee and his wife Cornelia Texanna Prather, and was born at the family home, one mile west of Van, Texas on January 23, 1874. She married, first, on November 12, 1891 at Van, JOHN FLYNN LINDSEY, who was born January 26, 1869 at Omen, Smith Co., Texas, the son of William Henry Lindsey and his wife, Frances Ann Brown of Omen. She was the eighth child of James Willoughby Crawford and his wife, Adelaide Lavinia LaNoue who was born in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, June 13, 1853 and died in Bunkie, Louisiana, August 25, 1928.

James Willoughby Crawford was born near the present town of Batson Texas October 12, 1849 and died in Cheneyville, Louisiana, September 25, 1891. His parents were James Cash Crawford and Amanda Missouri Grimball. Although family sources indicate that James Cash Crawford was a native of Beaufort District, South Carolina and Amanda Missouri Grimball was born in Woodville, Mississippi in 1812, the U. S. Census of Rapides Parish, Louisiana in 1850 does not agree. This source gives James Cash Crawford's age as 32, occupation as Farmer and birthplace as Louisiana. The year of his birth then would be about 1818. This source gives Amanda Missouri Grimball's age as 28 and birthplace as Louisiana. The year of her birth then would be about 1822.

James Cash Crawford and Amanda Missouri Grimball were presumably married in Rapides Parish, Louisiana where he inherited a large number of slaves as his part of his father Richard F. Crawford's estate in 1839. In the partition agreement his mother was identified as Mrs. Margaret Leckie (Leckey), it being assumed that she had remarried. About 1845 James Cash Crawford and his wife, Amanda purchased several hundred acres of land in Liberty, later Hardin County, Texas, near the town of Batson and the Sour Lake oilfield where his son, James Willoughby was born. After her husbands death, Amanda lived and died with one of her daughters near Houma, Terrebonne Parish, Louisiana.

Amanda Missouri Grimball was a sixth generation descendent of Paul Grimball, an English merchant and his wife, Mary Stoney. Paul Grimball came to the Province of South Carolina in February 1682 with a communication from the Lord Proprietors authorizing a grant of 3000 acres of land on the Ashley River. (See OUR FAMILY CIRCLE, Publishers, J. W. Burke Co., Macon, Georgia)

Adelaide Lavinia LaNoue's paternal grandfather, Louis Marie Michael Hypolite de la Noue, Count de Vere was a native of Pontijac, Department of Gers, France. His native home is thus described in 1817 in his contract of marriage and marriage record which gives his age as 38. (Born about 1779). The record of marriage of his sister, Anne Caroline de LaNoue in Commune de ST. GUIRAUD-WARD AUCH (5E 636) on 26th December 1807 gives her birthplace as Pontijac, 5th October 1785. Her parents are identified as Joseph Francois Louis Marthe, Count de LaNoue, Marshall of the Camp, Chevalier of the Royal and Military of St. Louis, Officer of the Legion of Honor and Madam Hypolita LeSage Dellaville, living at St. Guiraud. The parents of Louis Marie Michael Hypolite de la Noue, Count de Vere are the same as Anne Caroline de LaNoue's. It is reported that he fled France during the French Revolution and found refuge in Florida. He married in New Orleans, in 1817 Adelaide Colla who was born in Florida about 1795, the daughter of Juan Bautista Maria Colla and his wife Adelaide Maroteau. The Colla lineage can be traced to the early 1700's near Marseilles, France.

Adelaide Lavinia LaNoue's father was John Charles LaNoue, son of Louis Marie Michael Hypolite de la Noue and her mother was Eliza Ann Morgan, called Lilly. Lilly's father was Judge Thomas Gibbes Morgan, Judge of the Third Judicial District of Louisiana. She was born in the family home in Baton Rouge, Louisiana where the "old" State Capitol was built in 1847. Her great grandfather, Col. George Morgan was descended from David Morgan, Gentleman of Wales. Col. Morgan was the first Indian Agent appointed by the Colonies and his commission was signed by John Hancock, President, Continental Congress. Her oldest brother was Philip Hickey Morgan, Justice of the Supreme Court of Louisiana, U. S. Minister to Mexico and U. S. Judge of the International Court, Egypt in 1880-81. Her youngest brother was James Morris Morgan, author of "RECOLLECTIONS OF A REBEL REEFER" and many magazine articles and other books.

THE DESCENDENTS OF HENRY BRANCH BARBEE AND HIS WIFE
SOPHRONIA VIRGINIA BIFFLE
Incomplete

IV. HENRY BRANCH BARBEE was as far as can be determined the fourth child of Major Edward Barbee and his wife Susan Pryor Walthall. He was born May 29, 1833, in Tennessee, although the exact location is unknown. On his mother's side the Walthalls of Virginia were probably connected by blood or friendship to the Branch family of Virginia although this has not been definitely established.

Henry Branch Barbee emigrated to Texas with his parents and brothers in September, 1837, as evidenced by his father's conditional land grant certificate from the Republic of Texas. He was a farmer in his youth and married, June 23, 1853, in Smith County, Texas, SOPHRONIA VIRGINIA BIFFLE, who was born February 5, 1838. Henry was a teaming contractor according to information from his descendents and was engaged in construction of the Cotton Belt Railroad in Hunt and other counties and the State Fair Grounds in Dallas, Texas, before his death in 1888. His birthdate is from his brother's family bible and is considered accurate while some of the other dates are from memory and may not be accurate.

Henry Branch Barbee died in Dallas, Texas, November 15, 1888. The Dallas, Texas City Directory first lists persons with the Barbee surname in 1878-79. In 1889-90, after the death of Henry Branch Barbee his son Henry is listed as a Teamster and Sophronia Barbee is listed as his widow.

Barbees first appeared in the Ft. Worth City Directory in 1888-89 and in 1894-95, Sophronia, widow of Henry B., and her son Henry B. (II) are listed.

REMARKS:

Friday April 1

Dear Miss Barbee,

I'm almost certain you will not remember me. I was one of your students around 1936 & 37 at Thornton school in Terre Haute. I was Bernice Salem oldest of three Salem children you had in your classes. After leaving T.H. since marriage I have lived in California and now live in Whiteland, Ind., which is about twenty miles south of Indianapolis.

Last June I was sent to a T.B. hospital and after four months there was allowed to come home. I am still in bed most of the time which means I have lots of free time. At first I started tracing my husband's family(Duvall) because our boy seems to be the only boy to carry on the family name. Since this has proved very interesting I thought I might as well do the Barbee's too. I have no idea as to whether our families connect somewhere but wonder if you could give me some help.

My great-grandfather:
Benjamin Barbee-b. 1820 d. 1890

Eliseane Barbee-b. Oct. 1828
Their children:
John W. 1850-1877
Tom Dec. 1851
Carrie 1854-1878
Lewis 1857
Silas 1859-1890
George 1868
Oscar 1865-my grandfather. He married Mary Pauline Vetter.

From what I can find these children were born in Hamilton Co., Ohio. As you can see I don't have much to work on. All the dates I have were found in a bible owned by my aunt.

Since Iccant get out to check census records I thought maybe you could give me a lead as to how I can find the parents of my great-grandfather. Any information you can give me I will greatly appreciate.

Are you still teaching in T.H. My two children are staying with my sister there and are attending Davis Park school. We hope to have them at home this summer. You may remember my husbands family. I am married to Roy Duvall Jr. I believe they met you through the Youngstown Methodist Church.

Hope this letter finds you well and will be looking forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely

Bernice Salem Duvall

Dear friends,

I have owed you both letters for several years. I ran some rather extensive ads in the Genealogical Helper and overextended myself as far as the time available to correspond. Please let me introduce myself I am 50 years of age and have four children, the oldest two of whom are married. I am Sales Manager of Cascades Plywood Corporation, with head office here in Portland and mills in Lebanon and Reedsport, Oregon, Los Angeles, California and Polson, Mont. I have to be out of town a fair amount of time, and it is not always predictable when I will have to make trips. I was in Richmond, Virginia in March, and had a day to spare, but the library was closed due to a heavy snow fall. I have been working at genealogy since 1936, belonged to The Institute of American Genealogy of Chicago all through the war, and used to borrow books by mail from their extensive library. I have subscribed to Genealogy and History since the first issue and have all copies. My subscription to The Genealogical Helper started in 1955.

Sometimes I think I am working on too many lines, as I now have over 100 in which I am interested on my wife's side as well as my own. I have a loose leaf note book with the main notes on each line, some of the lines running to 50 pages (Barbee is 7 pages), These are all typewritten. I have a set of folders for correspondence and miscellaneous notes, also filed by family. As I am descended from Thomas Barbee through two of his daughters, I have more Barbee blood than anything, and have been thinking I should now concentrate on just a few lines, and that I might get more enjoyment and better results that way. The Barbees are on my father's side, and I am fortunate to have most of my data through an elderly aunt in Omaha, Nebraska who employed a professional genealogist to search these lines over a period of many years. This aunt obtained all her information in this manner, and it was expensive, so she does not approve of giving the information out, so I must be carefull that she is not quoted as the source, or that my correspondents do not get back to her, She reproved me strongly for giving out information in my ad in the Dec. issue of the Genealogical Helper. She has promised to leave me all her notes when she dies, so I am somewhat limited on the extent I can work these lines for the present.

I should like to establish a formal or informal Barbee Family Association pertaining particularly to the Barbees of the South. I thought perhaps the three of us could work something out. I would ask that one of you act as corresponding secretary, but would be all the help I could in copying and typing. I believe I could have some bulletins or notes copied by a photographic process at the office, but this would have to be in limited quantities. This is all nebulous now, and we would have to work it out, but I am definitely interested. If you are both interested, I think we should start with a listing in the March, 1961 issue of The Genealogical Helper under Family Associations.

Now for some more concrete information from my notes. These notes (from Aunt Grace) are largely summaries of wills, deed and land records of Stafford and Fauqueir Counties Virginia, plus odds and ends I have picked up myself. Thank goodness Barbee is not a common name. I am working also on lines like Adams, Hill and Burton and they are tough. The key to my line seems to be:

Thomas Barbee(b. ca 1703) will prob. 1752, Stafford Co., Va.
Wife Margaret (possibly Russel) (2 grandsons with middle name Russel)

Children:

Andrew	m. Jane Delaney, dau of Joseph Delaney
Thomas	m. Margaret (confusing when 2 Thomases marry
John	m. Mary----Had son Margarets)
Sarah	m. O'Bannon
Catherine	m. Withers
Mary	m. 2-24-1745 William Courtney
Lydia	m. John Grant(name has carried down to my father and son both named John Grant)
Ann	m. Garner Burgess(I am also descended from her)
Betty	m. 1-1-1750 William Smith

Also, this info on the son Thomas: wife Margaret

Children:

Judy	born	10/21/1749
William	"	4/ 3/1751
Thomas	"	10/18/1752
John	"	11/12/1754
Sarah	"	1/28/1756
Betty	"	3/23/1757
Joseph	bap.	6/28/1758

I shall try to get one of the girls at the office to photograph my complete notes so that I may send them to each of you on the next round. Have either of you had correspondence with any other Barbee descendants who might be interested in such an organization? Enough for now. I hope thisefinds you still interested in this line.

Yours, sincerely,
Paul A. Grant

Dear Fellow Seeker:

Did I ever send this to you, regarding Thomas Barbee? I know that your main problem was on Wigginton---but I have not solved that, either--We still are busy on "Botts" & all allied families altho Mr. H. J. Rhodes went ahead on his publication of "Rhodes" (& Botts et al) so he is letting the copy go at that & counting his work & expense as a "labor of love"-(We have ordered one copy to be here by Aug.) You probably know all aboutit?

I wonder if you ever did hear from that Mildred Jones (of the east coast somewhere)? She would just write me cards (& send no return one) and urge me to "hurry the reply back to her "OOI feel a "fair exchange", is a good policy, myself.

It had been a wonderful warm winter here in our part of Mont.- but at present, wind N.E., & a threat of storm.

Yesterday a car with a young man & wife came-he had been to Blue Grove Texas to see his parents and said Mother had a letter from you, saying we are kin in some manner & wanting me to stop in"-He desc. from Sarah Botts who married Innis Brown in Va.,-- His own gr father was Lewis Botts Brown-who went from Va., to that place in Texas with wife E.V. (Milan* and L. B. was killed someway before his son was born-this man's father (Frank) was born 62 yrs. ago.--(He is an oil drill rig operator-in N.D. (But had been in Custer last winter for 2 monts!)

Geo W. Glass "just folded up" on genealogy research it seemed- The last time I sent him money in a letter he neither returned it nor answered me & I asked him but one simple question & which was where he had found the item (sold) me earlier as reference was not given & some more of his Botts references would "go well, in this search!

With bestest & kindest wishes,

Sincerely,
Alta (Mrs. Elmer) Botts

Dear Mrs. Barbee:

I just noticed in the March 1955 issue of "The Genealogical Helper" your interest in the Barbee family. I am descended from Thomas Barbee whose will was probated March 10, 1752 in Stafford Co., Va., I have a copy of his will. His wife was Anne, daughter of Garner Burgess. At Present I cannot go back farther than this, but I have six typewritten pages of Barbee material and will be glad to exchange data with you if you are interested in the same line. I hope very much that you are still interested in this and that I will hear from you.

Yours sincerely,
Paul A. Grant.

Dear Cousin:

The Barbee family history went to press at 4:45 P.M. June 10th and was bound except for a few copies before noon today.

Your copy is in the envelope to be mailed early next week. You should have it in a week.

In going through my papers I found the address of the man I bought the genealogical information sheets from. Although he is dead I'm sure his eife will be able to supply them. His name and address-George L. Price, 958 Lincoln St., Salt Lake 5, Utah.

I am extremely interested in your Virginia findings. The C Culpepper and Essex-Middlesex counties Barbees should be connected some way but I havent definitely (beyond a doubt) connected all generations of the Essex-Middlesex, Va., Barbees to Orange County, N.C. Barbees. It does seem quite logical and by circumstantial evidence I am convinced. Please let me know what you find. The Box 1051 Corpus Christi, address is good only until June 30th, After which I go back to my old home in Houston 2735 Arbuckle St., Houston, 5, Texas. Mail addressed to me at either of the above places will be forwarded to me as I am going to Portland Maine for two months work in July and August and will take 3 weeks vacation in September thru N.C. Tennessee and Ky., in some of the Court houses.

If you run across anything of interest drop me a line % Portland Pipe Line Corp., 335 Forest Avenue, Portland Maine but no later than August 30th arrival. Sorry I won't be coming through your part of the country.

Sincerely,
Jim Barbee

Dear Miss Barbee:

You know by this time that I am the world's worst procrastinator. I have ceased to offer apologies for this fact much as I regret it.

Thank you for the remittance of $25.00 which has bestirred me at this time.

I have had this photostat for a long time and did the tax list search in Richmond several weeks ago. I have been hoping to get to Richmond and also to Stafford Court House, but, so far, have not gone. I shall keep on hoping and maybe can turn up something in re Barbee in the meantime.

You will see, by the enclosed notes that Lameth Barbee was undoubtedly from Stafford County and that there were Barbees in that County as early as 1700.

The earliest date for Lameth is the tax list of 1810. You will note the statement on the photostat that all of these men were from Stafford Co. and that they were discharged at Ellicott Mills. That is in Maryland at the present Ellicott City. I have found no further record of service of any kind for Lameth.

I know, by experience, that it is of no use whatever to write to the Clerk at Stafford. I can get no answer from there.:--shall just have to go. In Richmond there are Court Records for most of the counties on micro-film down to 1800 as shown by the tax lists.

I hope you will be able to establish credentials for the Huguenot Society. Did I ever send you my notes on Barbee from the publication of that Society? I think I did. But the "Rub" is to prove the parentage of Lameth. It is a long step in this direction to have found his home county.

The tax lists indicate that Susannah may have been the mother of Lameth and she evidently was a widow still living in 1818. A further search of those lists might show when she died.

When I found this record of War of 1812 service for Lameth B arbee I made a systematic search in National Archives for pensions for each and every name on this list. Some of them did apply for pension but not one mentioned Lameth Barbee in his application. You know these applicants do often present depositions with their applications from their former comrads. Lameth has no such record so far as I could find. Nor did he apply for Bounty Land.

I have some scattered notes on your Wiggintons, but shall stick to Barbees for the time being.

Sincerely

Nellie P. Waldenmaier.

Dear Miss Barbee:

I am going to be at the above address until July 1st then will be in Houston at the old address. Glad to hear from you and hope to hear from you from time to time.

About your Lameth I was under the impression you had him in Ky., about 1811 however my memory must have slipped. What evidence do you have that he was from Stafford Co Va? Of course there were Barbees in Stafford, Culpepper, Faquier, Essex and Middlesex Counties Va., some in the late 1600's. All those counties are reasonable close together too.

I am interested in your find because through circumstantial evidence which to me is almost airtight, I have gone back to Middlesex Co., Va., in 1687 and Essex in later years. Middlesex on the coast may mean that some of these moved to some of the inland counties.

I'm sure you have corresponded with Mrs. John S. Welborn of High Point N.C. who has given me considerable Barbee information from Va., and N.C. She uses a ball point pen which is hard to read and has given me good information but wrong dated part of the time.

I am enclosing some material from her and my resurrection of the Barbee family in Middlesex Co., Va., beginning in 1685-87. Some of the material is unchecked so please don't use to wholeheartedly as I wouldn't want to circulate incorrect information. I am checking it as best I can as I go. I would appreciate your making sufficient notes to suit your purposes and return the material to me.

Through census searches (1850) I found Tennessee Wilson County Barbees who came from Virginia shortly after 1800. Also Montgomery Co., Tenn., Barbees in there from Va., in 1850 census. If this will help will furnish details for you.

Please let me hear from you soon on your Lameth.

You can forget about Glaude Barbie the Mannakintown Huguenot. Mannakintown was used by the Huguenots in 1699-1700 and thereafter. Please refer to a book entitled "Documents, Chiefly Unpublished, Relating to the Huguenot Emigration to Virginia and to the Settlement at Mannakintown." compiled for the Virginia Historical Cociety, 1886 by a man named Brock. My notes mention page 103 which may be the page Glaude Barbie's name appears. However you will find with reference to Manakintown Passenger lists from four ships, one from "Ye Peter and Anthony, Galley of London" another "du Second Convoy." On March 9, 1700, the colonial government had a big Pow wow about the destitute condition of the refugees and what they were going to do with those coming in on the Nassau expected immediately. Then also find the copy of the contract dated in London December 3 1700 for a forth coming voyage with refugees. Our alleged ancestor Glaude Barbie was a passenger on the Nassau and he went to Mannakintown in 1700 or 1701.

I'm sure my ancestors were already here then. This book has helped me a lot. Read it and see for yourself if you haven't already done so.

Lets hear from you soon,

Sincerely

Jim Barbee

The family data sheets were sotained from a man named Price in Utah (I think), He has since died and his family moved. Perhaps you can reach them at the old address which I found in one of the old Genealogical Helpers about 1950 and can't locate now.

Dear Miss Barbee:

Here are some notes I made in the Library of Congress today. If I waited to type them properly it might be a week or more before you would get them. The interesting fact about these records is that there was a Barbe' family in England at this early date and they were in this Canterbury Register of Wallons (that is the way it is spelled). Therefore I conclude that they had gone from France to Holland; then to England. Just how your line fits onto this group is not postively proven, but The Huguenot Society might accept the fact of the migration as sufficient.

Sincerely Nellie P. Waldemaier

P.S. I have not been able to go to Stafford yet, but shall just as soon as I possibly can. Thursday, April 7, I have to go to Baltimore for an eye examination.

Dear Miss Barbee:

Pleas tell me if you have the will of Elias Barbee, 1843, Green Co., Ky? This throws considerable light on some of the persons to whom you have written. I have a certified copy. Tell me if you want it please. Also I have photostatic copy of application for pension by Sally Barbee, widow of Joseph. He served from N.C. and then moved to Marion Co., Ill. This photostat has excellent picture of Bible record of their children. Do you want that? I paid $2.00 for this photostat and $3.00 for the will of Elias. I thought the Barbee man in Texas wanted them, but he quit before he began and I have not heard from him again.

Miss Rula E. Barbee,

Dear Miss Barbee:
Your letter of Mch, 23rd was passed on to me from the County Clerk, and was of much interest.

If there has been anyone in Taylor County compiling a Barbee History I have no knowlege of it. However my mother before her death in 1938 compiled a history of our branch of the Barbee family as far back as she could go without research work, however I do not know to what generation back.

The writings she left are in the care of my sister Mrs. Nancy Young Henderson, Summersville, Ky. which is sixteen miles west of C-ville. I am sure that she would be glad to show you this history if interested.

The name of your father was evidently not a family name of our family or at least I have never heard it called in that connection, and then too my Great Grand Father came to Kentuck Territory from Culpepper County Va.

I have in my possession a very old Bible which has recorded in the names John Barbee born 1793, Elias, Lydia Ann, and t their father was Elias Barbee a soldier in the Rev. War. Lydia Ann is my Grandmother who was the wife of John R. Robinson, the mother and father of my mother Nannie Robinson Young.

I do not have the dates when Elias migrated to K.. but it has been handed down to us that he had a tract of land granted to him from the State of Va. of 1000 acres of land for his services in the Rev. War. But that statement was refuted by the recorder of records at the state house at Richmond Va. My wife and I looked up some records there and happened to remark that we had such a grant in our possession, she still was not convinced but we have the grant with the seal of Va. upon it. It being issued for war services could be wrong.

John Ray, Mary, Lucy, Elias, Catherine, Betsy, Julia, Joseph, William Slauter, Lydian Ann Barbee were all the children of Elias.

I hope this information will be of value to you and if so my sister can furnish you authenic information from the records mother left.

Sincerely yours,
John R. Young.

Notes. Barbee.

This Cornelius Hyatt Barbee was son of Elias and Mary (Hyatt) Barbee.

This Sketch says that Elias came from Culpepper Co., Va., and Mary Hyatt from Long Island, N.Y.

Dear Miss Barbee:

I think I have sent you several pension abstracts which show that the senior John Barbee moved his family to Ky., during the Revolution.

Also these pension papers give considerable information on a number of this numerous family.

However, you will realize that I have been looking, all the time, for the parentage of LAMETH BARBEE and these others, however interesting, proved not immediately pertinent to your line of Barbees.

Until I found that Lameth Barbee came from Stafford Co., Va., I felt that all of these others were irrelevent.

Now I am going back toaat least one of the Pension applications. I am not sure I have sent this to you. It is Elijah Barbee, No. S35180.

Said Elijah applied for pension Aug. 14, 1818 at which time he was a resident of Bourbon Co., Ky.

He enlisted in STAFFORD CO., VA., and served three years. His Captain was named Phillips. He became Colonel Philips. Elijah was in First Regt., Light Dragoons under Col. White. Was discharged by Col. George Baylor.

He received from Virginia 150 acres of land which he has long since sold.

Is "about"53 years old (in 1818)

In a second "Declaration" Aug. 16, 1820. Elijah says that he has dependents as follows:

A wife, Nancy, about 37 yrs. old.
Four small children:
Joseph, about 7 yrs. old.
Sally, 4 yrs.
Benjamin 3 yrs.
William 5or 6 weeks old.

He may have had a wife before he married Nancy.
N.P.W.

I have no doubt that all of these Barbees were related, but HOW is any one's guess.

The surest way to run down any one line is to try the DAR applications. But, as you know, thes are not always reliable.

I shall go to Stafford just as soon as the weather makes it safe for me to get out. Today is a very cold and I must stay close to my electric blanket.

N.P.W.

Notes. B arbee

Many of the Revolutionary soldiers served in the War of 1812. This was true of the Barbees and especially notable was the career of Joshua Barbee who became a Lieut.-Colonel in the War of 1812 and served with distinction at Ft. Meigs.

It must be remembered always that these people named their children for their brothers and friends. Thus we find Joshuas, Daniels, Johns etc., making it necessary to have exact dates for each individual.

The earliest record of a Barbe which I have found in Virginia is in Nugent's Cavaliers and Pioneers, Page 404. Date 1660. William Barby was a Head Right of George Morris and John Pigge who patented 1000 acres in New Kent Co. This does not mean that William Barby owned any of this land or that he lived in New Kent Co.

Nellie P. Waldenmaier.

P.S. Dear Miss Barbee:
Please tell me if you received the photostat of Pay roll of Stafford Co., Va., men with name of Lameth Barbee??

Some time ago you wrote me about having had an operation for removal of something from your hand. Is that quite well again?

I am interested in the Beebe family. Have a dear friend in Vevay, Ind., who is a Beebe descendant. There is a considerable lot of data on this family in the manuscript files of D.A.R. If you will tell me just how far back you have that line maybe that w ill be a shorter cut to Huguenot Soc.

Sincerely

Nellie P. Waldenmaier.

Dear Miss Barbee:

Of the families you mention in the Barbee connection, I am descended only from the Gaines-from James Gaines (1743-1829) and his second wife Elizabeth(Strother) Gaines.

By the evidence of the unusual name, it seems that Seth Wigginton ought to have been a grandson of Seth Botts. I am sorry to say that I can throw no light on the problem. I shall file your letter and data, and gladly let you know if I come upon any helpful information.

Martha (not Polly) Gaines married in Lincoln County, Ky., Jan. 21, 1782, John Barbee. Her sister Mary ("Polly") married June 29, 1786, George Finley. Martha was called evidently both Patsy and Patty. I suppose Patty looks like Polly in the marriage record, hence this form of the name among some of her descendants. Martha (Gaines) Barbee was a daughter of William Gaines (1738-1827) and Ann Strother (1745-1820). In the will (Jan. 3, 1821/April 1827) of her father William Gaines she appears as "my daughter Patty Barbee".

On a separate sheet I am enclosing a tentative (but, I think, practically correct) list of the children of John and "Patty". Some of the data on which the list is based were sent me by Mrs. Manford E. Cox, 715 N. Cross Street, Robinson, Ill., having been collected by her from court records in Indiana, mainly Crawford,County.

I thank you for Mr. Snidow's address. I shall write to him.

Sincerely yours,
John A. Kelly.

Dear Cousins:

As many of you know, an attempt is being made to trace the ancestors of the early Barbees of Smith County, Texas and record their descendents. Major Edward Barbee was the father of this group and emigrated to Texas in September 1837 with his wife, Susan Pryor Walthall, and four sons: Thomas S., Elzey Hamilton, John Pleasant, and Henry B. Only a few of his living descendents know the family history and it is the purpose of this letter to acquaint you with what has been developed so far and to ask your assistance in furnishing any other information that you may have.

The most reliable sources seem to agree that the North Carolina Barbees are descended from Glaude Barbie and his wife who fled France as Hugenot refugees. They were settled in an abandoned Indian village of the Manoacan tribe in Manakin town, Virginia by the British Governor of the Virginia Colony. More information will be given on this subject later.

The earliest Barbee that we are known to be related to is John, whose will was probated in November 1799 in Orange County, North Carolina. As executors, he named his wife Sarah and his brother Christopher. In his will his children are named as Mack (most likely Mark), Young, William, Joseph, Patt, John, Sylva, Edie, Sally, Elizabeth, Rosanna, and Theina. Joseph, Patt, John, Sylva, and Edie are specifically mentioned as having previously had their parts of his estate.

The land deeds show that Joseph Barbee received 213 acres of land on New Hope Creek, near Chapel Hill, N.C., from John Barbee on May 23, 1785, and is no doubt the part referred to in John's will. In September 1806, Joseph Barbee sold one negro girl (10 years old) and one negro boy (8 years old) and 213 acres of land. This seems to have been the transaction in which Joseph sold his land and young slaves before moving to Tennessee.

In the Revolutionary Soldiers Pension Records of Orange County, N.C., we find that Joseph Barbee served 3 terms of 3 months each as a lighthorseman in Capt. M. Patterson's Company under the command of Col. John Taylor.

Joseph was born 7 February 1761 and died 3 October 1826 in ~~Marion County, Illinois~~ Christian County, Ky. He married Sally Trice on 1 October 1782 in Orange County, N.C. On 10 November 1843 she gave her age as about 75 and was then a resident of Carni, Marion County, Illinois. Sally (Trice) Barbee died 19 September 1845. A son-in-law, Ross Jones, certified to the correctness of her statements. Accompanying the pension claim was a page cut from the family Bible on which were listed the names of the children of Joseph and Sally Barbee and the dates of their births as follows: 1 - Polly, 20 October 1784; 2 - Rittie, 20 May 1787; 3 - Nancy, 20 August 1790; 4 - Major E., 1 March 1793; 5 - Elizabeth, 12 September 1795; 6 - Edy, 30 April 1798; 7 - Horace, 30 April 1800; 8 - Young P., 28 May 1804; 9 - Trice C., 3 July 1807; 10 - Pirtimon B., 3 February 1811; and 11 - Sally B. Mitcheam, 20 February 1814; which clearly implied that this last entry was made after she (Sally) had married a Mr. Mitcheam. Photostatic copies of the original pension claim and the Bible page are in my possession. I understand that Sally Barbee was given a pension of $20.00 annually which later was raised to $25.00.

The Orange County census of 1790 lists Joseph Barbee as a tax paying head of a family and with 213 acres of land. In the 1800 census, in the same County, the family name is spelled Barby, along with eight others whose names are spelled Barbee in the census in other years.

In 1812 and 1813 we find Major Barbee and Major Barba (thought to be Barbee as records were old and almost illegible) serving short tours of duty as a private in the Tennessee Militia. No home was given but in one case the home of the commanding officer was given as Sumner County.

We next find Joseph Barbee listed in the 1820 census of Montgomery County, Tennessee.

On May 14, 1822, in Christian County, Kentucky, Major E. Barbee (spelled Barba in Kentucky Historical Society records) married Susan Pryor Walthall with John H. Walthall as a witness. The 1820 census of Christian County, Kentucky lists Thomas S. Walthall (probably Susan's father) as the head of a large household. Susan and Major most likely became acquainted as the result of living in the same or adjacent communities near the Tennessee-Kentucky line.

The first two children of Susan and Major were born in Kentucky: Thomas S. in 1823 and Elzey Hamilton (my great grandfather) in 1824. This first son was undoubtedly named for Thomas S. Walthall. Their third known child was John Pleasant, apparently born in Tennessee in 1829. The fourth and last child was Henry B., born in Tennessee in 1833. There were no Barbees or Walthalls located in Christian County, Ky., and no Walthalls or Major Barbees in Montgomery County, Tenn. in the 1830 census. The following were found however; Horace G. Barbee, two Young Barbees, John Barbee, and Augustine Barbee. Horace and one of the Youngs were probably Major's brothers while the other Young and John might have been, and probably were, Major's father's brothers. Major Barbee and his family were most likely in West Tennessee in the late 1820s and until about 1837, although their residence during this period is not known.

According to a land grant certificate issued to M. E. Barbee at San Augustine, Texas on June 8, 1838, Major came to Texas in September 1837. He was given a grant of 1280 acres of land 2-1/2 miles southeast of Chapel Hill community in Smith County, Texas, near Tyler, where he farmed and reared his family. His wife, Susan, died in 1857 and Major lived to be over 92 years of age, dieing in 1885 in Smith County, Texas. Before his death Major sold all his land holdings. Gas and oil are now being produced on the family home place.

I have not been able to secure much information concerning Thomas S. and his descendents. He received a land grant of 320 acres in Blanco County, which was patented to himself in 1854. He was enumerated in the U. S. census of Smith County in 1860 and 1880. Whether he ever lived on the Blanco County land is not known. The grant was made in the name of Thomas S. Barbbee, although an affidavit attached to the certificate is signed Thomas S. Barbee. It seems that only two of his children, both daughters, ever reached maturity. I am hopeful of eventually securing information on this branch of the family.

Elzey Hamilton secured a 320 acre land grant near his father and reared a sizeable family. Most of the information on this branch is in; but, some descendents are not interested or helpful and will, of course, have to be left out.

The list of John Pleasant's numerous descendents has been sent in to me and I am in the process of compiling the information at hand.

Henry B. ~~presumably died before rearing~~ a family as ~~we are unable to~~ locate him after the 1850 census and his mother's obituary mentions leaving three sons. Thomas S., Elzey and John Pleasant ~~were all~~ known to be ~~living~~ at the time of their mother's death.

descendants located in Ft. Worth Weatherford Alvin and Shreveport La.

More time will be required to develop and fill in the facts; however, as soon as possible (probably late this year or early next year) it is hoped to mimeograph in considerable detail as much of the Barbee family history as possible, and distribute a limited number of copies to those who have helped with the project and to interested libraries.

I shall appreciate your furnishing all early Barbee history that you have and the loan of any pictures of these early ancestors.

With all good wishes.

Sincerely,

James Edward Barbee

Dear Miss Barbee:

I am trying today to catch up on some of my back e correspondence and thought how long it had been since writing you. Of course it's you I have to thank for initially getting me on the track of Joseph. Of course the information was in the Houston Library and I was all over it but just hadn't had time to get around to it.

The D.A.R. magazine gave the birthdate of Horace Barbee incorrectly so you may want to make some corrections.

My Barbees apparently left N.C. in 1806 and I'm not sure yet when they got to Montgomery Co., Tenn., where they were in 1820. I have a feeling they were in other parts of Tenn., during 1812 as my ancestor was in the Tenn., Militia in 1812 and 1813 with Commanding officers from Sumner County. Your Barbees in NelsoneCounty, Kentucky were quite a distance away.

Joseph Barbee died in Christian County, Ky., in 1826 leaving a will in which he named nine children(the first nine) of the sons he named Major E., my ancestor who came to Texas. Horace who went to Mississippi and Young P. who in 1830 was in Montgomery County, Tenn., with a daughter between 5 and 10 and two sons between birth and 5 yrs. I don't find him until 1840 and 1850 in Marion County, Ill., with wife (1850) Eliza 48 Va., daughter Henrietta 25 Tenn., son Joseph 22 Tenn., daughter Emily 18 Tenn., son Jackson 13 Iowa, daughter Amanda 11 Ill., son Young 9, Ill. Apparently he last one of the sons. This means he left Tenn., between 1832 was in Iowa in 1837 and Illinois(Marion Co.) in 1839.

I have located William Joseph Barbee in Michigan who was born in Marion County, Ill., the descendant of Young P., and Joseph (Young's son) who tells the tale of Young P., having gone to Missouri and being cut off by floods. I can't find him in 1840. My mistake he was in Marion Co.

Rass Jones whose husband was Eady Barbee was in Marion County, in 1850 and 1840 and 1830, and probably was responsible for Young P. going.

Marion Bounty isnt too far from Crawford County. What did you find there. I have never found Trice Barbee later than Joseph's will and Pirtiman B. Barbee wasn't mentioned in his will.

Is it possible the Crawford County Barbee was Trice C. What was the year?

Am enclosing a brief mimeographed letter on my branch of the family. This is about all for now, Will close, write when you can.

Sincerely

Jim Barbee.

Dear Miss Barbee:

A letter today from Mrs. Dedman brings the enclosure-which please copy and return. She asks that you get in touch with her-I am sending her material copied from the Bible records that Miss Lafferty sent me. You may recall she was distressed as to the Polly and Patty names-the birth date is given for both as 1762-perhaps they were twins. My theory is that John Jr. married second Patty or Patsy a sister of Polly as Polly died in 1803 and John-Patsy and James died Aug. 7, 1826-How and where I wonder. Bet you are anxious for school to be out so you can get at this.

Dear Miss Barbee:

Have fully expected to hear from you now that school is out-or to see you drive up some day. Will be leaving t the 20th of therabouts for a trip East with Elizabeth M. mother & daughter-Hope to see you before I leave. Had a letter yesterday from a man in Pa., which clears Elizabeth's line. The John given inidata you sent me-who had children-Alice-Charlotte etc., was a son of James not the Jno. who m. Polly Gaines. Have you copied data from Mrs. Dedman?

Dear Miss Barbee:

I wonder if these records might help you. They are from Jefferson Co. Lewis Costin married Catherine Smock, in 1829 and Ransom Barbee was the witness. Sophia Wigginton married Wm. Costin in 1823 in Jefferson Co., and it would seem the Barbee's lived there too. Also a Joshua Barbee & Elizabeth Myers were guardians of Leonard Hoke in 1812 in that county. I've suspicioned Joshua was the father of Lameth.

Dear Mr. Barbee:

Several years ago I started working on the history of the family of my father. This family settled in Vigo county, Indiana in the year 1835. After working for a while I found that the Barbees were early settlers of Crawford County, Illinois, which is quite near to Vigo County, Indiana. I made a trip to Robinson, Illinois, the county seat and talked with Mrs. D.A. Mefford and one of her cousins. Mrs. Mefford was not well at the time and appeared to be not so young. She has died since that time. She gave me your name but did not have your address, but thought you were in Chicago. She stated that your father had worked out a very complete family tree for you branch of the family. I tried many times to contact you but failed. This week I secured your address from a Miss Smith in Terre Haute, who is I believe your cousin. Do you have a copy of the record worked out by your father? If so would you be willing to secure a typed copy for me and I will gladly pay you for the copy and your trouble. I am so interested in genealogy as a hobby and want so much to complete my Barbee line. I believe I am descended from the same line as the Crawford County family. If so all I need is one generation to complete my line, and I do so hope you have the information needed and are willing to help me. I could make my own copy but since you do not know me, I am sure you would hesitate to lend your copy, so if you will find a typist who will make a copy, I shalll be very grateful and willing to pay the expense involved.

Sincerely yours,
Rula E. Barbee

Dear Miss Barbee:

Pardon the long delay in answering you request for information on the Barbee family. We have had sickness and death in our immediate family and I have neglected many things.

However, am afraid I cannot be of any assistance to you, for my knowledge of the Barbee family is very limited. I had planned to refer you to my only living aunt, who was Susan Barbee daughter of Wm James Barbee, but you evidently had her name for her daughter (Mary Barbee Frank) forwarded your letter to me.

Will give you all I know about them:

Dr. Thomas Barbee of Bourbon Co. Ky., was born March 5, 1784 married Alice Winston June 21, 1809. Their only son Wm. James Barbee(my maternal grandfather) born in 1816 Winchester, Clark Co., Ky. His mother, Alice Winston of Louisa Co., Va., was a cousin of Patrick Henry and perhaps distantly related to Winston Churchill.

Dr. W.J. Barbee married Mary Mathews and they had 8 children, all of whom are dead except Susie B. Frank. I am now the last one of my immediate family.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Miss Barbee:

Too bad that I didn't "hold up" my card yesterday. In the afternoon mail I got an interesting letter from Mrs. S.L. Dedman of Evansville. She had a query in the May issue of D.A.R. Magazine for information on Gaines-Strother family-I tried to give her any information I had and reaped a rich reward. If I can get to town to the office today will have the girl make a copy & send to you.

She is interested in the Young family and you may remember Thomas Young m. Lucy Barbee, said to have been a dau. of John and sister of Wm and Joshua.

But listen to this-Frances Gaines-who m. Wm Threlkeld Aug. 2, 1792-was sister to Martha (Polly) Gaines who m. John Barbee. They lived in Lincoln Co. (Ky.) before moving to Mercer Co.

Do you have access to Tylers Quarterly at Ind. Library? If so check-11T 113-40 for article on Strothers family and 11T 115-16 for the Pendleton line.

Wont stir your curiosity any further, and may be able to include letter (copy) with this.

Hurray,
H.P.C.

It rained so hard all day yesterday that I didn't get to town-sent letter down by my husband this A.M. (Thurs) and will get it off with this today. Believe it may help some and she may send me some more data. I've gotten so interested in trying to solve this problem-much more so than Elizabeth is-her mother is more interested than she is.

Some of the Strothers came to Crawford Co.-there are marriage records with "Smiths" who also came-one of them a Robert Smith-had a son named Robert Pendleton Smith-his line ties up with the Mary Smith in Ky-who m. a Barbee.

Sincerely,
Harriet P. Cox.

P.S. School will soon be out so you can take to the road and perhaps run down some more data.

Dear Mrs. Cox:

Thank you so much for your interest in my querie in the D.A.R. Magazine. I put the same querie in the Ky. Hist. Magazine, and it came out in February. I received an answer from a man in Austerlitz, Ky., who had all the answers. How wonderful, I had been looking and searching for about three years. He was not a Gaines descendant but had copied data of all Bourbon Co., records which showed that Francis Strother Gaines the 2nd. had died and left two infants, (1834) Wm and Alonzo, and the mother, Nancy, was appointed guardian. The Mother died three years later (1837) and John Peters was appointed guardian. I had heard my father tell about Alonzo drowning while a child. So, there it all was. Mr. Hagan of Austerlitz, Ky. sent me about eight pages of data, which is all I need, except, Nancy's last name which might be Peters. I am now working on that.

Three years ago, when I first started on the Gaines line, I answered a querie of Mrs. Fern Crandall, Rupert, Idaho, She wanted the name of her grandmother's parents. Her grandmother was Frances Gaines, who married Wm. Threlkeld, Aug. 2, 1792. I had her whole line and sent it to her. This Frances Gaines was a sister to Martha (Polly) Gaines, who married John Barbee. However, Dr. John A. Kelly, Haverford College, Haverford, Pa., who is the genealogist for the Gaines family and has more data than anyone, disputed that Frances was a daughter of Wm & Ann (Strother) Gaines, because she is not mentioned in his will in Mercer Co., Ky. I believe she was and died before the will was made. If you are interested in this Gaines line, I can give it to you. They lived in Lincoln Co., before moving to Mercer Co. I have his Will. Do you have the list of the children of Martha (Polly) Gaines and John Barbee? This Wm Gaines had Rev. Service, was the son of Richard & Dorothy Gaines, he was b. Mar. 3, 1737/8 in Middlesex Co., Va.

If you want further data on the Strother family, see: 11 T 113-40. This is Tylers Quarterly, that has quite an article on the Strother family and will show you where the Strother name first came into the Gaines family. They intermarried several times and everyone is proud of their Strother connections. Also, the Pendleton connection. See: 11 T 115-16 for Pendleton line.

I do not have anything on the Young line yet, but Dr. Kelly and I both are working on this line. The father of the lost Francis S. Gaines (I just found) was John Wallis Gaines, who married Francis P. Young. In my querie, you will note, I had that Strother Gaines could possibly be the father. Well, the name turned out to be Francis S Strother Gaines, called Strother by his family. Last week I made a trip to Bowling Green to try to find data on this family. I was given the name of a lady who has the Young genealogy. However, she is in Illinois teaching school and will not be home for several weeks. I am going to contact her and if I get any information about the Young family, I shall be very happy to pass it on to you. I should not tell you to look up the Tyler Quarterly article as it will confuse you. It does not give Ann Strother and Dr. Kelly says he cannot locate her in the Strother family. This article tells about Francis Strother, who married Susanna Dabney and had 9 children, two of whom married Gaines men, Elizabeth m. Capt. James Gaines, this is Dr. Kelly's line. Another daughter, Behethland, m. John Wallis, this is my line, I know of no written article about Wm Gaines, who m. Ann Strother. The two Gaines men, Capt. James & Thomas Gaines, were sons of William Henry Gains, & Isabella Pendleton. I hope I haven't confused you.

Sincerely,

Dear Miss Barbee:

You wrote me that you had a genealogist in Wash. D.C. checking your lost Joshua Barbee. I wrote Ill. State Hist. Soc. re Lost River Country thinking that it might refer to place in Ill. or Mo. She replied that the only such ref. she could find is to "Lost River" in Hardy Co., W.Va., & that there is yet a P.O. in the name of "Lost River". I have a little more data on it.

Dear Sir:

I am interested in family history and am working on the family of my father,. I found references to the Ryand of Milford, Missouri, who were related to the Barbees. Will you please hand this letter to some member of this family or to some one who might know the family and ask them to write to me?

There aren't any Rhyan's here any more. The only one that I know of is Jl L. Ryan. His address about four years ago was, 1352 Poinsettia, Elmonte, California.

He was back here about then and gave me his address. My wife is related to the Rhyanns by marriage but we don't know where any of them are unless this one is at this address.

My dear Miss Barbee:

My Claude C. Barbee of Louisville was here for a few days last week and told me of seeing you once and awhile-Said you had finally learned that your Barbee ancestor came from North Carolina. I am wondering what his name was.

Have you ever learned anything about our Huguenot ancestor Claud (Glaud) Barbee? I know full well he belongs to our family, but to date I have never made connections with Virginia families-that would take my line back to the first Claud Barbee-Name was spelled so many ways--Barby-Barbie-Barby-Barbier-Barbi-and Barbey-and doubtless other ways.

I keep so busy-I have very little time for my "Hobby" genealogical research-but I should be happy indeed to get certain records straight. Every once in a while I pick up something worth while.

Most sincerely,
Cadia Barbee Welborn

My dear Mrs. Craven:

I am afraid I can not be of much assistance to you. Nan Barbee who came here in 1817 and located a few miles north of town came I think from Virginia then into Kentucky. He was my great grandfather. As to how many children he had I do not know. Only three I had any knowledge of-The one who had land and a hotel in center of town was Thomas-his wife Lydia died young. He moved into adjoining county, married and had several children but do not know their names.

William was either a brother or son-He run a flat boat from Palestine or near there to New Orleans-at one time he was mayor of Louisville, Kentucky. James was chief of police in Chicago before and after the big fire was pensioned and moved to Effingham, Illinois-Had three children two not living-the younger perhaps thirty some years of age if living has a family tree his father was years making and very complete-His father died perhaps twenty years ago. This boy visited me often when small. The last time he came I was in the south. His address was lost I could not find it. I advertised in Chicago paper-He never wrote and I do not know why-This tree would give a complete history of the family-His name was Rosswell. As far as I know there is not one of the name in this part of the country. If in the near future I can find from some one anythigg I think will be of any help to you will keep your address and write you.

Very sincerely,
Frances Mefford

FROM A LETTER FROM MRS. IDELLE CRAVEN, INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA:

Eva Martin had an ancestor Elijah Kellogg(1792) who married M argaret Murphy-They had children-one Rachel born 1824-The husband died 1836 and left 5 children. Margaret married second time Zach Adams-and for some unknown reason her 5 Kellogg children were given gaurdians by the court and Rachel was given to William Barbee of Robinson, Illinois, county seat of Crawford County.

In 1817 Thomas Young, William Barbee and Nathan Marrs came to Crawford County, Illinois. Young and Marrs married sisters of Barbee.

William Barbee had a horse mill near the present center of Robinson-afterwards sank some vats and did some tanning.

Thomas Barbee kept a hotel in Robinson.

In 1818 Joshua Barbee entered land in Crawford County, Illinois. He was from Kentucky.

My dear Mrs. Craven:

Your delightful letter was received this afternoon and I can't help but sit down and tell you how pleased I was to hear from you.

Tonight I haven't time to reply adequately but you have given one item or clue which I wish to follow up- you say that William Barbee born near Lexington Kentucky, November 1789 came up to Indianapolis about 1820. I have always believed that this William Barbee Jr.,(brother of Lucy) who married twice, 1st November 3, 1809, Margaret Marshall who died 1849 and second 1850 Malissa Tulles, left Troy Ohio after 1850 as he was a member of the convention which framed its new constitution that year in May according to Livingston in "Portraits of Eminent Americans Now Living", which was published in 1854, and in which no comment is made about his leaving Troy. Have you seen this book? There is no further record of William Barbee Jr. or where he went and I would like to ask you to tell me all you know about him and his children by his second marriage and especially tell me where he is buried and when he died. I have found the old Barbee burial ground at Troy and I only need to find William Jr's, grave to establish without a doubt that the stone in the old cemetery marked W.B. only, is for William Sr's wife and not William Jr. William Sr's wife is ther and William Jr's first wife-I would like to get the grave marked for Revolutionary war purposes.

As soon as my son leaves for Boston for school I shall have more time and will answer other parts of your lette-Just now I am nost anxious to know about William JR.

Very sincerely,
Emilia Telford

Dear Miss Barbee:

Your letter of February 26th was redeived eventually. I have moved from the address you sent your letter to.

I am writing a few lines now to let you know that I received your letter and will answer all I can in the near future. I am trying to get some additional information and when I get that I will send my news along.

I am glad to hear from a Barbee as I am very much interested in the Barbee family history. You don not mention who your father is-Why are you particularly interested in William Barbee. Was he an ancestor of your fathers?

I will close now but you can look for another letter in the near future.

Mrs. Anna Jones.

Dear Miss Barbee:

I am sorry to have waited so long to answer your letter but so much of my data is in my home that is rented furnished just now-but I believe if you'll write Mrs. William Ardury, Paris, Kentucky she can give you the data better than I as she made my DAR papers from a Capt. John Barbee-none of your names sound familiar to me except an Oscar Barbee-There is a Miss Katie Lemon in Georgetown Kentucky who is a descendant of Oscar Barbee-write her. I go into the Barbee family 3 times-twice on my fathers side and once on my mothers-Va.Ky.-& then here I am out in Kansas. If you don't get any information-write me again and send your information back-thought I would save you writing this data to someone else so am enclosing it--
Regards to Mrs. Welborn.

Lena Barbee Overfield.

Marshall, Illinois

Dear Miss Rula:
Sorry I have been so slow in finding out anything and have found very little any way.

My brother said our grandfather John Barbee came from Hardinville or Hardingville, Kentucky in the early 1830's. Sorry don't have anyghing more if at any time soon I can find out anything will write to you.

Hope you success in tracing what you need.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Norman Bennett

Dear Miss Barbee:

First I want to apoligize to you for my delay in writing again. I thought I could get some added information and have waited to send all together but I have failed in getting it except the date of the death of great uncle James Barbee. I wrote a letter to the chief of police here in Chicago asking when he served and in what capacity. The answer came with the date of his death and the address of his widow. I promptly wrote to her and ask her the same questions and adked her if she still had the history of the Barbee family which Uncle James had compiled years ago when I was quite a young woman. But as yet I have no answer at all from her even tho I sent a stamped self addressed envelope. I'll give you her name and address and if you want to write her you might have more success. She does not intend answering my letter or I would have had an answer by now. She is quite an old lady as she must be about 15 years older than I am and I am 64 years.

I'll give you what information I have now. I do not know anything about the Barbees in Louisville, Kentucky altho I know there are Barbees there yet. Why don't you write to the postmaster down there and get their raddresses and then write them. If you get any information would you be kind enough to pass it on to me and if I get any more I'll do the same. Who is your father? Why do you ask about William Barbee? He is one of the Uncles whom my mother knew nothing about so, I can't even tell you of him. Was he your grandfather?

In the first place-The Barbees were natives of France and when the Huegenots were driven out of France in 1685 they came over to America and settled in Vermont. In later years(do not know just when) some of them migrated down to Kentucky then later some came up into Illinois. Those coming up to Illinois came before the Civil War. My mother used to visit with those in Kentucky before the war. My mother's father's name was Thomas. His brothers and sisters names were as follows: Thomas, Nancy, Martha, William, Sarah Ann, James, Margarette Jane, Elizabeth, John(who died very young), Sedley who was a cripple and died very young and Marinda.

Nancy married a man by the name of Smith. Martha married a Lily. Sarah Ann married a Passmore. There is no record of Margarette Jane. Elizabeth married a Young but died a few years later.

I do not know what church any of them belonged to. Roswell Barbee is the child of great uncle James and his second wife who is the widow I mentioned in the first part of my letter. Have no idea where he is.

I do hope you can get some information of what you want out of my letter. I do not think James Barbee was ever chief of police altho he was on the police force. My answer to the chief came from the chief of detectives which may indicate he was on the detective force. I know he retired and came down to Effingham to live when I was a young girl. His wife died soon after his coming there and he soon married this one who is in St. Louis, Mo. She was the daughter of Uncle James Wife's sister who lived there with them at the time of Aunt Margaret's death. I presume she is still drawing a widows pension is the reason the police had her address.

I have been quite sick with the flu so my writing is almost illiegible but I hope you can read it. Let me know if you do not understand anything I have written.

Will close wishing you success in every way.

Dear Miss Barbee:

I enjoyed reading your letter. It would be wonderful if Mrs. Craven could work out the Barbee line for you. But I think she will find out that the Barbees who were Revolutionary Soldiers moved from Virginia into "the west" as it was then called-and not Revolutionary Soldiers of North Carolina.

I think perhaps I wrote you that the Barbee family belonged to Huguenot emigrants of Manikin Town Virginia and that the first one was Claud(Glaude)Barbie and his wife(do not know wife's name) but according to records of Huguenot Society it is stated that about 20 of the name took part in the Revolutionary War.

Name was spelled Barbi-Barbe-Biber-Bebee-Barbie-Barbier-Barber-Barbee-Barbor etc.,

Among Manikin Huguenots were:
Benjamin Barbee who belonged to 6th Virginia Regiment-Pensioner in Va., 1785
Sergt. David Barbee 1st. Va. Reg. Moved to Shelby County Kentucky.
Elias Barbee 1st Va. Reg. Lived in Culpepper County, Virginia.
Elisha Barbee
Francis Barbee 2nd. Va. Reg.
John Barbee 1st Va. Reg. Moved to Shelby Co. Reg.
Joshua Barbee 6th Va. Reg.
Lieut. Thomas Barbee 6th Va. Reg.
William Barbee 1st Va. Reg. Married Mary Smith of Mecklenburg County, Virginia 1780.
See the Huguenot Society-"Founders of Manikin in Colony of Virginia-Publication No. 4 pg. 54-(1929)

The Claud(Claude) Barbie and wife are mentioned as of Manikin Town 1701.

Wm Barby-Middlesex County Va. was granted 128 acres of land 1699 also granted land-Middlesex County Va. 1704.

Wm Barby-Middlesex died 1720. He was married twice-first wife's name not known. He gave son William 1 shilling sterling-daughter Ann Morgan-1 shilling sterling. Then said "As to the remaining part of my estate of whatever nature, kind or quality whatsoever I will and devise--- that it be equally divided amongst my children which God had blessed me with by my last wife."

That shows he had already given the 3 children by first wife their share and evidently 2nd wife's children under age because their names are not given. You can readily see that children of this William were too old to have served in Revolutionary War. His son John married Ann Miller 12-25-1708-Middlesex County. Then John died in Essex County 1749-willed everything to his wife Ann during her natural life and then went to their children (not named in his will). His wife Ann wrote her will 1762-~~but not~~ r but not recorded until 1766 and she mentions "my children Christopher, John, Joseph, Francis and 3 daughters Mary and Rose Spars and Mical Pitts. These children appear to be the ones who came to North Carolina because we find Christopher, John, Joseph and Francis Barbee in Orange and Wake County, North Carolina from 1756 on and the Sears family were in -----County and we know families were related.

In 1820 Sergt. John Barbee of Shelby County, Kentucky testified that Charles Pierson was corporal in his company under Capt. Taylor. Sergt. Daniel Barbee of Mercer County, Kentucky who was also in Capt. Taylors Co., stated Charles Pierson was in -------county.)Evidently they were helping him to get a pension).

Daniel Barbee of Va., and later Mercer County, Kentucky signed a paper "to his brother Joshua all his claim from the state of Va." and stated that Thomas Barbee and Sarah Hopkins of Boyle County, Kentucky are the sole children and heirs at law of Joshua Barbee decd soldier-ranked as Sergt and served 3 years in Revolutionary War in Virginia.

I have written all this hoping that Mrs. Craven will be able to connect your line. I have no record of the ~~B~~ Barbees of North Carolina-remaining to Kentucky-but I t think numbers of our family moved there after the war but that it was of the families who had remained in Va., and not from among those who had moved to North Carolina before Revolutionary War.

Write me if you learn anything of interest,

Most sincerely
Kate Barbee Welborn

My dear Miss Barbee:

You do not go far enough back on your family tree to enable me to help you much. I do know quite a bit about the North Carolina Barbee's but have never yet connected North Carolina families with the Virginia Barbees.

A few years ago I had a letter from Mrs. Gilbert Harrison Overfield, 101 Demott St., Independence, Kansas, who was a descendent of George Barbee born 1823 and died 1899, Lexington Kentucky and son of Nathaniel Barbee of Kentucky, son of Joseph Barbee and son of Thomas Barbee.

I quote from a letter written me a few years ago. Mrs. ".S. Telford, Duluth, Minnesota "John Barbee Sr. m married first Elizabeth Welch prior to 1753.

1. Thomas Barbee born 1753 married twice.
2. John Barbee Jr. born 1755 married near Danville Kentucky a Miss Gaines and moved to Terre Haute, Indiana
3. Daniel Barbee
4. William Barbee
5. Charles E, Barbee

John Barbee died about 1820 in Terre Haute, Indiana leaving many children. It is possible that John Jr. is your ancestor.

Mrs. Telford and Mrs. Overfield are evidently distantly related as they had exchanged Barbee records.

If I were you I would write these two ladies-the names you give are not familiar to me-Only wish I could help you.

Its no disgrace not to marry-I know many women who have married who would have been lots better off had they remained single. But perhaps you haven't met the right man-maybe he will come along-just at the right time. Judging from your hand writing I would say you have plenty of time left to think of marrying. Be sure to hold on to your job of teaching until you know you would "better yourself"

Sincerely yours,
Cadia Barbee Welborn

Dear Miss Barbee:

I am sorry not to have acknowledged your letter of January 17, 1937, which was delayed in reaching me at Centerville because the post office address of my country home there is Clifton Station.

My father's name was Herbert Barbee, my grandfather's William Randolph Barbee, and my great grandfather's Andrew Russell Barbee. My father, whom as you know died last year, was our genealogist and while I have some notes containing considerable information at my old home near Luray, Virginia, I am not able to go very far into our family tree from memory, but when I have an opportunity I shall send you what I have. Of those whom I know, based on inquireies received from and information given me by Mrs. Lena Barbee Overfield of Independence, Kansas, I am inclined to feel that she would be the best one to collaborate with you in tracing the Kentucky line.

Very truly yours,
H. Randolph Barbee

Dear Miss Barbee:

Your most welcome letter of the 19th was exactly what I was looking for. The Major E. with the birth date of March 1, 1793 is indeed my great great grandfather for the birth day corresponds exactly and I have heard of no other with such a strange given first name. Some place it is recorded as Majors instead of Major. I had come to believe his mother was of the Majors family. This shatters my theory that he went early and with his family to Tenn. Thank you so very very much. I wish I could do as much for you.

I have the 1800 census of Orange County, N.C. Joseph Barby is listed with eight children(your list gives seven probably one had died) The ages for himself and wife check out and there were five slaves. In 1790 the census spells the name Barbee in 1800 the entire list of Barbees is spelled Barby.

Surely wish I could assist you in some way. I have written your Mrs Waldenmaier but of course havent had time to hear from her.

Mrs. John Ford House Barbee of Webb. Miss. gives me some sketchy information about Joseph Barbee-she mentions 11 children, the move to Carni, Marion County, Ill., but left out Major E. Although she named other children.

When you have time I should like to know what else you know about this Illinois group of Barbees. I have written to one in Collinsville, Ill., but haven't heard from him. David Rankin Barbee(sister-in-law of Mrs. John Ford House Barbee) tells me Adlai Stevenson has Barbee blood and proud of it. One of us should write him. I will in time.

Thanks again so much,

Sincerely,

J.E.Barbee.

P.S. Since writing and sending your letter I note Mrs. J.F.H. Barbee says that Joseph moved to Carni, Ill., Marion County and died there in Oct. 1826. My first impression from your report was that he died in Orange County N.C. but on second reading that isn't the way it is at all.

My theory may still be correct. The Joseph Barbee of Wilson County, Tenn. in 1800 may be this one too, and this was a stop on the way to Illinois. Major E. apparently left the family group in Ky., when he married in 1822 with sons born there in 1823 and 1824. I can't confirm the e county of his marriage (Livingston County, Ky.) with the county clerk, therefore if you know any ancestors of this Joseph in Illinois or elsewhere I shall appreciate your advising me what their address is. I presume this can be obtained from the DAR, but this I am not familiar with. How do I obtain it?

Thanks and regards,
J.E.B.

Dear Miss Barbee:

Thanks for your letter of Feb. 10th.

Before I overlook it I found some Barbee's in Texas from Indiana. A Barbee friend and possibly cousin who worked for the same company seemed to spring from a Barbee who received a Texas land grant about 1850 and was living not too far away from my Barbee folks.

In Austin I worked the 1850-1860-1870 and 1880 microfilm of the census returns and found the information on the attached sheet. In the 1870 returns Cardine Barbee 40 Female born in Indiana apparently a widow, with two children one born in Miss., and one in Alabama.

In 1880 all the Barbees were gone except a twelve year old Mollie, apparently an orphan who was born in Texas but whose father was born in Indiana, and mother born in Texas. She is listed as the niece of a couple named Stubbs. Mollie Stubbs was born in Indiana, father born in Ky., mother born in Indiana. Mollie Stubbs was evidently the sister of Mollie Barbee's father or mother, probably father.

I should like to have the genealogy of my Barbee line worked out but it really isn't worth the expenditure of a large amount of money. So many people have warned me of the cost involved in having professional genealogists that I have shied away from them. Of course by the time I have a lot of census research done I may spend more than I realize.

It is nice to exchange information with persons who have the information however I don't expect you to share the information with me at no cost to me. Can you tell me what "those women" (Your words" who said the cost was so reasonable had to pay for the census research? I'm interested but hate to get into it over my head before I learn the cost.

What I don't see right now is that if both our Barbee lines aren't identical from 1800 on back how can we go into it on a joint venture basis? Do you have any idea whether your line came to Ky. direct from Va. or N.C. My gr.gr. grandfather Majors Edward was born in N.C. in 1793 and his father and mother both were born in N.C.

You mentioned Rev. Darnell's reasonable rates. Can you tell me how much information the developed for you and what it cost you? I've written two letters trying to pin him down but he won't answer.

This isn't a refusal for I will write Mrs. Waldenmaier tonight. Thanks for you offer- Will advise you later-Write when, if and as you have time or information.

Sincerely,
J.E.Barbee

Dear Miss Barbee:

I am returning the very interesting material that you sent me last Nov. I have had copies made for myself & Elizabeth M. Williard. She knows so little about her ancestry that it is pitiful.

It is my belief from what I can "figger out" from any data I have that Elizabeth is a descendant of Wm Barbee Sr. who m. Mary Smith-of whomi it says he had 2 sons & at least 5 daughters.

If so the Rev. service is there coming thro Mary Smith-his first wife & which material Ihhave. If we can establish that this is her ancestor she of course, is eligible on the Welch line too.

I have been suffering all winter with a protracted cold and unable to get anything done. After all there is very little I can do from this site of activity. Have really searched about all available sources at hand.

I am anxious to get this material in your hands. I am going to Carle Memorial Hosp. at Urbana Sunday for an operation on the next day. I am anticipating no serious after math but will feel better to know you have the data.

Elizabeth is coming up here this afternoon for some material on "Buttons" and I shall give her her copy.

Thanking you and wishing us both future success in solving the problem. I am,

Sincerely,
Harriet P. Cox
(Mrs. Manford E.)

Mrs Jeudes was here this summer-She is related to Elizabeth thro Mefford side & not Barbee-that may be one reason why you didnt hear from her-However it does not explain the discourtesy.

Sincerely,

(Mrs. M.E.)Harriet P. Cox.

Dear Miss Barbee:

Was glad to receive your letter and Barbee data yesterday. Wrote you quite a letter and spilled ink on it-so will just write a short note.

I am enclosing for you to copy some material received this spring from a "cousin" on Wilson line. You will note the names common to those in your material.

If Wm. S.-b. Sept. 14, 1759, who m. Mary Smith(dau. of Adam Smith & if Thomas is son of this marriage I can begin to see daylight for Elizabeth.

Why don't you "hitch up" and come over some week end and see if we can't get our heads & data together? You would like Elizabeth very much-She however knows absolutely nothing about her family tree-I am sorry I didn't get data from her grandmother before she died/

The Barbee line is not mine-but it ties in with my Wilson line-There were two Smith lines in early Palestine-Guy A. Smith, brother of Elizabeth Julia Smith & Robert Smith a son of Jesse Sm ith. They must have been related.

I found that Thomas Barbee died in Crawford Co., July 11, 1872-(date of paper)

"Thomas Barbee long a resident of vicinity of Hutsonville on Sat. last and was buried on Sunday at Jack Oak Grave yard on LaMotte Prairie"

The Secretary of the new DAR chapter at Spencer, Indiana is a former member of the James Halstead Sr. chapter of Robinson- Florence Haskin Wiseman. She was a fine member.

Must stop- thank you so much for the data. If I could only untangle it, but I am a little dumb at this work.

The Joshua you mention must have come via Crawford Co., He is spoken of as a brother of Wm:

"Joshua Barbee came in 1818-a brother of Wm-from Ky.,-but left for the Lost River Country a few years later" Is this Missouri?

Dear Miss Barbee:

Your note deserved an earlier reply but my husband has been seriously ill-in bed for three weeks-before that 17 days in hospital, Carle Memorial at Urbana and my mail has stacked up.

I fear I cannot be of much help to you-talked to Elizabeth Mefford Willard and she does not know very much. However I have 2 addresses for you-one in Terre Haute-Miss Hattie Smith, 1105½ S. Center St., her mother was a sister of Elizabeth's grandmother Martha Smith Waldrop-also Mrs. E.H. Juedes, 1102 W. Spencer St., Appleton, Wis.,-Elizabeth mentioned the nephew too, of whom you spoke but knows nothing about him. She thot Mrs. Juedes who was Lissa Griffith-had done some work on the line.

I believe you have skipped a generation in Elizabeth's material-

		Parents
1st Gen.	Elizabeth Willard-b. 1912	Harry Lee Mefford Charlotta Faubel
2nd Gen.	Harry Lee Mefford	D.A. Mefford Frances Waldrop
3rd. Gen.	Frances Waldrop	A. Houston Waldrop Martha Smith
4th Gen.	Martha Smith Waldrop-------Smith	Nancy Barbee
5th Gen.	Nancy Barbee	Nancy Barbee ? ~~William Barbee~~

It may be that Hattie Smith or Mrs. Juedes have some more information. An aunt Mrs. Hedden, of Hattie's died recently-there might be an old bible over there.

In 1st edition of Crawford Co., Hist. I found the following data which I copied-

Santa Ysabel
San Diego Co., Cal.

Dear Rula:

I was so pleased to get your Christmas Card- I was ill so didn't get cards out this year.

I was sorry tho-you said you were so terribly busy, as that seems to be a fault of our entire family. People often ask me why I work so hard? Really I guess I enjoy working. I do have a nice orchard and lovely garden and now a remodeled home-we built the home thirty years ago. Remodeling has made it very pleasant-we enjoy our huge stone fireplace and large windows, looking out over the hills.

Santa Ysabel is a very small village in the mountains- 50 miles north east of San Diego. Perhaps theres 50 persons in the village. We are surrounded by cattle country and oak covered hills.

We are planning on coming to Indiana in late May- We will be in Terre Haute only one day-I hope we have an opportunity to see all four cousins there, I have now located. I would love to stay a week-but when one is in business its quite a proposition to be away. I want to go into Flemingsburg, Ky., and to Peru, Indiana where we have some business interests. My fathers people came from Flemingsburg, Kentucky, so I'd like to do some family tracing.

We will go to Ky., & Indiana thru Iowa where a few of my husband's relatives remain there on to Denver where we'll pick up a couple of grandsons, then we'll keep them here till school starts in the fall.

I have a lot of slab. boards. I will let the boys build a small house and I plan to get them a dozen chickens to raise. The boys are 8& 10 and need constructive activities.

This family tracing isn't as complete as yours, as the family was scattered far and wide and altho theres question marks here and there its the very best I could do.

All the older folks are gone my mother was the last of her generation-she didnt recall the maiden names of some of her sister-in-laws. I found all but one(Ellen)

You will notice that our family is an all white family. Our immediate family:

HILLIER-French
English Irish

HOLLAND: Rutan
Ellis
Hellyer
Marcy
McElvain
Turner
Story
Durr
Sabin
Moon
Morgan

Husbands Mothers maiden name:

Schwenn-from Germany

Swen(American)

My dear girl:

It is with regret that I can't give you any more help than I have. I was quite small when Helen was married. I heard the folks talk about her coming home when Will was a baby. My mother died when I was 2 years old. They tell me I was born in 1868 in Cumberland County. They might have lived there when she married your grandfather, if so write Toledo, Illinois for information. If I can help any more let me know. We dont know what became of our family records. They were not in the bible. My stepmother didn't seem to know. She told me I could have the bible but I didn't want it. She thought maybe sister Olive had got them. Brother Henry wrote me before he died to know about them. Olive married a man in Mattoon by the name of Gap Car. I think he is dead. Elva or Etta might know something about that.

Love,
Aunt May

Dear Miss Barbee:

Your letter was handed to me by the postmaster. Mr. George Hollenbeck and wife and a boy named Ivor and a girl came to Oil Trough, Arkansas about 1885 or 86. They stayed here 2 or 3 years and moved to Rosie, Arkansas.

Mr. J. M. Casselberry says they came to Rosie about 1890 lived and died there. Helen Cook Hollenbeck died about 1926 and was buried at Maple Spring Cemetery, near Oil Trough. Some of your cousins live near here.

Received your letter some days ago have had company and canning peached, haven't had time to rite. I will try to give you all the information I have now. Maybe I can get more. I will rite to Myrtle Cook my half sister and see what she knows.

Dear Miss Barbee:

I am P.M. here at Rosie and have the store left me by my father who is dead and I new the Hollenbecks. Ivor and my father were great pals. First the Hollenbecks were well thought of and respected in this community. My father was a brother to their family doctor, W.Al Wyatt and they are all dead. Ivor was an old bachelor. He died about 12 or 15 years ago. Mr. & Mrs. Hollenbeck died several years ago. I can remember them both. They had Ivor also a girl named Sissie who according to your letter was a half sister to Ivor. She married Isom Martin and they are both dead but they have some children which live here. We here always thought Ivor and Sissie were full brother and sister. None of them left any property. I will see one of the girls of Sissie. I think one of them still has some of the information you want if you care to write again and give what information you want to know.

Yours, truly,

Dear Miss Barbee:
Your note, with material from Guy Smith was here when I came home from the hospital.

Last week Elizabeth Willard's mother, Hal Mefford's wife, was here from St. Louis. She and Elizabeth were up here and Charlotta is more interested in the family history, I fear, than Elizabeth. She thot there was some material that Mr. Mefford had that might help. However what she found related more to the Waldrop than Barbee data.

However my curiosity was again aroused and the past few days I have been going thro what I have on the Barbee's. Guess I am sorta silly as this really is nothing to me and Elizabeth doesn't seem too interested. However it is just lika an arithmetic problem to me, I like to know the answer.

Have been reading in Terre Haute paper about your Historical group workshop and wish I were able to attend.

In looking over data I find these two items which I may have sent you but which do open up some information. They are from Crawford Co., Histories(1st & 2nd)

As soon as I can I am going to do some newspaper e checking-for obituary notices.

Marriage recorded in Book 1-p. 14, Crawford Co., Sarah Barbee to John Hill-June 29, 1822, by David McGahey.

Another item that may tie in:

There is an error here some where which one m. Margaret Thurman?

Plan if possible to come over for DAC meeting Mar. 7, May come over Fri. night & stay all night at hote.-want to see the new "Harrison" book at library. In case I do will try to let you know & we may arrange a meeting.

Hastily,

P.S. After I had your letter to send found this in Clark Co., records "Lucy Young dau. of Thomas and Lucy Barbee Young of Crawford Co., b. 2-12-1834. m. a Shaw (dau. Gertrude a friend & relative of Mrs. M. Sr.)

On p. 34-mention of John Waldrop wounded by Indians - date prob. 1812.

I do not have a copy of the second Vol. of CO., History-there is one at the library her, however.

County marriage records go back to 1818-and there is on file at Court House a copy of early court proceedings-Marriage records for several of the children may be found.

As to the Gaines line-in a little booklet put out by Duane Gaines for Hist. Meeting in 1921. I find this "My father James Gaines was born in N. Car. in 1811. His mother before her marriage with Stephen Gaines was Martha Waldrop. In 1815 a small colony of Waldrops-perhaps ½ doz. families, including my grandfathers started from Car. for the Wabash Co. (Story of trip given) Reached Ky., by winter & remained 1 yr. then resumed journey & arrived at Palestine in 1817. Father had a cousin Tod Waldrop. I'll keep the material & be on the watch for any data I can find.

Dear Miss Barbee:

I noticed your query in the Genealogical Helper wanting information on Barbee of Kentucky and Virginia.

What family are you interested in? If you send me your line its possible I may be able to help you. You might tell me how far you have gone into the family and what data you have. Off an on I have been gathering material on the family for years and have a charting here constructed so as to connedt up all material possible without too much conflict.

My main interest has been the Ball family on whivh I have been working for 15 years. Barbee appears in connection one way or the other several times but not directly. I am familia with many Fanquier Prince William Virginia families and dates and names in connection are very important as you know dought know.

Hoping to hear from you I am,

Dear Miss Barbee:

In answer to yours of the 10th-

Miss Turner and I have corresponded for years. Possibly the information I gave you concerning John Barbee and Martha Gaines came via Miss Turner. I only took the notations off of my charting here and were I to carry along each reference the job of writing would be doubled. Also in many many cased I do not have the source or reference for any information that suddenly appears new or subject to scrutiny. In my experience I never reject information so long as it withstands consideration as to its possible attachment to known facts. Only when an outright fraud or error is apparent should one consider an item "Worthless".

I received a letter from Miss Turner yesterday in answer to mine in which I enclosed your data on Lameth Barbee et al. Miss Turner tells me that she has known of your Lameth Barbee for a long time but she is unable to go any farther with him, nevertheless here is Miss Turners address:

Miss Helen M. Turner
103 Riverside Drive
Hilton Village, Virginia

It seems quite possible that your Lameth Barbee was b. in Virginia, though as yet we have not unearthed a record identifying him there. If you will be patient with me I may have some further ideas. I have a dozen letters yet to digest and answer here and one of them may lead to a clue which (from memory) may be via Wigginton.

I wonder what genealogist you have working for you and just what is she sending you. Also, do you know anything of your Wiggintons?

Louis E. Pondron

February 29, 1952.

Dear Miss Barbee:

Your long letter and notes in answer to mine is indeed gratifying, and I thank you very mush. Such cooperation is rare.

The information you send to me is new in re to your own line and some of the later descendants of John Barbee who m. Elizabeth Welch et al. Before we go to far here I hate to say it but at this time I have no data connecting up this and your line BUT if you are descended from this John Barbee who m. Elizabeth Welch I have caught you just in time before you give up. It has been my theory that this John Barbee who m. Elizabeth Welch was the son of Thomas Barbee who m. Margaret--- and died in Staff. Co., Va., in 1752.

I would also like you to tell me if you have copied direct from the records on early Barbee of Virginia. What I have here is a pedigree constructed from published works, correspondence, and second hand information. There are one or two points that I would like to clear up treating on the first two or three gen. of Barbee in Va., On the other hand my pedigree has not been assembled haphazardly. There ie much about the early connections and marriages of the early Barbees that appear extremely interesting, to me, which is one reason why I am familiar with the family and have kept current on any new information that shows up. I would like to state that there are many names or families that I would like to go straight to the records for information but the cost and even the time is prohibitive. Another thing is that I do not disregard a single connection male or female to any family that I am interested in. And another thing is that so far I have never realized any financial return or have ever posed as a professional genealogist, but I have been at this thing as a hobby more or less for fifteen years and in my main interest which is the Ball Family I have never met anyone professional or otherwise that could help me with my own Ball ancestry. I have been taken for fees that produced miserable notes that have been here for years and for some time now my only source for new Ball material seems to be to go straight to the records and the courthouses by mail. This is a hard job when one does not always have book and page.

I have been in correspondence with three of four people for several months on a certain family and all we were doing was quoting second hand information back and forth and getting nowhere as to just what possibilities remained open. The dates varied as well as descendants quoted from will abstracts. I took it upon myself to get copies or photostats of these referenced records and now can eliminate a lot of our puzzlers. To have all names including places and witnesses helps a lot, which are usually not included.

The will of Thomas Barbee Nov. 8, 1748-Mar. 10, 1752 has been given to me in abstract by several different parties. I noticed particularly that all except one does not name a son Thomas. Perhaps this is true if you have a good abstract you might check me on this.

I just finished reading your letter and noted in a hurry and will neeed more time to study it out and incorporate what notes I can into the pedigree, I would first like to know how far you have gone into the early Va., Barbees or how interested you might be in starting out to check the pedigree from what records are available. I would be willing to share the cost of getting copies it is only that I don't have the time now to write to the library or somebody to do this. Actually right now I am in an awful mess trying to keep up with too much letter writing. Any records that the Va. State Library has will be photostated for about 40 cents a page which is very much cheaper than having someone do a personal search. They do not have Fauquier County records.

Getting back to our interest-Whatever I give in pedigree form is the result of study of all sources and it is impossible for me to carry along a reference. If anything interesting or a dispute arise we can go into that further if possible from what I may have in my notes etc.

I have received a lot of Barbee material from a Miss Helen M. Turner of Virginia and just where family history and recorded evidence comes in I cannot identify right off. As I see it-

Thomas Barbee who m. Margaret and died in Staff Co., in 1752, had the following children:

1. Sarah Barbee
2. Andrew Barbee (whom I presume married Jane Dulaney) He was born May 19, 1720 and died in Fauq. County in 1795.
3. John Barbee-No account is ever given him and I contend he is the one who m. Elizabeth Welch-no direct evidence but I think its mighty possible.

4. Catherine Barbee who m. James Withers and he m. 2nd Jemima Garner.
5. Mary Barbee-(I am interested in her)
6. Anne Barbee who m. Garner Burgess
7. Betty or Elizabeth Barbee
8. Joseph Barbee b. 1744 who m. Ann Withers and 2nd Thomas Jordan.
9. Lydia Barbee who m. ---Grant
10. If there was a son Thomas, he must have been the Thomas who m. Margaret Fant in 1748.

Up to now I had as children of John Barbee who m. Elizabeth Welch the following:
1. Thomas Barbee (d. Feb. 25, 1797) who married Lucy dau. of John Slaughter.
2. John Barbee who married Martha Gaines in Lincoln County Ky. "Most of his children moved to Illinois.(no further info)
3. Daniel Barbee
4. William Barbee
5. Joshua Barbee who married Elizabeth, dau. of John Slaughter of Culp. He had a large family and lived 1st at Danville, Ky., and died in Green County. I have but one child who was John Barbee who m. Mary Ray.
6. Ezekiel Barbee
7. Andrew Barbee b. Aug. 20, 1765- d. July 1, 1813 of Lexington, Ky., who was killed when thrown from his horse.
8. Rosa Barbee who d. before 1801 and married Enoch Bradford and had Lucy Bradford.
9. Eleanor Barbee b. Jan. 22, 1771 who m. Judge Fielding Bradford.
10. Susanna Barbee b. Mar 11, 1769 who m. William Purnell on Dec. 18, 1784
11. Ann Barbee b. July 1, 1773
12. Lydia Barbee b. Mar. 4, 1777
13. Betsy Barbee b. Dec. 18, 1779 who may have died single.

#2 above John who m. Martha Gaines had at least James and a daughter, who did not go to Illinois.

That the extent of the information I have had here on John who m. Welch. Possibly it may give you some ideas that will pick up your hopes. Much of it is a duplication of what your letter has I believe but nevertheless give this a going over and in the meantime I will digest your information to the fullest and as soon as I have charted up your notes I will let you know if anything happens. Any name connected to your early family will help a lot. If we can dispose of John who married Welch as your ancestor we will go to work on another line. Without any hesitation I would say that unless your Lameth Barbee was a son of John who m. Welch we had better go after Thomas who m. Margaret Fant. Yet its possible that he may have been a gr. son, but his children names don't jibe in any manner with John who m. Welch's descendants. Its seems interesting to note that your Lameth was born in Bullitt Co., Ky., How do you know that? Also that name Lameth is a new one on me. Have you any ideas where it came from?

If you have any Welch or Smith family data you may help me on some other problems I am working on. No doubt there was an early Smith-Barbee connection.

Excuse this hasty reply. I shall have a better picture in my next letter, and thanks again-

Louis E. Pondron

Dear Miss Barbee:

In going thro some letters the other day of a Smith line connected with my Wilson line, I ran across some Barbee data-Do not know whether it will help you any but send it for what it es worth.

James Speed Hopkins b. in Mercer Co., Ky., Jan. 6, 1799 m. Sarah Barbee Sept. 15, 1825. This family later went to Mo.,-living near & in Sedalia. He died June 24, 1873-leaving 7 dau. & 4 sons-only one of the daughters married-

The mother of J.S. Hopkins was Mary Spencer Speed Smith-the Hopkins being her second husband.

Mary Spencer Speed was dau. of James Speed & Mary Spencer. She ws b. June 8, 1770 in Va., m. Nov. 1, 1787 in Mercer Co., Ky., to Wm Smith.

Since the writer of this material speaks of Barbees I thot it might be a clue-especially since Guy Smith came in early days to Palestine as did some of the Barbees.

Ref.-Fry, Speed & Spencer families in the Colonial Families of the United States-Fry & Speed in Vol. 6-Spencer in 6, p. 425.

Did you ever hear from Mrs. Juedes-understand her husband has died recently.-However, I am not sure she was on this line.

It is too bad that some of these folks haven't kept some kind of record.

These problems do vex me.

Hastily,
Harriet P. Cox.

I feel sure there is some sort of tie up with this Speed-Smith line as the name "Fry" was carried down thro it.

Dear Rula:

Your letter and the papers came this morning. It will take me a few days to cimplete them as I have to send to Oregon & Arizona for names & dates. In the meantime will you kindley send me six blank pages(like these forms I mean) so I may copy these before I return them to you.

I'm enclosing a booklet that may save you expense in doing your tracing. If these aren't helpful then perhaps I too could help with expense if I knew what it was going to be before hand. I think in all liklihood you may obtain any or all of this material from your state library. Keep in mind my grandfather:

Benjamin H. Long, born in Cincinatti, Ohio, March 4, 1830, Vol. Territorial Army of Colorado Company C., 3rd Regiment. Joined Aug. 20, 1864. Given honorable discharge Dec. 28, 1864. Other than that I know nothing of him or his family. I'd like to trace them too. So in your Barbee, quest you may also find him too. He was of Penn Dutch Stock. What nationality would the name Barbee be from? Long doesn't sound like a Dutch name to me. Could be it was the mother who was Dutch.

Now I have a letter from a Ryan in Denver so will in time get them straightened out. I believe this Ryan is a great grand daughter of Sarah Fisk. I will tell you more about this later. In case she is cooperative would you also send her these forms so she may receive the information you have and offer her own to you? She says her grand mother was Melville Luereta Ryan. I have a photo of her and my grandmother.

More of this later. In the meantime I will send to the state Library for information.

Enclosed is the booklet with two dollars for payment of these forms.

Ive had two very interesting letters from Emil Joslin. It was his suggestion I get in touch with you. Oh, I do so appreciate your help.

Sincerely,

Velma Hellyer.

Dear Miss Barbee:

Became interested a few weeks ago in Barbee history-so went thro the 2 vol. of Crawford Co. Hist. again and am sending you part of the result. Think I sent you the other data once. Elizabeth M. knows nothing of the family history-when Hattie Smith comes over I'll try to get in touch with her & see if I can get a little data on the Smith side. There is a Smith line all worked out but I don't believe it is hers. If it were that would solve one line-When I get some time I shall go to C.H. and look up some of the marriage records-Young & Maro records will be in Ky., also records of William's Marriage.

I am like a 'houn dog" when I get my nose in one of these problems I can't let up.

Sincerely,
Harriet P. Cox.

Miss Rula E. Barbee
Rural Route #2
Terre Haute, Indiana

Dear Miss Barbee,

Your air mail letter of Mch 23rd has been received and I am very sorry to have to tell you that I know nothing of your Lameth Barbee's ancestry & I had to return all of your data to Mr. Pondron with the same comment.

About ten years ago the late Mrs. Telford who also corresponded with you sent me a letter asking me if I had any information on Lameth Barbee but I was unable to help her-Mrs. Telford died before last Xmas, I think.

I do not have a Barbee line but, I've corresponded with many who have, but have not run across a Lameth Barbee. There was a Wm Barbee in very early Middlesex Co., Va., recds.-I think he had a son John who was in Essex Co., Va. recds about 1711. Then there was Thomas of Stafford Co.-Va.- Will (1752?). Then there were also Barbees in Ala.-That probably went from early Va.,-some descendants are now in Tenn.

I think your Clarky Wigginton (dau of Seth) originally came from the Loudoun Co., Va., family & they inter married with the Botts family & got the name Seth from the Botts. I copied a great deal of this Wigginton data & sent it to Mr. Pondron & suppose he sent it on to you-if not please let me know. I got the old Will from a copy of a D.A.R. book which I have & I copied the rest from an old paper written by Gen'l Wm Conner whose mother was Nancy Wigginton Conner & her mother was Elizabeth Botts, dau. of a Seth Botts-(Culpepper Co., Va.). Also from an old letter from a very old (Culpepper Co., Va. Man named) Wigginton who was in a Masonic Home in Calif. in 1938.

I'm very sorry not to be able to help you , but if I ever run across the name of Lameth Barbee, I will certainly let you know-Could Lameth have been the maiden name of the mother of Lameth Barbee? Why not look in Rev. Clayton Torrence's book "Va-Index of Va., Wills and Adms"- & see what it gives for the name Lameth-Often a mother gave their children their maiden name as a given name in order to preserve her own maiden name.

I think from what I've read of the Wigginton & Botts data your family were in Loudoun & Stafford-probably later in Culpepper Co., Va.,

With best wishes & regrets, I am,

Sincerely,

(Miss) Helen Montague Turner

There were Barbees in Fredrick Co., Va., I think & they may have gone over into Hampshire Co. They were also in Fauquir Co., Va., but probably all descendants of the Thos. of Stafford-Will 1752.

I sent a card to Mrs. Telford in Fla., & a little while after Xmas her husband wrote me that she had recently passed away.

Have you consulted th e Va., Tax Lists for 1782-7? of Fothergill and Naugle? Sometimes they mentioned the Va. Co., now in Ky.

December 8 1952

Dear Miss Barbee:

Your letter of November 14th received today and the ifformation you supplied is appreciated although none of it except that concerning your great great grandfather could have any direct bearing on my branch of the family. You see my great great grandfathre (there should be authorized abbreviations for such things) was born in North Carolina in 1793. He met and married Susan P. Walthall who was born in irginia an 1805 and sons were born in Kentucky in 1823 and 1829 in Mississippi in 1829 and Tennessee in 1833. My ancestor was named Majors E. and I theorize he received the given name Majors because his mother was a Majors. The 1790 census of N.C. shows two Christophers, John Sr. John Jr. Joseph and Mark Barbee in N.C. that year.

Mrs. Welborn with whom I have corresponded mentions Barbees in Wake County where her Joseph was from.

My theory is that my ancestor went to Kentucky as a small boy with his parents, brothers and sisters, met and married his wife there. It might be possible your Lameth and Ransom were brothers of my ancestor.

I've had the feeling his family settled in Wilson County, Tenn., but my clues there haven't held up, although the names Joseph and Thomas were common in the Texas branch and from 1800 to 1830 in the Wilson County Tenn. records. As a result of this research I found a man in Dallas Texas whose mother Mr. L. D. Barbee, Gunter Texas gave me the earliest information she had which was that Joseph Barbee married Rachael Compton place and date unknown. I gave them the date (1820 Wilson County, Tenn) as it was the group I was trying to prove up, although mine was a Joseph who moved with his family to Wilson County in 1800. I'm still not convinced.

Joseph and Rachael moved in 1841 to Jefferson County, Ill. Their sons were Sion, Elias, Amzy, Colvin, Edward, Dan, Joe, Bill, and Tom, Daughters Catherine, Luisa, and Minerva. Mrs. Barbee would like to know some of the Barbee history and will give you all she has although I will continue on it, Elias married Louisa Allen 4-14-1861 ~~chi~~ children Wilson, Brownlow, Emma and an infant son who died. Luther Dennis is the son of Wilson Brownlow and is Mrs.

L.B. Barbee's husband.

Only yesterday afternoon I went to the Rice Institute Library and read the Barbee Family on the microfilm of the Draper Manuscripts.

This history is very interesting and consists of a seried of letters written in 1845 and 1846 by one Thomas Barbee and others giving the information you have with out many dates but reciting many incidents in the lives of the eight sons including the incident about the step-mother.

This information was to the effect that Joshua died where in 1840 leaving two children, John moved to Terre Haute died about 1820 leaving a large family. William moved to Troy, Ohio died in 1813 leaving a large family. Elias settled in Green Co., Ky., died in 1843 leaving numerous children and grandchildren. He may have been the ancestor of the Wilson Co., Tenn., Barbees.

Burl Barbee in San Antonio is from Illinois and gives his father's address as Lon Barbee 1415 Lebanon Road, Collinsville, Ill. He hasn't answered my letter.

Miss Effie Lewis 112 E. Lynwood, San Antonio, Texas is a descendant of Alice Winston Barbee and has a wealth of information on that branch. She refers me to Mrs. John F. Frank 1351 McCutcheon, St. Louis 17, Mo., % Laura A. Frank as an elderly aunt (about 80 or 90 yrs. old) who has some information. I havent written this one.

I am enclosing a genealogical information sheet on my great great grandparents. The birthdates are from family sources. The four boys are from the 1850 Texas census. The two girls are Lucky Strike Extras but from the family bible although they may turn out to be wives of the older boys. No one I know of can account for them. Although V. Jane is the right age to be my great grandmother although the script V might have been an N and the J may have been an I. My gr. grandmother was Narcissa I. Please keep the sheet and if you run into any information let me know. Had it occurred to you to look up your ancestor on the 1850 cancus which will show the state of birth and the 1880 census will show the state of birth of each parent as well as the individual.

There is a possibility only that our two ancestors may have been brothers, more likely if the 1850 census shows yours to be from North Carolina. I haven't gotten to the 1880 eensus to see where his father and mother were from.

Saturday I ordered the 1830 census of Miss. on microfilm. The cost was only $8.00 for the whole state and I hope to find out about my ancestor as well as other Barbees there. Their third son was born in Miss. in 1829.

I shall have the census search made in Orange County (possibly Wake Co., thanks to Mrs. Welborn) in 1800 N.C. 1810 and 1820 but not all at once. Please see what you can find out from the 1850 census of Vigo County, Ind.

David Rankin Barbee, Rout 2, Box 232-A Orange, Texas claims an ancestor Sampson born (b. 1787 Va. d. 1874 Indianapolis) who founded Ft. Wayne. Maybe he's responsible for the Barbee Lakes. I'm sure he would love to hear about it. He is 78 years old, has been a newspaper editor and lived in Washington almost 25 years and hold on to your hat-hates Abe Lincoln with a vengenance. He is what is usually called an unreconstructed rebel.

I haven't much information other than what I have mentioned hope it may help.

You must have used Rev. Darnell in Frankfort Ky. In a letter today he says he can probably identify Majors E's father and Susan Walthalls parents-That he has worked on related Barbee lines for a Miss Barbee in another state. Has he done any work for you and is it worth the money? I don't want any work on unrelated lines but it would be worth a reasonable amount to learn the place and date of marriage their parents names if possible and Majors brothers and sisters if such is possible. What do you think of his work and charges?

Please let me know on this last matter and thanks for your help.

Sincerely yours,
J.E.Barbee

Dear Miss Barbee:
This letter is long over-due and, since I am starting to Florida today to be gone about a month, I think it high time for me to write to you.

I hope you will find the notes which I am sending as interesting as I have found them in the coarse of compilation. This is just a little"drop in the bucket" of all that I have, but I think it best to keep the Barbees to themselves. The Gunns will be equally as interesting I am sure and the Singhorsts go back to the very beginnings of Pennsylvania.

Of course it is possible that you are NOT descended from one of these sons of the Senior John Barbee and his wife Elizabeth who is said to have been a Welch. But it seems so logical to believe that you are that I mean to trace the descendants of these out as much as possible.

It seems to me that Elias is your "best Bet". He is the "odd numbered and, since you have described your grandfather as a rather peculiar person, that may be the reason. You will note that when the Pension application was made for Elias all the evidence was set forth by his brothers. Elias himself said only the very least possible. Usually a man rambled on to a considerable extent, but not so with Elias. Then too, he lived in Green County, Ky., which is quite some distance from the others who lived in Mercer (later Boyle). Elias was the right age to have been father of your Lameth and he did serve at Yorktown. It is a question as to whether the John who married Mary Dyson was the same John who was a brother of Joshua & etc. His own "Declaration" is not in the record, although he did receive a pension. The Declaration is that of Mary and she was evidently living with her own people when she applied. He may have lived in Fauquier or anyplace else. In the AGO there are records of about half a dozen John Barbees and they were different men of the same name.

I consider this Will of Thomas an important item especially in view of Mrs. McAdams' garbled abstract.

As you will realize my time spent has considerably exceeded your initial payment, but I have inferred that you wished the search continued. We can get around to that later.

There was one ALEXANDER GUNN living in Iridell Co., N.C. in 1820(Census)/ I mean to stop in Raleigh on my way back from Florida and shall try to find out about him.

I shall receive forwarded mail while in Florida and shall be interested in your reaction to my theory as to the name Lameth Barbee.

Am so sorry to learn that Mrs. Gilliatt is ill. She is "Geared too high".

Sincerely

Nellie P. Waldenmaier.

My dear Miss Barbee:

Your letter about the Barbee family reached me during the holidays when I was just too busy to collect my Barbee data and assemble it in form for any one but myself to understand. It's something I've been promising myself that I'd do and it needed to be done so I am grateful to you for your letter for now it is done after a fashion. I'm afraid I have not any information for you. May be some clues. If I knew where your Barbees lived as far as your knowledge of them goes I'd know better if I have helped you. Please notice particularly on page 2 of my manuscript what I say about John Barbee Jr. you will notice we know nothing of his children except those who stayed in Kentucky-you will see that his children were contemporary with your great-great grandparents.

If you would write to the Library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin at Madison and ask if any of the "Draper Letters"relate to Lameth Barbee you might find something that would place him.

The Draper Letters are manuscripts from prominent patriots of the middle west up to 1846-7 which were to serve as a basis for a history of the mid-wests part in the War of 1812. I was interested only in John and William Barbee so had photostats of those two only. They gave much family history and were a check on material from other sources. There were some errors but in the main they were accurate. I had a good check from two other unrelated sources. Lameth is such a striking name-Clarky King-Summersville too-I don't see how you can help getting some help. But I'll tell you that Mercer County Kentucky is the hardest place to get information from. You are so near that this spring or summer would be a grand time to go there and search the records yourself.

I haven't a doubt in the world that you go back into Virginia but I think you have a Kentucky generation that you haven't located and that is the father of Lameth.

I have found some Virginia Revolutionary Soldiers that don't fit into John Barbee Sr. family and I will give them to you.

Benjamin Barbee in 6th Va. Reg.
Elisha Barbee no regiment given.
Francis Barbee in 2nd Va. Reg.
Capt. Thomas Barbee Jr. son of Thomas noted on page 4 of my manuscript. Maybe you can get some data on their children that would help you.

This is my husband's family and I had to start from scratch to get what I have. Sometime I hope to go to Culpepper County and look for myself. There is a Barbee Corners there and the Huguenot Society claim John Barbee Sr., as a descendant of Manikintown Fownders but they can't tell me why they claim him or these other names I've given you or who were his parents. Aren't some people funny? There was an Adrain Barbie also a Claude.

Mrs. Welborn seems to be another line entirely and when I last wrote her she hadn't any very direct information. Did she give you anything?

The Barbees and Telfords were quite closely associated in Virginia during the Revolution for they were sharp shooters and in Washington's own gaurd. I am to have the gun (for my son) that my husbands ancestor Alexander Telford used during the war. He was at Valley Forge and Yorktown and was specially placed by Washington to gaurd a spring.

Mrs. Nannie Fish had pewter plates used at Valley Forge by Alexander Telford Jr. and George Washington. She gave one away before I was married and the other her maid melted on the stove. You see Aunt Nannie was alive in 1908. Much of my information came indirectly from her.

I hope this has helped you a little. I'd be glad to know how you come along.

Very sincerely yours,
Emilia Houghton Telford
(Mrs. W.S. Telford)

P.S. Do you know any Telfords or Telfords in Indiana?

Dear Miss Barbee

Your listing in the Dec. 1951 Genealogical Helper has just come to my attention and I note that you want information on the Barbees of 1785 in Kentucky and Virginia.

I am trying to run down my line which came from Tennessee in the early 1800's and seems to be from Wilson County and Madison County. Wilson is not far over the state line from Kentucky. I have nothing at this time but clues and know only this.

M.E. Barbee and wife Susan P. Walthal born in 1805 with two sons Tom and E. H. (Ham) came to Smith County Texas where John Pleasant was born. I have found Pleasant Barbees in Madison County and a similarity of given names (male) in the Texas and Wilson County, Lines.

Recently while in San Antonio I located a Miss Blanche Barbee who was not very interested but admitted that her father had a brother and was from Culpepper., Virginia, however this was too recent for your purpose. I do not have her address but am sure she can be reached as follows: Miss Blanche Barbee % Public S chool System San Antonio, Texas.

I have found references to Charles Barbee and wife Elizabeth in 1714, John Barbee in 1689, Joseph Barbee in 1760 and Christopher Barbee in 1768 in North Carolina Records of different sorts. This information is sketchy but will furnish it if you need it.

Also noted references to Martha Ann McFall born May 9 1838 of Samuel McFall and Elizabeth Barbee. This seemed to involve Indiana.

I have only been interested about two weeks and have enough clues and work to keep two people busy. I have two letters received today both of which advise that the Barbee line began with Glaude Barbie and wife. One definitely stated that they arrived from France in July 1700 and settled with the first Huguenot settlement in Virginia.

He did not know who the sons of Glaude were and says their family records start with their grandchildren.

He further states that his father's Uncle Sampson migrated to Indiana from Virginia founded a family and the town of Fort Wayne and he has been corresponding with a great granddaughter of Sampson. This may possibly be you or surely a relative of yours. I am speaking of David Rankin Barbee now of Orange Texas Route 2 Box 232A.

I shall appreciate your early reply with the information of your family line since it may be more closely related to mine than you and I think. I need to close the 100 year gap from 1700 to 1800 and am sure you must have a portion of it.

A self Addressed stamped envelope is enclosed for your reply. Thanking you for your assistance, I am.

Sincerely yours,
J.E.Barbee

P.S. Are you interested in Illinois Barbees?

Miss Rula E. Barbee,
R.F.D. No. 2,
Terre Haute, Indiana,

Dear Miss Barbee:

I am no authority on the genealogy of the Barbee family, and I know of none. However, the enclosed may be helpful to you. You may make a copy of it, but please return it to me. My chief interest in the family is my own line, which, strange to say, has a branch in Indiana. All of the Barbees in the South and in Indiana are descended from a young French couple, Glaude (Claud) Barbie and sa femme, who came from France via England on the good ship Mary and Anne, and landed in Virginia July 23, 1699. The original records of this migration are in the Bodleian Library, Oxford University, England, and in the records of The Huguenot Society of Mannikin Town, Richmond, Virginia. This colony was settled by the Colonial Governor of Virginia in an abandoned village of the Manoacan Indians on the James River above Richmond, hence the name-Mannikin Town.

No record, if any was kept, has ever been found of the children of Glaude Barbie. Our records begin with their grandchildren, of whom some twenty served in the American Revolution. I think the name originally was Barbier -too bad that it ever was corrupted- but in records I have consulted it is set down as Barbe', Barbie, Barby, Barbee, Barbey, Barber and Barbier. The muster roll of my great grandfather 's company in the National Archives gives his name variously as Barby, Barbie, Barbee and Barber.

Sampson Barbee, my great uncle, the eldest son of my Captain Thomas Barbee of Virginia-Alabama, (there was one in Kentucky), settled in Indiana, where he founded the town of Fort Wayne -so I am told. His name is perpetuated by the Barbee Iron Works and Barbee Lake. He died in Indianapolis at a great age.

Charles W. Baird, in his History of the Huguenot Emigration to America, gives a good deal of information about a Walloon family named Barbier, who came from Leyden, Holland, to America in the 17th Century. Whether this is a branch of our family, I do not know. He states that it originated in Normandy, France. Do not be misled by his book.

The most distinguished member of the family, in Fr France, was M. Barbe' Marbois, the statesman and diplomat. He was the first French minister to the U.S.; was with Washington's army at Valley Forge and elsewhere; and when independence came, presented his credentials to the infant government. His name is on the treaty ceding Louisiana to the United States. I have an original letter of his.

If, after examining the report compiled by Media, you wish any further information, call on me. How on earth did you locate me in far off Texas? And do tell me something about yourself. Over the years Barbee women in many States have been in touch with me, trying to find out something about their family. If somebody would organize a Barbee Society, and that society would go to the Library of Congress and take out the names and addresses of all the Barbees in the land to be found in the City Directories and Telephone Books, and write them for their knowledge of the family, a beginning would be made for a genealogical history. Is there a millionaire in the family who would finance such an undertaking?

It is a real pleasure to hear from you. And, God bless you.

Very truly yours,

David Rankin Barbee

Dear Emil:

Your letter came today and I will answer it and send some pictures-I want them back-all except one-that is the one of the Johnson's(grandma's relatives) I have another of it.

I'm in charge of the Red Cross in this area, but have gotten others to take my responsibilities as I still have a deep chest cold, I got from helping my husband spray our young orchard two weeks ago-I wouldn't be surprised if I have pneumonia-but I am still up and going.

This coming week end we plan to drive to Phoenix, Arizona. We think the desert air may be good for me. It will be an 800 mile trip over and back.

Now about the family again. No, mama was raised so far away from the others she knew very little of them. Last summer she gave me the picture she believed to be John Barbee & wife and she said she believed him to my grandmothers uncle. You say he would be 133 now. Grandmothers birth was 1834 so that would make her 118 now wouldn't it? Now mama believed he was a doctor and he practiced in or around Terre Haute. (There could be two John Barbees) Could you look this up in old Medical Registry? Or check with Rula. Now about the name Nancy. I told you I have 2 sisters(They are married to brothers Edna(the half sister)married Cecil McElvain. They have 3 girls. He's a San Diego fire man. Mable is married to Paul McElvain.(They are in French Morocco. He's building W.S. Air fields there) She flew over there soon after mama's death this last fall.

As I told you I believe my mother had a sister who died as a baby. Her name was Nancy Elizabeth. I knew about her, but this second family of my mothers were so much younger.& Edna knew nothing about that child--- Anyhow when her second girl was born she named it Nancy Beth. When my mother was told she was quite astonished & asked Edna how she chose the name and Edna said Oh! It was a name that appealed to me. The name Jane & Nancy seem to go along with the Barbees.

I will show my sister your letters. She will be pleased and interested in the name. Oh yes young people should write down things as dated etc., but death seems so remote. I never dreamed mama or uncle Marsh would pass away as they were both perfectly well.

My grandparents had two sons born in Cumberland Co., Ill. William in 1855 and Lewis in 1857. Then my grandfather and a group of boys went to Colorado. He was out there several years. She had no word and mourned him as dead. Then one day he came to the gate and told the little boys to have their mother come out. She was insulted and told the boys if anyone wanted to see her, he could mighty well come to the house. So he did. No doubt she was near the Johnsons while he was away. In due time they were outfitted and took a year to reach the City of Denver where their son George was born in Oct. 1864. There was about 8½ yrs. space between those births. Will and Lewis would have been 8 or 9 then. Grandma told us how the boys threw a rock and accidently killed a pig belonging to some one else in the wagon train. On their arrival in Denver there was a terrible killing. An entire farm family had been killed. Their bodys were put on display in Denver.

A company of cavalry was organized. It was a dry fall and a building got on fire and the town burned down. The women at nights were crowded into a 2 story building and placed under guard.

Texas had set up as a country and they were feeling their oats. The atomosphere was ~~that~~ that the gold had to be sent to Washington. Provisions had to be hauled by wagon train from Saint Lewis and any Texan had to be dealt with. Colorado Territory had decided on self rule. There was a minister of the Methodist church there(I believe but am not sure that he organized the University of Denver 1864) (Our daughter lived near it there) Anyhow this minister, Chiverton was 6 foot 7 weighed 300 pounds. He was left in charge of the Volunteer Army, while some one had gone for orders to Saint Lewis. The government was trying to make a satisfactory deal with the various tribes of mountain Indians. There was a big encampment of Indians on instructions of the U.S. out on San Creek. This killing in Denver-the fire etc., was quite severe. Anyhow Chiverington took the cavalry out there and there was a dreadful battle. My grandfather was always ashamed of it. He never affiliated with the G.A.R. While he was away grandma had her baby. She was very ill(I'd think she would be). They sent to the army for my grandfather. He was released, by Capn. Morgan. He killed one horse-had to get another. Rode as hard as he could. He reached Denver and before long was given his discharge. He was a hundred day volunteer.(I have the army discharge) After they lived there awhile they experienced the awful Cherry Creek flood(worst flood Denver ever had). Then they went to Central City. I believe it is 50 to 60 miles above Denver, near the Continental Divide. That is where he was several years before. Of the group of young men in the 50 who came out , he was the last to survive. I have several newspaper clippings of his death. One is head lined "Hero of Battle of Sand Creek Dies". Grandpa said years later, that lots of the Indian trouble was white men dressed as Indians.

Yes, I remember about their farm near Boulder & the grass hoppers. They built the first substantial home in Boulder. It still stands and still in good condition. Yes he made many gold strikes never in late years-very good ones. He and all his sons were Hard rock miners & placer miners. Uncle Marsh left mama 3 mines-The Enterprise, The Gold Springs and the Iron Age-all high up above Boulder. They are ours now, but we aren't mining people. My guess is they aren't of great value. Uncle Marsh was very interested in tungsten and each summer until his death- in 1950-he taught summer school out at Mesa Verde National Park in S.W. Colorado. He was an authority on minerals-mines etc., He was telling me that Col. Lindbergs son was one of his students I believe in 1948 or 9.

Of my other brother in Colo., he isiin the mines there and the San Diego brother is a tuna fisherman. Both do well.

We are in the S.D. Co., mountains. We have been here 30 years. We have a garage & service station-a very good business, big cattle country-and fruit and tourist area.

Some day I want to see that old Barbee house., and you and Rula.

Do you ever come to California? I'm so pleased to know you.

Sincerely,

Velma

P.S. Stamps are for return of pictures. Notice how both mama and I are like Grandma Long. Both just a little over 5 feet. Grandpa was 6 foot 4 inches. All his sons were medium. My husband is 6-2 and our son Charles is 6 foot. Please do give my letters to Rula & let her see the pictures. Thanks so much for your interest and kindness!

Mr. Emil Joslin
Dear Sir: Joslin

I obtained your address from Elda Coxe's daughter Grace. I am a daughter of Sarah Jane Long, daughter of Benjamin Long and Elizabeth Clarkie Barbee.

Benjamin Long born in Hamilton Co., Ohio, 1830.
Elizabeth Clarkie Barbee born in Kentucky, 1835. With her two sisters, Sarah and Jane, they lived in Ill., in 1854 with their aunt and uncle, Isaac and Susan Johnson. My grandmother married my grandfather in Cumberland Co., Ill., in 1854. In 1864 they were pioneers in Denver Colorado. Later they made a small fortune-they were among the founders of the University of Colorado& First Christian Church of Boulder Colo.

Do you know if any one named Barbee still lives? In an old autograph album I find your family name. It was written in 1888. (a verse to my mother signed Ella Joslin) Another Terre Haute, 1888. G. H. Joslin. One you might find of interest is this: To Miss Sarah Long Neoga, Ill., Nov. 26, 1888. My compliments to you: Susan Johnson, Born June 20, 1817. Married April 27, 1837. Commenced learning to write Jan. 3rd. 1887. Signed: Susan Johnson. She(or her husband) would have been an aunt or uncle of my grandmother. I don't know which was the blood relative. I have photographs of the three Barbee girls. Also John Barbee and wife. Also these Johnsons. Do you know where the Barbee girls were born in Kentucky? Do you know anything about my grandfather or his family. My mother believed him to be of Penn., Dutch extraction. Born in Cincinatti, Ohio, 1830.

Turning the pages of this old autograph album is: Ophelia Barbee, Neoga, Ill., 1888-Mary E. Johnson, Neoga, Ill., 1888. It says Dear Cousin: (to my mother). Then all the other names in the book are Ryan. Mostly of Milford, Missouri. My grandparents 3rd son was born among wagon trains on the Platte River in Denver. My grandfather then 35 had joined Co., C., Third Regiment Colorado Territorial Army. I luckily have his army discharge and history books record his help in establishing the University of Colo. So if you know anything of John Barbee, Ophelia Barbee, the Johnsons of Neoga, Ill., or any family facts I'd be interested in making a record for my children. What relation would I be to you? I hope you will favor me with a reply. Sincerely,

Velma Hellyer

Dear Cousin Emil:
I cant tell you how happy I am to receive your letter.

This is the first clew I have had, that Grandma Long had any brothers. My mother told me all she knew about the family last summer. She told me of Sarah Barbee Fisk and Jane Barbee Joslin-who were my grandmother-Elizabeth Clarkie Barbee Long's sisters. She said they(as girlw) lived with Isaac & Susan Johnson in S. Ill., (Trilla or Neoga, Ill.)

I have this old memory book of my mothers. In it this aunt Susan Johnson(of my grandmothers writes her birth. Susan Johnson born 1817. Did the Johnsons have a family? And how is it my grandmother lived with the Johnsons(Where were her parents?) As mama told me, all three of these girls lived with the Johnsons. The girls I refer to are Jane, Sarah and Elizabeth Clarkie Barbee.

My mother said my grandfather Benjamin H. Long asked Mr. Johnson for work and was employed on the spot. They were walking to the house and my grandfather asked Johnson if he had any daughters. Johnson said "No, but I have 3 nieces." So my grandfather said "Well, I'll choose the smallest one". Years after, my grandmother was told this and she didn't think it a bit funny. So they were wed and had two sons(IN Ill.) Then my grandfather made a historic journey with a group of young lads-they pioneered Colorado. My grandmother had no word from him-he was away 3or 4 years.(She was still in S. Ill.) or Ind. Then he returned with a small fortune in gold. They outfitted a prairie schooner and it took them a year to make the journey. They endured great hardship. They arrived in Denver. I have the newspaper records, other records. My grandfathers patent papers, army discharge, History books tell other facts. My grandfather was the last survivor of this group.(Some time I'm going to find out who these other lads were who accompanied him. They made the journey by ox team-walking & by horse back. Anyhow they arrived at Denver in the fall of 1864. Texas was acting up-so a Territorial army was organized in Aug. 20-my grandfather joined.(Northern Army) instead of fighting Texans they engaged in an infamous battle with the Indians.(The battle of San. Creek) He was a hundred day volunteer. While he was occupied my grandmother gave birth to a third son in Denver. Hostilities over they went on to Central City, Colorado.(known a s the richest square mile on earth) There they had two more sons & my mother (She would have been 81 this month had she lived. Then they moved to Boulder, Colorado. Then another son. So the family was 6 sons & 1 daughter (another baby named Nancy Elizabeth died). They had aquired a fortune in gold also, so they started to bring culture to the wild west. My grand parents helped to buy the land, then donated funds (along with many townspeople) to establish the University of Colo. My grand parents and a man mamed McCuloh established the first Christian Church in Boulder, Colorado in 1875. Grandma was 89 when she died. Grandpa was 91. Both my mother (who was then a widow) and my uncle Fred, who was a batchelor, attended them during their latter years. All my uncles are dead. My mother was the last of the family. She, without any illness at all, passed away last Sept. 10. My half brother found her a few minutes later. Our mother married Francis Eugene Story. They lost the first child. Then I was born-1898. Then our father died of pneumonia. Then 3 months later a sister was born. She's Mable E. McElvain. She now lives in French Morroco (Casa Blanca)

When I was 6 my mother re-married, had 2 sons & 1 daughter. Then in 1918 the husband died of flu, so we helped her raise her children. Both my sister & I were married by then. We helped her ' she helped us. When they were all raised she went to live with Uncle Marsh in Boulder , Colorado. Her 2 sons also were there working in the mines. Then last year Uncle Marsh suddenly passed away. Mama was very saddened without him. During this last year we all visited her, a brother & 1 sister are in San Diego & this sister in Morocco all went to visit her. One son lives there in Boulder. I flew to Denver in June last spent a day with my daughter there-then 10 days with my mother-we had such a good time. Then my husband came & we brought 3 of our Denver grand children out for the summer. I'm 54 so we will never take more than 2 at a time again.

We have a son 23 who is married & lives in San Diego. Mama gave me all the old photos etc., Yes I have that picture you mentioned taken by Wright of Terre Haute.

I was there with my mother 10 days-we went to grandpa & grandma's grave, to uncle Marsh's grave, to all the places they had lived. We had such nice meals & hours of visiting & long walks as she was very well always. Last year when uncle Marsh died, I flew to DDenver, then I s stayed there with her for a month. She and I cleaned his basement which he had been storing up for years. We had to call the police 3 times to have dynamite caps removed. I guess he put them down & forgot them. I could see she was getting along in years, but I was still unprepared for either of them to pass away. Some days I miss them so much I feel completely destitute. They both enjoyed exeellent health, both passed away instantly without any inkling they were going. They were wonderfully fine people. I'm very proud I had all these folks, but adjusting myself to the loss of them is very hard.

Yes do give both these letters to your cousin(OUr cousin), Rula Barbee. I would love to hear from her.

Where did the Barbee family live in Ky., etc.,? I have a picture of John Barbee & wife taken at Trilla, Ill., Date? Style is about 1870. Also picture of these Johnsons taken in 1878 at Trilla, I-L. So evidently they were still living that time-when mama was a girl-when she & grandpa and grandma & uncle Fred visited back there.

When I was a little girl I went from school to my grandparents each Wed. afternoon. Then mama & sister came. We all had dinner there, went to prayer meeting. I was put on the sofa.(it had beautifull pillows on it) I was supposed to sleep, but instead, I used to lie and listen to my grandpa and "Old Man Kellog" talking about the early days. In 1914 they came by train to California and spent the winter with us.

My grandfather invented bullets-between the attorney and some one else the patent was stolen& improved. I have the original patent from Washington, D.C. My grandfather had little education-I know nothing of his folks do you? Before he met my grandmother he'd been working on River boats. His birth place was Cincinatti, Ohio, March 4, 1830.

Oh I'm so very pleased I have found you. And that you have told me about Miss Rula Barbee. I hope she too will write. I'm enclosing some photos-one is from an old tintype no doubt taken before they had any children.

We have these two married children-and two additional boys whom providence has allowed us. One has no parents-hes 21, a big handsome lad he's in the Navy C.Bees-he's just gone now to Manila P.I. after 12 months in the Aleutian Islands. He got back to Seattle Dec. 24, then flew home which for us was a fine Christmas present. Our son is 23, then the other lad we have is 22 & this other 21-all the boys love each other and are like brothers.

I have never been to your country but did go by plane twice to Shreveport Louisiana during the war, as our daughter was ill. Her husband was in the air force so I went when she needed me.

We live up in the mountains back of San Diego. We have a fine home & business, but my heart has always been in Colorado. Its a lovely state.

Thank you so much. I hope some time I have the pleasure of knowing you.

Sincerely

Dear Miss Barbee:

Thru my mother's cousin's daughter in Terre Haute I received the name of Emil Joslin-and thru him he writes me that you too have a family interest.

I am Velma Story Hellyer, my mother was Sarah Jane Long, daughter of Benjamin Long and Elizabeth Clarkie Barbee.

I have just written Mr..Emil Joslin again and asked him to give you the two letters and either one of you who wish them may have the photos enclosed. Will you be kind enough to write me the early history-as far back as you know. All I know was grandma had 2 sisters.

Sarah Fisk and Jane Joslin. My mother's name was S Sarah Jane after these two girls. Keep the families separate, the Sarah's and the Jane family.

I have written the Elizabeth (Barbee)family history to Mr. Joslin. He will give it to you. Now is my grandmother's name(Eliz. Clarkie Barbee) is Clarkie her mother's maiden name perhaps? Who are the Ryans of Missouri? How far back have you traced the Barbees?

I wrote Mr. Joslin at Youngstown and his return letter is Route 2, Terre Haute, so I'm confused-so will send this one to the other address. I hope it reaches him. I hope some day I will have the privelege of meeting you both. Who are the living members of the Barbees besides yourself?

I want to make a complete history for my family and our children.

Do you ever come to California?

Sincerely,

Dear Emil:

I have a fine library here in the mountains-so I have been studying the origin of photography and the dagerreutype,(tin type) becamse common just prior to the Civil war.

Now I have an old tintype-it's in a very delicate soft copper frame. Thus I judge it to have been a special treasure. I'm wondering if it isn't my grandmothers fathers picture? The man is probably 60-he's of small stature-his collar on his white shirt stands up-a tie seems to be of silk-a bow tie. It could be grandma's father or grandfather. Now you say according to your old county directory John Barbee would now be 133 years old. Now Susan Johnson born in June 20-1817 would be 135 now-right? (I am very poor on Math.)

Now, do you think this possible-was she a Barbee before she married in 1837(according to her own hand writing in this book I have.) And if she was a Barbee could she have been the brother of John Barbee. And were they both not then brother and sister to my grandmother Elizabeth Barbee's father?

Now a hundred years have passed away since this old tin type was taken and the man was in all likelihood about 60 so that would take him back to about the time of the Revolution wouldn't it. That was 1776 and he would have been a child possibly in the very late seventeen hundreds. That's what I want to do if possible trace the family as far as possible.

Now about the Hellyers. I'm contacting my husbands people in Wyoming who have a family record. (I know all about his mother's people)

Oh yes I want to know this-what nationality were the Barbees. I know my grandfather Long was Penn Dutch. I'm trying thru the Cincinatti Daughters of the American Revolution to trace him-I don't know a thing about any relative of his, but have his Civil war papers records etc., & news paper articles.

In my books I see where there was a 1790 census so I may be able to get it from our state library. Also there are several others I will try to locate.

The year of 64 when my grand parents were in Denver was the most rugged year in Colorado history. The Indians who were formerly friendly had been abused and were on the war path. Many criminals were fleeing west-also many trying to escape military service. Fire and flood and war diminished goods and services. Grandpa joined the volunteers in good faith but under Col. Chrivington-(who later had to stand court marshall for his vicious and unprovoked attack.) He was a Methodist minister who used very bad language- he was also a Mason I believe. At least, later on the Masonic lodge at Central City was named for him. Anyhow, my grandfather never affiliated with the G.A.R. or any organization. Their heart was in the Christian Church at Boulder which they organized and help build. And in their family. Their family was very good to them. Uncle Fred never married so always was there(except when off on sprees.) he was very handsome-lost the girl he wanted so was quite a bad actor. In the 90's he struck a good mine-built the "Old Folks" as they all called them-a lovely brick home about 4 blocks from their church.(I went to the home and church too last September).

Grandma was very feminine. She took great pleasure in clothes all her under things were frills & lace & ribbon. Dainty lace collars, lace handkerchiefs etc. Her home too was lovely-as I remember it, starched lace curtains-finest of linens. Table just gleaming. Each night at midnight they got up and dressed, ground coffee in a hand mill, fried potatoes, bacon & eggs, enjoyed a right hearty mid night snack. My guess is-in the early days there was so little to do with(flour was $60.00 a barrel in 1864 so no doubt they retired at dusk & got up at daylight-so they got the habit & kept it).

As I was saying-they had this new little brick home. They had their fruit trees, Concord grapes, wonderful flower garden and out back the out house of course, then beside it a two story barn. Grandpa's donkey, he used to carry his tent & prospecting things resided in the lower barn. Upstairs was grandpa's shop where he worked on his inventions and a bed for my tipsy uncle. All of the boys followed the mining more or less and every once in a while one would strike a rich pocket or sell some mine to a good advantage.

From a government prepared book of the Gilpin and Boulder Counties I will give you some data of long,

Just a few out of many thousands, some are still being worked. Not for gold or silver especially but many lesser materials used in modern manufacturing.

In 1935 we spent a summer with Mama and Uncle Marsh. We placer mined with him on Boulder creek. We got one coarse piece that had a value of 3 dollars. My brother came at evening to our placer mine. He said "Oh you don't know how to do it"-so he rolled some cobble stones away scooped the pan into the sand beneath and panned out a piece of pure gold worth $18,00-A piece the Pioneers over looked.

He and Uncle Marsh ran mines for a man named Hyneman- a wealthy man. They were interested in tungsten.

In the early day's I think grandpa & grandma did placer mining entirely. There is no record of the value of the fortunes taken from surface gold, and very few true records of the mines.

Two summers ago we took mama up to our mines then (up Boulder Canyon) then to Nederland-Rollinville-Black Hawk, Central City, Georgetown, and Denver, then home to Boulder. It was the historical ground where grandpa and grandma used to be. It was his old prospecting area, he loved.

We are having a very prolonged & heavy rain her.
I love to hear from you.

Sincerely,
Velma

Dear Rula:

We had a terrible accident to our small grandaughter in Denver. I took a plane & was there 12 hours later-remained during the critical time-Then the two older children came home with me by plane. They're in school here-and will remain indefinitly.

Our daughter has four and will have another in Sept. While she was attending two who were ill, the baby got her sheer voile dress afire and was terribly burned-fortunately not on her face.

I had a letter yesterday from our daughter saying the doctors believe the baby may be home in about 3 weeks.

I'm up early writing as I have 2 men working in the yard. There is always plenty for me to do too. My grandson (9 yrs.) helped me put in a garden up in the orchard. The girl (Judy) is 11. She's fine help too. I pay them 50 cents an hour, for special projects so they have their own money then.

I recieved your registered letter & papers. Thank you so much.

If you have not been out to California, why not come out during the summer vacation. If you could come give me some idea when & I can make summer plans accordingly. I find going by plane very satisfactory and in the long run no more expensive than other ways. I can fly from San Diego to Denver in about 5 hours. Of course I prefer daytime flying-so I can see things. Monday's to Fridays -best days-not so crowded then.

Oh yes I forgot to mention I have been ill of flu or something-anyhow the pennecillin they gave me about killed me.

Do come see us one of these days-

With love,
Velma

P.S. I'll complete those papers & send them as soon as I get this gardening in shape.

Dear Miss Barbee:

Your letter of inquiry about our ancestors came to my mother this morning and I will promptly reply.

I am sorry that I do not have the Barbee history as I do the Franks, Craigs, Waltons, etc.

My mother Susie Barbee Frank, is now 94 yrs. old but very remarkable. She has furnished us lovely music all of our lives. I'll try and remember to enclose some snap shots of her.

Her father, Wm J. Barbee, only son of Thomas L. Barbee, was born in Winchester Ky.,(about 1818).

The old family bible with record of births etc., is in our home in N.W. Mo.(we are in St. Louis only during winter months) so I cannot even give the exact date for my grandfather.

My great grandfather, Thos. L. Barbee, married Alice Winston of Va., but I do not know whether he had brothers or not. Lameth Barbee may have been brother or cousin.

There are very few of our Barbee family living. My mother is the last of her generation.

My cousin, Effie Lewis in San Antonio Texas might have some family history. I'll ask her. Her mother was Alice Barbee.

Sorry I cannot furnish you more definite information.

Sincerely
Mary Barbee Frank

P.S. I am curious as to how you located Mrs. John Frank.

Dear Miss Barbee,

I am using my Washington address, inasmuch as I shall not be in Houston more than 4 days longer.

I very much appreciated your data on Barbee and Wigginton. In view of the statement that John Barbee Jr. went in 1815 to Terre Haute, Indiana, it now seems extremely likely that he was the father of Alameth Barbee. John Barbee married 1782 Martha (Patty) Gaines. She is called Patty in her marriage record-but the published Lincoln County, Ky, Marriage records give her name as "Polly". This was an error of transcript. Since you have been unable to locate the will or administration of John Barbee in Vigo County, Indiana, it is probable that John Barbee died in a nearby county-perhaps Crawford County, Illinois.

The earliest Barbee I can find of your line was Andrew. He left a son Thomas Barbee of Stafford County, Va., who married Margaret-----. Their son, John Barbee (d. 1805) married (1st) Elizabeth Welch of Fauquier County, Va., (I have a little on her family) and their son John Barbee m. 1782 Martha Gaines. I think she was a daughter of William Gaines of Fayette County, Ky., but have no proof. Will investigate this further & let you know. This William Gaines has been tentatively placed as a son of Roger and Martha (Rawlings) Gaines of Spotsylvania Co., Va., and may have mar. his cousin Mary Rawlings.

I'll make a deal with you. You investigate the records of the counties adjoining Vigo County, Indiana, for a will, inventory, or administration of John Barbee (born 1755) and I'll gather up the Virginia data on Barbee, Welch, Wigginton etc., and send it on to you. I really have a nice lot of data on the ancestors of John Barbee (born 1755). I am interested in Gaines on account of my descent from William and Isabella (Pendleton) Gaines of King and Queen and Culpeper Counties, Va. Their granddaughter, Frances Gaines (my ancestress) married Joshua Botts (1757-1781), whose sister Sarah Botts married James Wigginton & was, I believe, the mother of Seth Wigginton.

Incidentally, a descendant of Seth Wigginton has found an erroneous census record on him and will not admit the possibility of a census record being wrong. In the 1830 census of Ky., Seth's age is given as 50-60. It should have been 60-70. Mistakes of this sort are legion, but this lady is hard to convince. She is otherwise intelligent and helpful. Her name is Mrs. Bertha E. Ponton and she lives on North Ivor Avenue, San Gabriel, California. I have forgotten her street no., and my correspondence is all packed & enroute to Washington, so will send it later.

There is little doubt now that Seth Wigginton was a son of James & Sarah. I think "Clarky" was a nickname for Clarissa.

Cordially,
George W. Glass

P.S. One other possibility for the parentage of Martha (Gaines) Barbee is that she was a daughter of Joseph Gaines one of the sons of James Gaines (d. 1786) and his wife Mary (Pendleton) Gaines (d. 1803) of Culpeper Co., Va. Of this Joseph I only know that he went to Ky.

Dear Miss Barbee,

I have recently acquired data on a Barbbe family of Kentucky, members of which settled in several other Kentucky counties. The progenitor of this branch was one John Barbee (d. 1805) of Lincoln County, Kentucky. He was quite old at death. One of his sons John Barbee Jr. m. 1782 Martha Gaines and might possibly have been Lameth's father.

I'm returning to Washinton next month and am going to do a good deal of research on Wigginton. ~~Wigginton.~~ Will send on to you whatever I can find on Seth Wigginton.

Please send me a list of the children of Alameth (or Lameth) Barbee-these may help in determining who his father was.

Dear Miss Barbee:

Have been doing a little Barbee research at odd times this winter. The typed notices are from Robinson papers, given me by Mrs. Richards.

Then the sheets of bible records are from a friend of mine in Martinsville, Ill., from a Barbee Bible.

John B.-youngest brother of Joshua and Wm. who came to Crawford CO.,-m. Sallie Lagow and went to Clark Co., Ill.

This seems to prove the fact that John Jr., son of John Sr., married Polly Gaines.

That does not agree with the typed material you sent me regard names of children of John Jr. son of John 1st.

I am also enclosing obituary of Wm & Sally Robinsons son Andrew Taylor Barbee. Andrew's name from bible says Andrew Marg B. One of John and Wm's sisters m. a Marg.

Note the 2 Terre Haute names on list of those attending Andrews funeral.

Please return when you have time to check.

Sincerely,
Harriet Cox.

Dear Miss Barbee;

I'm sorry I have put off writing you so long, hope you will forgive me. Really I haven't anything much to tell you as none of the names you gave sound like any B Barbees all over Texas and as yet we haven't been lucky enough to rake up any kin with them-you see my husband was an only son and so was his grandfather-But his great grandfather had several brother's. My husbands father was Wilson Brownloe B. and his great grandfather's name was Elias Barbee. He lost both eyes in the war between the States. He came to Texas from I believe Ill. His father was Joseph and he married Rachel Compton(Barbee). Their children were boys-Seon-Dan-Joe-Bill-Anzy-Calvin-Edward & Elias. Girls Catherine Louisa & Minerva.

Elias married Louisa Allen and there were 4 intermarriages between the Allens and Barbees-that sounds like we might be kin away back there as I see there were 4 marriages between the Johnsons and your Barbees.

This is about all I can tell you and again I say I am sorry about neglecting to answer you.

With all good wishes,

Mrs. L.D. Barbee

Honorable Cecil M. Harden

Dear Mrs. Harden:

I have received your communication of 6 May 1953 requesting the service records of Samuel McWhorter Young of Rowan County, North Carolina, or Washington County, Indiana, and others who are said to have served in the War of 1812 from Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio.

A careful search of the records of the War of 1812 in the army archives has been made and no record has been found regarding any service rendered by Samuel McWhorter (or M.) Young, Lameth Barbee in a Kentucky organization, William Alexander (or A.) Gunn, Joseph Joslin, George Singhorse, Elisha Heady or Seth Wigginton.

The records show that one Samuel Young served during said war as a carpenter in Captain Thomas Trotter's Company of Carpenters and Blacksmiths, Beaufort Regiment (Latham's) North Carolina Militia. His name appears only on the company pay and receipt roll for 15 July 1813 to 11 August 1813, dated 1 July 1815, which shows that he was in service 12 days and bears the remark: "This Company is from Washington." The specific dates fo his service are not shown.

The records also show that one Samuel Young served during said war as a private in Captain John Bell's Company of Infantry, 1st Regiment (MDonald's) North Carolina Militia. His service commenced 6 December 1814 and ended 5 February 1815. His place of residence is shown as Wake County.

The records further show that one Samuel Young served during said war as a private in Captain Henry Dewalt's Company of Infantry, 5th Regiment (Paddacks') Indiana Militia. His service commenced 28 November 1812 and ended 27 December 1812.

The records show that one Lamath Barbee served during said war as a private in Captain Barton Stone's Company, 36th Regiment (Renno's) Virginia Militia. His service commenced 31 August 1814 and ended 24 November 1814. His place of residence is shown as Stafford, Virginia.

The records also show that one William Singhorse served during said war as a sergeant in Captain Samuel Lee s Company, Colonel McFarland's Detachment, 7th Regiment Indiana Militia. His service commenced 13 March 1813 and ended 17 June 1813.

Dear Miss Barbee:
Had winter not staged a repeat Saturday you would have had callers. Elizabeth's mother Charlotta, is here from St. Louis and we were comong to Terre Haute.

On Friday Charlotta and I went to Vincennes to see Miss Ray Berry-hoping to get some clues-She knew very little but the fact developed-Mrs. Root (Sr.) of T. H. was Virginia Shaw of Marshall-a niece of Gertrude Shaw-who was a gr. dau. of Lucy Barbee who m. Thomas Young. Crawford Co. history says was a sister of William Barbee & John who went to Clark Co.

Is she too high & mighty to interview? There might be a family bible some where in that family.

The 2 Barbee men at Martinsville are grandsons of John Barbee and Sally Lagow. Miss L. weites they are James E. Barbee & Elmer Barbee. Mrs. N. Fitzgerald-dau of John was with them when they brot the bible down to her house.

Miss Lottie Lafferty is my friend's name but she has gotten so old that she really can't do much research any longer-but this bit of work is a godsend-but it is so messy.

John B. Jr's birth is given May 5-1754 instead of 1755 as on data you sent.

The knot to my mind is in data on material you sent me-ie-in p for No. 2-first p-that son John of John Jr. Had 2 daug. Alice-Lottie & Thomas. There must be an error there as John son of John Jr. M. a Lagow & went to Clark Co.-if our records in rawford Co. Hist. are correct. Seems to me the bible records from there definitely prove that.

I am writing Ill. State Hist. Society to see if I can find out anything about the Lost River Country.

Joshua-bro. of Wm. entered land in Crawford Co. on Sec. 12 in 1818-in T. 7-Range 12W(now in Robinson-but at that time probably in what is now Palestine.

When I can find time I'll try to see if I can look this up-it may give the name of his wife or do you have that.

Just why I spend so much time doing this I hardly know as Elizabeth doesn't really care much about it. She has just gone into P.E.O. and seems to be much interested. Nevertheless, I'll keep working on the problem.

Here's hoping,

Sincerely,

Harriet P. Cox.

Miss Rula E. Barbee,
R.R. # 2
Terre Haute, Indiana

Dear Miss Barbee,

I obtained your address from the Kentucky Historical Society, I noticed in my last bulletin from them that you were listed as a new member, and since I am descendent of John Barbee of Kentucky and have just been through there covering the old counties I thought perhaps you might be a descendent of his son John, who left Kentucky in around 1815 and moved to Terre Haute.

I have just finished an extensive search of the Barbees and have most of my information compiled ready to have mimeographed, but I was unable to get any information on John, and I felt that you were no doubt a descendant of his, and could perhaps give me some information of his family. I covered eight counties in Kentucky and spent a week in the Kentucky Historical Society and then covered about a dozen of the old counties in Virginia.

I am a descendent of Elias and A ndrew Barbee, the fifth and sixth sons of John. Elias' son William married Andrew's daughter Eliza. Elias married Elizabeth Slaughter daughter, daughter of Col. John Slaughter of Va. and Andrew married Margaret Rebecca Bradford, daughter of John Bradford, the founder of the first paper in Kentucky. Three of the Barbees married Bradfords. I have the marriages of all of the sons of John, and the date of his second marriage, but I was unable to find in Virginia the date of his marriage to Elizabeth Welch, the mother of his first five sons, John, John being one of them. In Va. so many of the old county records were destroyed in the Civil War that it leaves a blank in some of them. I have been unable to locate the names of all of Elias' children. I have about five of them but I am certain that he had others. Also I have ample records of William's two sons, but none of his daughters. He moved to Troy Ohio in around, 1805.

If you are a descendent of John I would appreciate any information th at you can give me, and I will be glad to pass on to you anything that I have on the family. A nd when I have my history mimeographed I shall be glad to send you a copy.

My mother who is still living is 93 is the grand daughter of William and Eliza Barbee, son and daughter of Elias and Andrew. Her name is now Lucas. I was Beulah Lucas prior to my marriage and I live in Walla Walla, but am away on a trip at the present time. If you can send me any information right away send it to me at 353 Johnson Ave. Teaneck New Jersey---the home of some friends of mine.

Very truly yours,

Beulah Lucas Crow.

Dear Miss Barbee:

Since writing you a few weeks ago I had occasion to look thru some of my family material and located a certificate of marriage in Bath County, Ky., Sept. 3, 1821 of my great grandfather Nathan or Nathaniel Bramblett and a Lucinda or Lucy Barbee, and apparently her father Robert Barbee signed the bond with Nathaniel. So apparently her name really was Barbee and not Barber as this was taken from the court records which I sent for some time ago. No doubt she was one of your relatives.

I have been endeavoring to substantiate the fact that Nathaniel's parents were James and Milly (Shrewsbury) Bramblett, and that one of Nathaniel's uncles, Thomas Elliot Bramblette who was a son of James, was a Gov. of Ky., 1863-67.

Nathaniel died about 1843 in Ky., and is buried in or near Carlisle, he left no will but I have copies of the papers os his estate and the disposition of same thru a sale there.

I have not learned the exact date or place of his birth but think it was in Va., anyway his father James was born in Va.

The father of James was William (and Anna) who supposedly came into Va., with his brother Ambrose about 1740. That's as far as I've gotten definitely.

I believe Lucinda Barbee was born in Va., and at home I have her exact birth & death dates, tho as I stated before she is buried near Lebanon, Ind.

I trust the enclosed data will be of some benefit to both of us.

Yours very truly

Dear Miss Barbee:

Your letter awaited me when I returned from the 3 weeks Eastern tour, which was most enjoyable and instructive.

Have not had too much zip and go since I got home- but did spend two days last week at the C. H. looking up records-deeds etc., found that Joshua Barbee made deeds to land in this Co., as late as 1839-40 and that his wife's name was Elizabeth. He signed to indenture.

Also found that the Nathan Mars-who m. a sister of Wm & Joshua was Elizabeth. He too was here as late as---

We did not get to Haverford to see Mr. Kelly-it was so hot the day we were in that vicinity.

Heard at C.H. that a Mr. Young of Vincennes had been there while I was away searching for Young data. Miss Berry of V- related on the Young line had told me there was a lawyer there named Gaines Young-so it was probably he. Have not heard from Mrs. Dedman for some time but may write her.

I feel I have Elizabeth's line fairly well cleared. She does not agree with DAR policy on U.N. and may not go in but I want her to get papers in shape in case she may wish to join at some time. Will try to get up to Martinsville some time this summer & get certified copy of the Bible records there.

The Gaines line seems cleared too. The name Lameth is a new one, but the families were so large that there were many many names.

Don't worry about the Tyler article-perhaps I can get to a library which has it.

My mind does not sork too well this hot weather.

Sincerely

R.R. #2
Terre Haute, Indiana

Dear Miss Barbee:

I noticed from the Ky. Historical Society Communique that you have recently become a member of that Society and having secured your address I am taking the liberty of writing you to ascertain if your records of your Barbee family (if you have any) contain a Bramblett name.

Since 1940 I have done much corresponding with a great many of our people trying to get as much of a record of our people as possible who have been in America since about 1740 and a William and his brother Ambrose were supposed to have come here from England, settling in Va.

William married in Fauquier county Va., had a number of children, one named James, who served in the Rev. War, married a Millie Shrewsbury, moved to Kentucky to live on land inhereted from his father, had several children, one named Nathaniel, born around 1795 who was my great grandfather, exact date not known. From my elder relatived they told me he married a Lucy Barbee which was in 1821 in Bath Co., Ky., but I later received information thru the society that the name was listed as Lucinda Barber and which could have been either I suppose.

I am wondering if you have any records covering this woman in your files, and which I would be very glad to learn more about.

Nathaniel and Lucy (or Lucinda) had several children, one named Lewis (my grandfather) born Ky. 1824 who married a Mary Frances Troutman and they had 17 children, most all of them born in Ky., some in Indiana as they came into Boone Co., Ind., in the 60's sometime. Their second child was my father George, born Bourbon Co., Ky., 1850. He married in Indiana and had three boys and 1 girl, later divorced his wife and married my mother there in 1896. He was a RR man and was killed in Ladoga, Ind., Aug. 1899. I was born in Jamestown, Ind., 12-12-1897, my brother Paul July 1899 and who was just a few weeks old when father was killed. We came here in 1915 with our mother to live, we each married Tama girls, and we each also have two grown daughters, all married but one. He has 2 grand children and I have one. I worked for the CNW RR here for nearly 30 yrs., resigned 1945 to work for a creosoting company. In 1918 I returned to Indiana for a visit and worked several months in Terre Haute for the Express Company, and also for a Wadley Produce Co., My brother lives in Spirit Lake, Ia., and has worked for a Power Co., for many years. Our mother passed away her in 1947 and is buried here. Our father is buried in Jamestown, Ind. Lucinda Barber or Barbee is buried in Lebanon, Ind., and as I am at the office I cannot give you the exact date of her death, but she apparently came from Ky. to Ind., with some of her children. Her husband Nathaniel died about 1843 and is buried in Ky. R.J. Bramblett

House of Representatives
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Mrs. Harden:

This is in reply to your letter of May 6, 1953, for information relating to William Riley Barbee, Civil War pensioner, and certain veterans of the War of 1812 in behalf of Miss Rula E. Barbee, Rural Route 2, Terre Haute, Indiana.

Among the pension recordds in the National Archives is a file, cited as above, relating to the claim based on the Civil War service of William "R." Barbee. A summary of the pertinent data in the file is enclosed for transmittal to Miss Barbee. The Indiana Pension Agency roll book, which is also in the National Archives, shows that the veteran died on January 13, 1891.

No War of 1812 pension or bounty-land files have been found for Lameth Barbee, William Alexander Gunn, Joseph Joslin, George Singhorse, Elisha Heady, and Seth Wigginton. No War of 1812 pension files have been identified for Samuel McWhorter Young and William Singhorse in whom Miss Barbee is interested. There are, however, files relating to claims for bounty land based on the service of Samuel "M." Young (BL Wt. 11 574-120-55) and of William Singhorse (BL Wt. 24 009-120-55) in the War of 1812.

I regret very much that information relating to Samuel M. Young and William Singhorse cannot be furnished at this time. The Natinal Archives receives so many requests for information from pension-land-warran application files that it is unable to comply with all of them; and, in order to distribute fairly the service that can be given, it has been obliged to adopt a rule that no inquirer will be furnished with information about more than one veteran within a period of six months. Miss Barbee may, of course, examine the files herself at any time when she is in Washington, or she may have them examined for her by an agent. A list of persons who have expressed a willingness to make genealogical searches of records for a fee will be sent upon request.

My dear Miss Barbee:

In reply to your inquiry of October 9: the charge for searching census records is one dollar for each family in each county through the year 1840-after 1840 the charge is one dollar and fifty cents for each family in each county requested. Prior to 1850 the Christian name and state of birthplace was not given consequently the records are not as lengthy-no census available after 1880.

I should love to do your work as my ?????? family (Grant) was intermarried with the Barbee family about 1840. There is a great deal of information on the Barbee family of Culpeper County, Va.-a highly respected name.

You may not wish the Barbee line traced.

I am a former National C.A.R. Registrar; Daughters of 1812 State Registrar; Daughters of American Colonists State Registrar; Chapter Registrar D.A.R. Hoping to hear regarding your different family lines, I am, Truly yours,

Sybel M. Hellmuth

My dear Miss Barbee:

I just sent one letter to mail-then sat down to go over the material I have of Mrs. Welburne & Mrs. Telford-I wrote Mrs. Telford a long letter-Her husbands immediate family-was own brother to parents of 3 dear old ladies I have always known here-Their mothers having come from Paris, Ky., about 1824 & married Indianapolis men-one wrote a book and it was of this I wrote Mrs. Telford.

Then Mrs. Welborns letter you sent not long ago-In it she says I was mistaken as to your people having been the Barbees of N. Car.-Well I found a John Sr. and John Jr. & a Christopher living in N. Car. 1790-I did not state they belonged there-I did not even say as I still think they were passing thru. My supposition being based on the fact that-no place do your family names touch those in every generation down thru the line of the Va. name-and I feel reasonably sure now-that I made a very good guess and because of the name of his first son John Henson a name far reaching in Nor. Car. and among many families who came into Ky. When I divided my material-some months ago-rather after her letter-and thought she ought to know the Nor. Car. end of it -and I would stick to Va.-the letter of Claudia Price-went with it-almost with out my reading it-my teeth were making me groggy most of the time and the heat so awful to go to library-so I missed as it were the big come back-Today-I went back over the pushed aside material in search of C. Price letter to write her as you suggested and had the shock of my life-as she says,"our grandfathers your Lameth and mine John S. Barbee were cousins-their fathers were brother-my mother told me this-and that John S. b. 1793-4 in Va.-spent some time in one of the Carolinas-then came to Ky. where he mar. Lucy Thurman age 14-who had 14 ch.-7 lived"-

I certainly intend to write her and enclose a great big hug-for one big kind deed.

Yours,

Idele Craven

Dear Miss Barbee:

Your letter to Dad Cook came to us and I have been very slow about answering it. Dad Cook passed away a year ago last October and Aunt Anna should have known as Hazel has written to her.

I am sorry that we can't supply you with the information you ask about. Dad Cook probably could have told you a lot as he loved to tell the stories of his childhood.

I am the wife of your cousin Floyd. Dad Cook's other children that live here in Osawatomie are Hazel Kendall, Ollie Poyner and Carl & Clarence Cook. All are married. Dad had four other sons by a former marriage.

Don't you have another Aunt living in Ill. close to Mattoon? Maybe she could answer your questions.

Sincerely yours,
Dove Cook

Dear Cousin:
You can imagine my surprise when I received your letter.

It seems strange, but I never knew that I had a cousin by the name Barbee. You see my father would never talk of his folks much. The only one of his brothers that I knew was Bill, and I have not seen or heard of him for over thirty years. Could it be that you are his daughter?

I wonder if you would be so kind as to write and tell me a little about my dads folks.

I am sorry, but I have not the dates of the death of any of my folks, that is the exact date. But I have sent for them and will forward them to you as soon as I get them. I have Estell's address. He is married and living in Tacoma, Wash. 1104 So. Yakima.

Ida, that was Fred's wife has remarried and is living at,---------

Mother had remarried a Robert Hamiel in Detroit.

Please excuse me for waiting so long to answer, but I have been waiting to hear from some one first, but I thought I had better write and let you know that I had received your letter.

I surely would appreciate it if you would write me and tell me more of yourself and family. Also of my fathers people. Anxiously,

Your cousin,

Dear Cousin:

I received your letter yesterday, containing the chart. I want to thank you very much as it is something I have wanted for years.

I am sending you what information I have on hand at this time. I will send the rest as soon as I can get hold of it.

I met a man from Youngstown last summer he said he knew some Barbee's there, he may be some friend of you folks.

My father and mother left Youngstowh in 1902 and moved to Granville, N.D. We lived there untill 1911 when we moved to Estevan, Sask. Can. I was married there in 1917, and in 1922 moved back to N.D. In 1924 Dad & Mom left Sask. and went to Webb, Miss., where Dad died. Then mother moved to Detroit where Fred lived. She was married there to a Robert Hamiel and lived ther until her death.

I have moved around quite a lot. I moved back to Can. Brandon, Man. where we lived for 2 years. then moved to Ft. William, Ont. Then to Duluth, from there to Superior, Wis., and from there to Minong, where I have a barber shop. We like it here very much as it is a lovely place in the summer. At present we are living in a cottage on Lake Gilmore, six miles from Town.

We have five children, three girls and two boys. Helen the oldest is living in Baltimore, Md. as her husband is in an army camp there. He was a radio announcer in Ashland, Wis., when they were married.

Dorothy the second oldest is in Superior, working. Her husband is or was in Iran the last we heard.

Bernyce the youngest girl is working in Marshalltown, Va.So we just have the two boys home with us.

Brandon, the oldest boy will be going into the forces after July, I suppose.

I am surely glad to have gotten in touch with you as you are the only relative on dads side that I have ever heard of.

Greet your father and mother for me and tell them I would like to be able to meet you folks some day in the future. I was born in Youngstown myself.

I hope the inclosed information is what you were wanting.

Your cousin,
Clay.

Elias Barbee, S.12972

Reference is made to your request for information relative to Elias Barbee, a Revolutionary War pensioner who lived in Green County, Kentucky.

The data which follow were obtained from papers on file in the pension claim, S.12972, based on the military service of Elias Barbee.

Elias Barbee was born on June 14, 1763, in Culpeper County, Virginia. The names of his parents are not shown. His father lived in Culpeper County, Virginia during the Revolution and moved to Kentucky in 1782.

While residing in Culpeper County, Elias Barbee enlisted on March 19, 1781, and served eighteen months as private in Captain A. Kirkpatrick's company in Colonel Gaskins' Virginia regiment; he was in the siege of Yorktown and after the siege was stationed at the barracks near "Cumberland Old Court House."

Elias Barbee moved to Kentucky in December, 1782.

He was allowed pension on his application executed August 20, 1832, at which time he was living in Green County, Kentucky.

Elias Barbee had five brothers who served in the Revolution, namely: Thomas, John, Daniel, William and Joshua. His brothers, Joshua and Daniel, testified in his claim for pension in 1832 in Mercer County, Kentucky, aged seventy-two and seventy-five years respectively. There are no further data relative to the family of Elias Barbee.

Very truly yours,

A.D. Hiller
Executive Assistant to the Administrator.

MY Grandfather and yours were first cousins which would make their fathers brothers.

No doubt you will think this a very jumbled account. I might have done better if I had of had the time to have looked for more dates, but I considered they really were not a Barbee connection only by marriage.

My family is about faded out. No doubt you know Sam Liston of Pimento, my brother left a son, and I have three children, 2 sons and a daughter. If you can use any of this I will be very glad. Having spent my early childhood in the vicinity of Pimento and Youngstown I can remember seeing your grandparents and your father but I can't remember the names and which one they belong to. I see your name in the papers quite often and think of you as being a distant relative, as I have nothing only cousins any more I have to think of distant relatives being near.

I trust this will reach you in time to use it if it will be of any benefit. I am very sorry that I could not do better. Pardon me for returning your envelope as I thot it would not mail so well in a small envelope.

Sincerely yours,
Claudia Price

Miss Rula Barbee
R.D. #2
Terre Haute, Ind.

Dear Miss Barbee,

I just got home---have been gone a year on a trip that took me 14,000 miles in 38 states in an automobile alone. No one with me any time and no car or any other kind of trouble. I have just read your letter and appreciate the information that you sent me.

I spent a lot of time in nine counties in Kentucky and about that many in Virginia going through the court house records myself. First, in all the Barbees that I found I did not find the name of Lameth Barbee any place. I have the Barbee--and Bradford history about ready to have it printed or mimeographed. I will send you a copy when I do for back in the very early records you may find something that will give you a tie-in.

Yes, I have the Draper mms. I notice one common mistake they all say that Thomas Barbee, the eldest son of John left all of his estate to Joshua. He left his home and mercantile business, and ordered his slaved all emancipated at his death, but he was a very wealthy man, and his land running into thousands of acres was distributed equally among his brothers. His will---also the will of John Sr., Ezekial and Joshua are on file in Danville. I do not know what the name of Thomas's first wife was, but his second wife, Lucy and Elias (his brother) wifes were sisters---Elias's was Elizabeth Slaughter, daughters of Col. John Slaughter of Culpepper Co. Va. There is a deed on record in which Col. Slaughter gived ten slaves, for love and affection to Thomas Barbee, my son-in-law, husband of my daughter, Lucy. And Draper mms. mention that Col. Slaughter is a grandfather of Elias' son. Also Thomas left, in addition to what he left his brothers, one thousand acres of land to Elizabeth Barbee, wife of Brother Elias and Mildred Fields, wife of Benjamine Fields. Thomas wife, Lucy, Elias' Elizabeth and Mildred Fields were sisters.

I am a descendent of Elias---his son William who went to Mo. is my great grandfather. Also descendent to Andrew who married Margaret Bradford, Andrew's daughter, Elias, and Elias's son William (first cousins) married. John Bradford's son Andrew married Margaret Bradford, his daughter Rosa, married Enoch Bradford and died when their daughter Lucy was born. His other daughter, Eleander, married Fielding Bradford, Fielding and Enoch were uncles of Margaret, Andrew's wife. Margaret's family married back into the Bradford's and Barbee. I have from Stafford County the beginning of the Barbee line---the deed from George Mason, to Thomas and Mary Barbee in 1700, for love and affection, chilfren of my friend the deceaded Andrew Barbee--that is in Stafford Co. I failed to find any record of the marriage of John and Elizabeth Welch. I found where John Barbee was an administrator that closed the est. of a John Welch in Stafford---but the will book is one that was destroyed in the Civil War.

As soon as I have time I will go back through the old old records and see if I can find a Lambeth among that first Andrew's children. The old house in Virginia is not so old. I went to it, and Wm. Randolph Barbee bought it some time after the civil War. That was a "Wild Goose Chase" that I took. The John Barbee who married Sally Bradford in Culpepper is a cousin---I have that line out too.

I will write more later, and I am so grateful for what you've sent.

Beulah Lucas Crowe.

Dear Miss Barbee:

I don't know where our Barbee connection comes in but in Ky., there was intermarriage. As to N.C. line we are direct descendants of Col. Hugh Brevard. I know of no book on the Brevards except in references to these in "Piedmont Partison" by Chalmers Davidson, Davidson College, Davidson, N.C. I've done no research on the Young line-all I can do to keep up with Stevenson's!

Sincerely,

Elizabeth T. Ives.

Dear Rula:

Here is another name for your chart! Ransom Barbee m. Oct. 29, 1831-Nancy Bridwell, dau. Lewis. I have done no research of any consequence since I made the trip two years ago. Recently I tried to help a woman here on her Bridwell line and learned some about that name. She is of the line in which Jane's son Fielding married. Sometimes I think Seth's mother was a Bridwell, then his first wife then his second. Now I think it is possible they could all have been Bridwells. These marrieages and the maze of Christaina names reveal that many of them must have married cousins or compound cousins.

Our cousin, May Wood has asked me to drive to Louisville with her this month. I want to do that; but am laid up with a fractured toe, at the present and cant wear a shoe. I didn't get to visit Mrs. Mathis two years ago, so this would afford an opportunity, also to do some work at Bardstown. Would return via Indiana and Chicago. All in the dream stage yet. Hope your school year has been a good one. I know you are nearing a well-earned vacation.

Let me hear from you.

Sincerely,

Bertha

Dear Miss Barbee:
Always I am happy to hear from any one interested in Barbee history.

I have been interested for many years but really all I have gained is a kind od jig-saw puzzle with most of the pieces missing.

I am convinced they all came from Va., though now there are distinct families in Ky., and N. Carolina. John Barbee of Culpepper Co., Va., had 6 sons in the Rev. Thos. was a Capt. and received several thousand acres. He never married -left his estate to his brothers. In Ky., you can get a list of these sons in the "Sons of Amer. Rev." John of Culpepper went to Ky., during the Rev. and later his sons followed him there. He married twice. I have a list giving the names of his two wives and his 11(?) children. There were 3 early grants of land to Barbees in N.C. John, Joseph, Wm and Christopher are the predominant names. One of this line gave some land to the Univ. of N.C. at Chapel Hill-The Wm Barbee, Rev. soldier and later in War of 1812, died in Ohio was of the N.C. branch. Many families in West Tennessee belong to this branch.

About a month ago my brother-in-law, David Rankin Barbee, wrote me that Gov. Stevenson's grandmother, a Barbee went from Ky., to Illinois. He did not mention a Young connection and this was the first I knew of it. Before the Dem. Convention I read that the 3 men interested in being nominated were cousins with Ky., backgrounds. Of course they were Russell of Ga., Barkley of Ky., and Stevenson.

Now, about us, which is very little. My husband John Ford House was named for a Tenn., Congressman who made a speech in Washington that Dr. Barbee approved and they were friends-so the baby arriving at that time was given the whole name! His brother, David Rankin was named for his maternal grandfather and the others for Methodists bishops-so I get no help there!

John's father Dr. James D. Barbee was a Methodist preacher for 50 years, the last 25 spent in Nashville, Tenn., Dr. B's father was James Barbee born in Va., about 1798 or 1799. My guess would be in Stafford or Prince William Co., He ran away and fought in War of 1812-when about 15 or 16. At this time they were living in N. Alabama. About all Dr. Barbees sons remembered of what he told them was that they were Hugenots and settled on the James River at Mannakin Town, above Richmond. I do not know how many generations passed, but Dr. Barbee's grandfather was a Rev. soldier and when some of his children were grown this Rev. grandfather moved to N. Alabama in Morgan Co., near Decatur, Ala

No one in the family knows this Rev. grandfather's first name and naturally I am against a brick wall.

I do not know how many children he had but, maybe, the oldest son was Sampson Barbee. At any rate, we believe he moved his father from Va., to N. Ala., near Decatur, Morgan Co.,

I found James Barbee's marriage license in the Court House there Aug. 4th, 1825-James Barbee and Sarah Reedy. Sampson never did live in Ala. He was born-1787 in Prince Wm. Co., married Lucy Payne in Va., moved through Ohio to Indianapolis, where he died, I believe in 1873.

I leanned about Sampson (Hugenot name) from a letter his son-in-law W.A. Van Landingham, Sec. of Indianapolis Gas, Light and Coke Co., June 11th 1873 wrote for him on his birthday to Allan Terril Sisk explaining the following letter to "Sister Sealy."

A.T. Sisk was "Sister Sealy's son. Sampson had just learned that "Sister Sely" was still living. He had not seen her since 1810-his youngest sister." The date 1810 leads me to think that it was at that time Sampson moved his father to Ala., and saw his sister "Sealy" for the last time. These are the Rev. soldiers children that I am fairly sure of-there must have been girls as S. spoke of "Sealy" as his youngest sister." Sampson-Travis, John B and "Sealy." All of these lived in N. Ala., except Sampson and I imagine some were born in Ala.

Now, this is where I come into the picture and according to my theory explains the move to Alabama. Frederick Co., Va.-Thomas Barbi and Patty Brahan married Oct. 17th, 1786 by Rev. Alexander Balmain. My great grandfather, John Brahan was born in Fauquier Co., Va. He entered the U.S. A rmy rose to Captain and resigned, moved to Nashville, Tenn.-married Mary Weakley of Nashville. Then moved to Huntsville, Ala. He was Gen. in War of 1812 and was Land Commissioner in Ala.-appointed by Andrew Jackson. He owned a lot of land at "Town Creek"-had a number of his slaves there and was thinking seriously of moving there from Huntsville.

Now "Town Creek" is very near Decatur which I think is why Sampson's father settled there.

I am fairly sure that Patty Brahan was Gen. John Brahan's much older sister. Maybe the Barbees had not prospered-Mrs. B's brother Gen. Brahan, was very well off and he wanted them to come to Ala., to be near him. Their son, John B., may have been named for his uncle, John Brahan. I think this sounds sensible, but I have no real proof. My grandmother, Mrs. Mary Brahan Young lived with us in Memphis. When I was a young girl, grandma visited the Weakleys in Nashville and when she came home I remember her saying she had had a visit with a cousin, Dr. James D. Barbee, They would have been 1st cousins, once removed.

Dr. Barbee was very intimate with the large Weakley connection in Nashville. Not kin, but his great uncle had married Mary Weakley of N. David Rankin Barbee says he remembers his father, Dr. B., speaking of "Aunt Sisk"(Sealy)

I do hope you belong to our line and can tell me that Thomas was the Rev. soldier's name and was "Sealy" Celia or what?

I won't go into the Young history but if you are descended from Capt. James Young of Chambersburg, Pa., or Alexander Young, his father, or maybe brother, maybe I can help. I did research and my daughter is a member of D.A.R. on Capt. James Young's line. The Young married into James Irwin family of Mercersburg, Pa.,

After my husbands death 3 yrs. ago I moved to this small town to be near my daughter. I have an apt. across the street. I am very happy and very fortunate, but I do miss the reference library in Memphis. There is a Barbee family here in Miss-originally from S.C.-they don't know much about the family.

Am sorry I can't answer your questions about Gov. S., but feel library in Louisville Ky., could answer about such a well known man. Let me hear from you.

Sincerely,
Mary Brahan Young Barbee

Dear Miss Barbee:

I haven't heard directly from you in so long (although I heard from Mrs. Barbee in Webb Miss. about you) I thought I had better write.

My progress on the Barbee line hasn't been phenomenal since I last wrote. I did find the will of Joseph Barbee in Christian Co., Ky. He died there in 1826 naming nine of his 11 children and I have the wills of Joseph's father John Barbee and Joseph's father-in-law Thomas Trice. The most amazing thing-the gt. grand-daughter of the minister who married them sent me the original (not a copy) but the original marriage license of my gt.gt. grandfather, Major E. Barbee and his wife.

In looking up my mother's Louisiana and Florida ancestors in Baton Rouge I found an Oscar Barbee there who was born in Kentucky about 1807. This information is copied on an extra sheet. These Barbees are I think, the forbears of a group who came to Louisiana in the 1800's. One brother left and went back to Ky., I believe it was and it may be some relation to yours. I got this story from a Mr. (William I think it was) Barbee who worked for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., in New Orleans, La. He referred me to a cousin or aunt who never answered my letter. I can't find his letter right now, but will send you her name and address when I run across it. I'm going to have additional searches made in East Baton Rouge Parish, La., 1830, 1840, 1850, and 1870 and will include the name Barbee and let you know what I find.

Surely would like to hear from you on what's new with you.

Best regards,

Jim Barbee

This from Mr. W.A. Barbee-Souther Bell Telephone Co., 1215 Prytania St., New Orleans, 13, La.

"My grandfather Leslie Barbee and his cousin John F. Barbee ran away from their North Carolina home and my grandfather came to Louisiana in 1812 Sabine Parish. John F. Barbee went to Lexington Ky.----"

He further says Miss Alice Ponder of Amite, La., knows more about the Barbee family than anyone else-her mother was a Barbee.

Dear Rula:

Thank you for your letter.

I had written Bardstown Co., Clerk-also librarian. The Clerk had vound records of both Ransom and Lameth & their wives.

Am enclosing the letter from the librarian in Bardstown or one refered by them to her. You might be able to obtain these historys from your State Library.

Yes, now you've accomplished this much it would be interesting to carry on.

I'm enclosing a check to be of some assistance and a photo of our only son we lost last winter. Such a loss. His baby son resides in San Diego with its mother and grandparents.

We plan to go to Denver a month from now. Possibly will bring home a grandchild or two.

This picture was taken of our Charles a month before he became ill of Hodgskins disease. He passed away on last Christmas morning. The picture was taken in our yard-Stones behind him are for the garden wall.

Kindest wishes to you and mother.

Sincerely,
Velma.

Where could I find all the Bridwell data? Am enclosing envelope for this as school is ending I know you are busy.

Terra Haute, Ind.

Dear Miss Barbee,

I saw your name in the Hartford Times of July 17, and in working out my Kellogg genealogy I find my great grandfather Martin Marble Kellogg b. 1789 d. 1861 married Nancy Sweet. They had twelve children, one, Jennie married Albert Barbee and lived in Indianapolis, Ind.

Now I am trying to trace my Sweet line but cand find nothing about Nancy except that she died in Crown Point, Ind., no dates.

Have you in your line an Albert Barbee who married Jennie Kellogg and would you have any information about her mother?

About two years ago I saw the name Nannie Barbee in the D.A.R. magazine and wondered if she could be a grand daughter of Nancy Sweet, so I wrote her at Danville, Ky. The registrar wrote me that Nannie had been dead a few years and told me to write to her nephew, Dr. Harry Best, University of Kentucky, Lexington, Ky., as he might have her papers. I did and sent a stamped addressed envelope, but heard nothing from him.

If you have any information on this line would you let me know, and your price for it.

Sincerely,

Emma M. Miller.

Dear Miss Barbee:

I won't be able to make my planned trip to Terre Haute this week end-have my 4th cold for the winter.

Am enclosing a few more notes I have gleaned re-Barbee.

Mrs. Richards brot me the ones from the newspaper files.

I can find no reference to John's having entered land in Crawford Co., with William and Joshua, and did not find record of marriages when I got the other ones.

However, when I get able I can look again. The Lagows were early settlers in Crawford Co.-very prominent people in Palestine.

I have a friend at Martinsville who does genealogical research. Will write her to check on Barbee data. Evidently Joshua, William and John are sons of a John-whether Jr.-or Sr.

May see you some time.

Merle has the cemetery records which I will check at some future date.

Sincerely,

Harriet P. Cox.

Dear Miss Barbee,

I was so glad to hear from you, even though you didn't have an Albert Barbee for me.

I'm afraid my Nancy Sweet, like Topsy, just growed, for I have tried so many Sweets but Nancy just doesn't seem to belong anywhere.

I joined the D.A.R. on the Miller line and have had the Kellogg supplemental paper accepted, so then I began on the Sweet line but with no success.

Yes, know about the Kellogg genealogy, for just this spring I bought the three volumnes of Kelloggs in the Old World and New, from Goodspeed Book Shop of Boston. We had just gone through them and traced our Nehemiah line when a friend who joined the D.A.R. on Gad Kellogg had a very bad broken ankle and was laid up, so I sent the books to her so she could get more on her line.

When I get the books back if there is any thing I can look up for your friend I will be very glad to do it.

I have written to so many strangers and have received such nice letters in return that it makes me glad to know there are so many lovely people in the world and wish I could do something for them in return.

Hoping to hear from you again, I am,

Sincerely,

Emma M. Miller

Dear Midd Barbee,

I was just recently looking through a back issue of the Genealogical Helper and found your name listed as wanting help on genealogy. My maiden name was Barbee and I am just beginning work on my own family. It is my hope that we can exchange information and perhaps help one another.

I am a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and I'm wondering if you might be also?

I do not have complete information on my Grandparents and I'm finding it quite difficult to find much.

I grew up in Phoenix, Arizona but I was born in Dewar, Okla. in 1925. My Father is Ernest Alexander Barbee. He says that he was born in 1882 in Arkansaw. His Father was William Housten Barbee. It is believed he was from Tennessee but I have no surety of it. His Mother was Elizabeth Hausley, perhaps from Tennessee also. I have no dates for any of them. William Housten Barbee and a brother were supposed to have been in the Civil War on the North side. Again I have no proof.

I would appreciate it if you have any leads you could give me on the Barbee line. You can see I need it.

I have one bit of information that might be of interest to you. I was looking through a book in the library. It is a tradition that the Barbee's are French. In a book by Hotten-Original List of Emigrants-it said 1621-emmigrated from France to Virginia-signed his mark-Adrian Barbe, dyer; wife and four children.

Do you know when the first Barbee's came to America and just where they were from?

I just be so happy if you can help me in any way and will be glad to exchange anything I may be able to find.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Dorothy Barbee Taylor.

Dear Miss Barbee:

A few weeks ago while working in the Genealogical Section of the Emaline Fairbanks Library in Terre Haute I noted your name and address, and the fact that you had contributed Bible records, dated 1851. Also I noted that you listed a marriage of

Elizabeth Jane McGahan
James Alexander Barbee — Married January 4, 1872

Since I am working on the family of Dr. Valentine McGahan and his wife, who was Tacy Ann Berkley, I am interested in your McGahan records, and am wondering if you would be kind enough to tell me if your Eliz. Jane McGahan was the daughter of Elizabeth Walker and Alexander McGahan, or of James McGahan and Sarah Elizabeth Cutwrite. I have the names of the children of both of those McGahan families. Then Dr. Valentine and Tacy Ann McGahan had a daughter named Erissa Jane.

I also know that Claude McGahan, Junior, had children by his second wife, who was Eva_____, and that he lived in Indiana somewhere, but that is all I know about that family.

I should appreciate hearing from you, and especially want to know if you have any information that would shed some light on Dr. Valentine McGahan. I have been told he was born in Champaign, Illinois, but have no proof, and neither can I find the date or place of his death. I do know that he was living in 1870 but that is all.

Any help or suggestions you can give me will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Eleanor Franklin

Dear Cousin:

In looking over my genealogical material I came across several of your letters. Since it was you who supplied my biggest break through, I am most grateful for your assistance.

I have done very little work on the Barbee genealogy but have picked up a few scraps of information. This past summer I was able to spend a couple of hours in research in Washington but found very little. Only a clue that my Great Great Grandfather, Major E. Barbee, had received or was eligible to receive a land bounty as a result of his service during the War of 1812. Unfortunately, I have not been able to follow up on this so far. In 1956 my family and I spent six months in Paris and were able to secure a great deal of information on my grandmother's French ancestry. This, however, has not been completely worked up and I work at it occasionally.

I am curious as to what you have found about your Lameth Barbee. It seems to me that the children of William and Elizabeth Barbee and William and Mary Gray Barbee in the late 1600's and early 1700's and John and Ann Miller Barbee must have gone from Middlesex and Essex Counties to Stafford and Fauquier Counties in Virginia and Orange County in North Carolina. I hope that you have been able to secure additional information on these individuals.

If you have the time to bring me up to date, I would certainly appreciate it.

Sincerely,

J. E. Barbee

Hello again:

Thank you very much for your kind reply to my correspondence. I do not know too much to give you about the particular Barbee family lineage I am tracing but maybe you can piece what little I do have into something. Let's hope so anyhow.

The information given me is as follows:

Mary Leona Barbee; born September 7, 1897 at DeLeon, Texas.
Married Alvie Octavia Palmer on May 21, 1916.
She died May 15, 1939 at Los Angeles, California.

This is the extent of the information that I have at this time on this woman so any little bit you might be able to furnish would be of immense value.

If I can be of any service at all to you here on the west coast with the Los Angeles Public Library at my disposal, please let me know at any time.

Thanking you in advance, I remain

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Friend:

I hope that I have found a lnk to the proper family but if not it will surely be a pleasure to make your acquaintance.

I have found your name in an old copy of the "Genealogical Helper" that I was perusing in the Pomona Public Library near here, and found that there was a name I recognized;"Barbee".

I am doing a research problem for one of my neighbors and part of the family names hinge around the BARBEE family. In fact the was the maiden name of her mother. If you can be of help in this matter, I would appreciate hearing from you as soon as it is convenient for you.

Thanking you in advance for your help in this matter, I remain

Dear Miss Barbee,

For some time I have been working on all of my husband's family lines, one of which is Barbee and I'm hoping you can help me some with the members of this family who came from Shelby County, Kentucky to Indiana around 1815. I'll enclose a chart to make more clear what the line of descent is.

I received your name and address from from Mrs. H. L. Benson of Columbia, Missouri who obtained it some time ago from a Mrs. Danner who lives near Terre Haute in a letter written December 19, 1969. Mrs. Danner was working on her husband's Bryan line and Mrs. Benson also has a Bryan family line, hence their correspondence.

Mrs. Benson says in her notes that John Barbee Jr., son of John who came from Culpepper County, Virginia to Mercer County, Ky., and who married Martha Gaines of Danville and settled in Shelby County, Ky., went to Terre Haute around 1815. I have found no proof of him in Terre Haute and do not know all of his children. His daughter Elizabeth m. in Shelby Co., Ky. to Nathan Marrs, son of John Marrs in 1815. This couple moved to Crawford County, Illinois aroun 1818 along with Thomas Young who had married Lucy Barbee and William Barbee, brother to Lucy & Elizabeth. Between 1830 and 1840 Nathan and Elizabeth moved to Terre Haute, Ind. where they are found in the 1840 census. He died there in 1847 and she in 1851 and are buried in Woodlawn Cemetery in northwest Terre Haute. They are my husband's great great grandparents. Frances Barbee who married in Shelby Co. Ky. Nov. 23, 1819 to John Wright is a sister to Elizabeth & Lucy Barbee I believe. Mrs. Benson thinks a son John was mayor of Louisville around 1855. Do you have any knowledge of him? A Joshua Barbee who is found in Crawford County in the 1820 census could also be a brother of these women. I have found no will or estate papers for John Barbee and wife Martha Gaines.

I did find the appointment as administrator for the estate of John S. Barbee one Nicholas Larkin on Sept. 20, 1856. No wife is named and no children are named, so I couldn't identify this man.

In the 1850 census of Vigo County, Linton twp, p. 550 there is this:

John L. Barbee	age 60	Farmer	born in Virginia
Lucy M.	"	47		Kentucky
Martha J.	"	17		"
Rachell Ann	"	12		"
Margaret	"	7		"
Josophema	"	4		"
Mary	"	1		"

The above does not seem to be the John who had wife Martha Gaines. Can you identify him?

From records of cemeteries on file in Indianapolis I obtained the data on the headstones of Nathan Marrs and wife Elizabeth Barbee, but I would still like to visit the Woodlawn CEmetery and obtain pictures of their headstones. I had hoped to come to Terre Haute during the past summer to do this and some more searching. Now I'm hoping I can do this before winter sets in and travel is more difficult.

I do hope you are interested in working on the Barbee family and hopefully, that you have considerable knowledge of the family of John Barbee who had wife Martha Gaines. I will very much appreciate hearing from you. I have corresponded with Herbert Barbee of Rocky Ford, Colorado and have obtained as many wills, etc. as possible and have the line pretty well worked out back to Andrew Barbee of Stafford County, Virginia before 1700, and will be happy to exchange any information I may have that you do not have. Please let me hear from you.

Miss Rula Barbee,

I received the xerox copies of the estate papers of John Barbee and also those of his wife Martha Barbee, in the mail today and hasten to report on them.

Administration was granted to take inventory, etc. to William Barbee and John Wright (son-in-law) on 3 July 1826 in estate of John Barbee deceased.

Report continued and continuance granted to June 18, 1827.

Same and continuance granted to Sept.3, 1827.

Final report made on Nov. 21, 1827.
Widow to recieive one third of estate.

On Nov. 22, 1827 administration was granted to William Barbee & John Wright in the estate of Martha Barbee deceased. Heirs are named as follows:

1 To David Lyle in right of his wife Nancy

2 To James Barbee

3 To Joshua Barbee

4 To Nathan Mars in right of his wife Elizabeth

5 To Thomas Young in right of his wife Lucy

6 To William Barbee

7 To John Hill in right of his wife Sarah

8 To John Wright in right of his wife Francis

9 To John Barbee

all received $210.28 3/4
Later corrected to be $221.53

These were certainly all the children who were living at the time of the death of John & Martha. Polly who died in 1803 & Thomas who died in 1810 may belong in this family since they are in the Bible record, but Strother and Elias are unproven. I have the marriages of all of the above but John Hill & Sarah Barbee. I believe Frances is correct spelling for a girls name but the estate papers spell it clearly Francis.
The Bible record of death of John on June 25, 1826 is probably correct since ad. of estate followed on July 3, 1826. However, I am puzzled over the winding up of the ad. of his estate on Nov. 21, 1827 and the granting of ad. on Martha's estate on Nov.22, 1827. Did she die in the night between those two dates???
I'm wondering if you have or rather own a Crawford Co. Hist. and if so, if in it, there is any mention of the Thomas Young family, the John Wright family or the John Hill family. Nathan Marrs left Crawford Co. for Vigo after 1830. Would you assume that the above list of heirs is in chronological order? (over)

Today was a big day for me genealogically for I got these Barbee estate papers and also a letter from a woman in Caldwell, Texas in reply to a query of mine in the DAR Magazine concerning my Moore line, so I'm "on top of the world tonight"!

Just thought I'd pass this information on to you right away for by the first of the week I hope to begin final notes on one of my lines-a Pennsylvania German Spoon (Spohn) line, my grandmother Ryno being Sarah Spoon.

Sincerely,

Lois

Dear Rula:

Another year and I am in good health as I hope you are. I, too am in my home.

Dorothy Barbee Sophia Clay's second daughter age 62 died in October from cancer. She lived in Alaska but came back to Minneapolis for treatment. She had surgery in Anchorage in April when they discovered she was filled with cancer. All the family came & funeral was at Minong, Wis. where her folks are buried. She had 2 boys & a girl. Helen Barbee May-the oldest girl calls me & I usually hear from the boys, too. I always enjoy hearing from you.

Sincerely

Karen

Dear Rula,

I'm wondering if you received my last letter where I asked you if you would see about mother's birth certificate & marriage license. Did you receive the letter & if so what did you find out?

I also have a little more information for the family tree. My brother Fredrick Richard Barbee born Aug. 8, 1935 in Superior, Wis. (Douglas county) got married this Dec. 7, 1956 in Mpls., Minn. ro Carol Durand of Spooner, Wis. I do't know her exact birth date-will send it later. I have a little about Estelle Barbee's wife Karen also. Karen Ottison, daughter of Otto K. and Clara (Torgerson) Ottison. Born at Crosby N.D. Estesse & Karen were married in Mpls. Minn. on June 10, 1929. Hope you receifed the o other letter as I had other information for you.

We have quite a bit of snow here and it's supposed to be really cold tonite. My children have colds & I feel like I'm coning down with one also.

Excuse this scribbling, please. Hope to hear from you soon.

Dorothy Soffia

Dear Rula,

Christmas again it seems time just flies and we hope you and your Mother are both well and happy.

Estell, I would say is holding his own healthwise. He's been hospitalized forty-nine days in '63, however he has not been in the hospital since August, which is better.

My work keeps me busy. Being a housekeeper, nurse and tax examiner doesn't leave mugh time. You too know how it is teaching is a time consumer, I know. My sister ia a kindergarten teacher and it s seems teachers jobs are heavier each year, she says.

Estell & I would love to have you come and see us. Our best to you both.

Love,

Karen & Estell

Dear Mrs. Barbee:

My aunt Ivah said it might be possible to get some information from you about the Barbee name and family.

I know this is somewhat of a surprise to here from someone you don't know but I think we're related somehow. My grandmother's name was Maude, and her husband was Vernia Barbee-They ahd three children Ivah, Ross, and Robert. My father is Robert.

Aunt Ivah (Brown ha daughter Mabel and I believe you know her. Any information you have will be greatly appreciated.

I have a few names that may help although I don't know if they're related at all. First I'd better tell you how I got them and maybe you'll be interested. There is a lady in Bath Ohio that looks up Coat of Arms for family names. She wrote a letter saying they had found a Coat of Arms for the Barbee name. It may be found in the Rielstop Armorial General. The blazon that describes it is "D" or a une t tete de bave de sa." The names that go along with the shield are of different spellings but beleived to be related. Eilliam Randolph Barbee 1818-1868, lawyer, sculpture and worked with Hart and Powers in Italy. Waltman Barbe, English professor & author 1864-1925. William Barbee 1816-1892 Doctor in Cincinnati, Ohil, taught school in Kentucky, Tennessee & Missouri. Ester Barbe (d. 1525) Queen of Poland. Anthoney Barbe (d 1564) Distinguished Flemish Composer.

If you'd like to have a copy of the Coat of Arms contact Mrs. Nancy Holbert, 3687 Ira Road, Bath Ohio 44210. They cost $2.00 for the first copy and $1.00 for each additional. They are really not that good as the Coat of Arms isn't in color but it does have some interesting material and what I'd like to do is find out if we are related to the people that originated it.

If you do have any information please send it.

Dear Rula:
Hope this finds you well and enjoying each day as it comes. I have had a good year. Went to Hawaii in April, visit the four big islands. My mother & I went to North Dakota in June. In Sept. Dorothy Barbee Spphia was here to see me on her way to Alaske. I enjoyed her visit. Her mother Hazel, is in a nursint home near Minneapolis. Helen and the boys are fine. No one seems to know where Fred's daughter Joyce is. I, too think when the time comes I'll go into a retirement home. I wish you all good things in 1976. Ahappy New Year.

Karen Barbee

Dear Rula:
Hope this finds you in reasonable good health. Guess that'S what we danche thankful for.

Each year we lose a few of our friends. This year Hazel Barbee passed away on 1-29-77. She was 81 years so she had a long life. Her daughter Dorothy visited me on her way to Alaska. The children all went to Minong for the funeral.

I plan to spend Christmas with my nephew and family at Kemp, Texas. They will meet my plane at Dallas.

Best wishes for 1977,

Dear Ms. Barbee:

Thanks for your letter, the information you provided on the Barbee family, and your offer for assistance.

I have been corresponding with Mrs. Lois Finfgeld over a period of years and she has provided me with information that has helped me locate the ancestors of my great-grandmother, Sarah Elizabeth(Ma rrs) Dean including the Marrs, Barbees and Gaines. I have also used information published by Howard Jones who is also a descendant of John and Elizabeth Marrs.

Mrs Finfgelds husband ,Clifford, Howard Jones; and I have the common ancestors, ie., Samuel and Ausanah Shields.

My problems are that: 1. the names of the children of John and Elizabeth Marrs have been identified and published at various times without naming my great-grandmother Sarah Elizabeth (Marrs) Dean, and 2. I have been unable to find a will that names the children of J John and Elizabeth Marrs, which results in my not having definate proof of the relationship.

I am enclosing a draft of a document intended to identify Sarah Elizabeth (Marrs) Dean as the daughter of John and Elixabeth Marrs. I took this draft to the head of the genealogical department of the DAR and he thought it would pass. I also sent it ti Mrs. Finfgeld for her comments and a approval a few days ago but have not yet heard from her. The document will explain my problem.

I am aldo trying to locate the parents of my great-grandfather Aarnet A. Dean.

I have checked all the material I have have not found any reference to Lameth Barbee.

Sincerely, Lloyd A. Woodward.

This is an abstract of the Will of Thomas "BARBER". You will see by the photostat from the Virginia S tate Library that this abstract is not altogether reliable. The name of the brother Elias is omitted from the list of brothers although it does appear in naming "Elizabeth, wife of my brother Elias". The fact that Elias is listed with the other brothers indicates that he was living when this will was written.

CHAPTER XXIX

Distinguished Sons and Daughters

Certain sketches have been omitted from this chapter because the subjects thereof are presented by Mr. Dunlap in Chapter XXX. As it is, some duplication will doubtless be found; but inasmuch as the several sketches composing this chapter and Chapter XXX were prepared independently, and in each lot are important items not given in the other, both are presented without change.

William R. Barbee

It may be a matter of surprise to some, it will be a source of gratification to all, to know that Shenandoah County and Page (which was a part of Shenandoah until the year 1831) have produced two distinguished sculptors, father and son, whose biographies are to be found in the National Cyclopaedia of American Biography and other standard works. William R. Barbee and Herbert Barbee have adorned their profession of fine art and the land of their nativity.

William Randolph Barbee was born at "Barbee Bower," twelve miles east of Luray, January 17, 1818, the son of Andrew Russell and Nancy Britton Barbee. His general education was completed at Richmond College and his professional studies began in the law offices of Barbee & Cunningham, Moorefield, W. Va. In 1843 he was admitted to the bar, and from 1845 to 1857 he practiced law in Luray, taking a high rank among the lawyers of the state. But his life's dream was to make sculpture his vocation. For this he had shown a talent in boyhood, carving figures on the trees and on the rocks along his path to school. While practicing law he amused himself and delighted his friends by making small articles for them, all of which showed unmistakably his artistic skill. Finally, in 1858, his own inclinations bolstered up by the urgency of his friends, he cut loose from the shores of America and followed his dream to Italy. With him went his wife and two children, one of whom was to catch the same vision of beauty in bronze and marble.

At Florence Mr. Barbee took a studio near those of Powers and Hart, other American sculptors, and began a period of hard study. He produced a number of works in marble, among them the life-size statues, "The Coquette" and the "Fisher Girl," which have been highly praised by competent critics. "The Coquette" was purchased by John G. Meem for $7,500, and for many years was to be seen at Mt. Airy, the beautiful Meem home near Mt. Jackson. Later it was taken to the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago and there sold, finally landing in a conspicuous niche in the Hotel Waldorf-Astoria, New York City, where it may be seen today. The original "Fisher Girl" was bought by A. T. Stewart of New York for $10,000, and is now in possession of the Hilton family. A replica is in the art gallery of the Maryland theatre in Baltimore.

Mr. Barbee returned to the United States in 1861, and was given a studio in the Capitol at Washington free of charge as an inducement to bring him to that city, and was commissioned by the government to complete the frieze on the west wing, but the war interrupted the work and he was never able to resume it. Among his other life-size pieces were "The Star of the West" and "The Lost Pleiad." These were modeled in clay and were later produced in marble by his son, Herbert. The war was a time of disaster to Barbee as well as to many others. Four of his homes were destroyed by fire in as many years, his health broke down, and he was unable to finish many pieces that he eagerly began. Models in clay were left of "Welcome," "The Young American," "Boyhood," "Gratitude," "Psyche," "The Pride of Page," and several others.

On November 25, 1847, he married Mary J. McKay, of Luray. His four children were Herbert, Clifford, Nancy Britton (Mrs. Albert Waterbury Lane of New York City), and Katie Lazelia (Mrs. James H. Jones of Rockville, Md.). He died at Barbee Bower on June 16, 1868.

Herbert Barbee

Herbert Barbee, the son of William Randolph Barbee, inherited his father's genius and succeeded to his tasks. He was born in Luray, October 8, 1848. From his father, whom he accompanied to Italy in 1858, he learned the rudiments of the sculptor's art. After a few years devoted to business, which was not congenial to his nature, he opened a studio in New York City in 1874 where, shortly thereafter, he was commissioned to make a copy of his father's "The Fisher Girl." In 1878 he went again to Italy, where he remained a year or two and where he made two copies in marble of "The Fisher Girl" and two busts of the same, also a statue of his own, "Happy Visions," and a number of bas-reliefs. While at Florence he also executed an heroic marble bust of his father. After his return from Italy in 1879 he resumed his work in New York City, but later moved his studio to Baltimore. At subsequent periods he was located in St. Louis, Cincinnati, Washington City, and Luray; but for a number of years past he has worked under the evergreens and the mountain shadows of his own rural abode, hard by the Lee Highway, in the little village of Hamburg, near Luray. Not even the skies of Italy can be fairer than the skies of Shenandoah, and no peaks of the Etruscan Apennines can be more beautiful than those of the Blue Ridge and the Massanutten.

"The Gilded Bait" and "Boyhood" were produced in New York City. "The Lost Pleiad" and "The Star of the West" were made from his father's models. The latter piece—a masterpiece—was awarded first premium at the Louisville Exposition in 1883. Among the numerous bas-reliefs that have been produced at different times, "Meditation," "Silent Prayer," "A Midsummer Night's Dream," and "Charlotte Corday" have won special recognition. His excellent busts of Washington, Stonewall Jackson, and Robert E. Lee are familiar and much admired. "The Genius of the Confederacy" and "The Nymph of the Blue Ridge" are real works of art. His great monument, to the memory of all Confederate soldiers, unveiled at Luray on July 21, 1898, is not only a triumph of skill but also of fidelity and devotion. One of Mr. Barbee's finest pieces of work, and one of the more recent, is his bronze bas-relief of John S. Mosby, which adorns a massive shaft at Warrenton.

Among the teachers of his boyhood and young manhood that Mr. Barbee remembers with gratitude are Miss Mary J. Davis, Rev. A. Poe Boude, and Professor Joseph Salyards. He married, on February 20, 1895, Miss Blanche E. Stover, of Luray, daughter of John W. Stover. They have four children: Herbert Randolph, Aurelia Loreta, Mary Frances, and William Clifford.

On the occasion of the unveiling of the Barbee Confederate monument at Luray in 1898, Mr. Ambrose L. Henkel, then senior editor of the Shenandoah Valley at New Market, prepared for his paper a most excellent account of the proceedings, and in it he paid a fitting and well deserved tribute to the sculptor. This is herewith reproduced:

"The poet is born—not made; so too the sculptor. 'A talented son of a talented sire' is Herbert Barbee, whose father, reared amidst mountain fastnesses, made stone to speak as life and diffuse grace and beauty divine. So too the son has caused inanimate marble to be conscious of its master, and become animate nature."

THE BOWMAN BROTHERS

One of Jost Hite's sons-in-law was George Bowman, who settled on Cedar Creek, not far north of Strasburg. Bowman had married Hite's oldest daughter, Mary. They had thirteen sons and daughters, and at least four of their sons became distinguished. These were John Jacob, the second child of his parents, born December 2, 1733; Abraham, tenth child, born October 16, 1742; Joseph, eleventh child, born in 1752; and Isaac, one of the youngest of the family.

John Jacob Bowman was killed in battle at Remson's Mill, June 20, 1780. He is prominently identified with the early history of Kentucky and Ohio. Possibly he was with General George Rogers Clark in the conquest of the Illinois country in 1778-79. He took a leading part in the Indian wars, held the rank of captain, perhaps that of colonel. He was the first county lieutenant of Kentucky when the latter was organized as a Virginia county in 1776. His wife was Grizel Greenlee. (See note at end of sketch.)

Abraham Bowman was prominent in both civil and military affairs, first in his native county of Shenandoah, later in wider fields. As a young man, according to Kercheval, he gave evidence of his courage and efficiency when George Miller killed by Indians in his neighborhood in time he was older than seventeen, as Kerch is some mistake in the dates. At any rate, in was made a brigadier general, Bowman was

Major Joseph Bowman was second in command to Clark conquest of the Northwest in 1778 and 1779, in many respects
most important and memorable achievement of the war for independence. Much of the information which we have today concerning that wonderful campaign is due to Major Bowman, whose diary is preserved. He gave his life for his country, dying of wounds at or near Vincennes in August, 1779. To join this campaign he had enlisted a company in Shenandoah and Frederick, where many of the family names of his men are still familiar. He and Colonel Clark were both young men of about twenty-seven when they carried through this splendid but terribly difficult enterprise. History is just now beginning to do them and their men a tardy justice. Their experiences and triumphs have been made the theme and subject matter of two of our finest historical novels: "The Crossing," by Winston Churchill, and "Alice of Old Vincennes," by Maurice Thompson.

Isaac Bowman was also with Clark in the Illinois campaign. At that time he was only twenty-two, and was a lieutenant in his brother Joseph's company. In November, 1779, just following the campaign, he was captured by Indians. After many interesting experiences and severe trials he escaped and finally reached his old home in Shenandoah. His son Philip, who married Isabelle Richardson, moved to Indiana, where their descendants are numerous.

Note—The foregoing account, though following sources supposed to be reliable, is probably erroneous in respect to "John Jacob Bowman." It seems more likely that John and Jacob were two men, first and second son of George Bowman, as stated in Chapter XXXIII and elsewhere.

ISAAC BOWMAN

A brother to Major Joseph, Colonel Abraham, and Colonel John Bowman, Lieutenant Isaac Bowman was a son of pioneer George Bowman and his wife, Mary Hite. He was five years younger than Joseph, 8 or 10 years younger than Abraham, and was born April 24, 1757, at the old homestead on Cedar Creek, two and a half miles below Strasburg. The old stone house that George Bowman erected about 1751 is still firm and habitable. It faces the creek and the sunrise. In this old house Isaac Bowman was born, in all probability; and it may have been the birthplace of Major Joseph Bowman also. Twenty-one years old in 1778, Isaac Bowman was a first

IDENTIFICATION OF SARAH ELIZABETH MARRS

Sarah Elizabeth Marrs was born in Illinois in 1828; married Barnet A. Dean in Vigo County, Indiana in 1848; was the mother of seven children, two of whom died in their infancy during her residence in Indiana and Illinois; she moved from Indiana to Illinois with her husband and her children about 1856; and she died and was buried in Webster County, Nebraska in 1906. These and other facts are substantiated by records she kept in her bible, that were found in the U.S. census records, the Vigo County, Indiana records, the record that was chiseled on her gravestone, and family records.

Sarah Elizabeth (Marrs) Dean is identified as the daughter of Nathan and Elizabeth (Barbee) Marrs, who were married in Shelby County, Kentucky 16 Nov. 1815, moved to Crawford County, Illinois in 1818, and then to Vigo County, Indiana about 1835, by the following:

1. The date of Sarah's birth fits into the ages and timing of the other children of the Nathan Marrs family. Sarah can be identified by age and sex as the youngest of four daughters of Nathan and Elizabeth Marrs in the U.S. census records of Crawford County, Illinois in 1830, and for Vigo County, Indiana in 1840, when she would have been 2 and 12 years old respectively. There were two younger brothers. The four daughters were Martha 1817-1908, Nancy 1821-1860, Francis 1827-1875, and Sarah 1828-1906.

2. Illinois is shown as the birthplace for Sarah in the 1850 and 1860 census records. Records show that the Nathan Marrs family was residing in Crawford County, Illinois in 1828 at the time of Sarah's birth.

3. It appears that Sarah and her husband Barnet Dean were married in Terre Haute, Ind. which was not far from the home of her parents in Sugar Creek Township. Nathan and Elizabeth Marrs were buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, the oldest Terre Haute city cemetery.

4. The 1950 census shows Sarah living on a farm with her husband Barnet Dean and her six month old son at a location not far from the home of her mother and her youngest brother Andrew. Her father had died in 1847.

5. Following the death of Sarah's mother, which occurred 6 April 1851, Sarah and her husband moved with their children from Indiana to Illinois where her sisters (Nathan Marrs' daughters) were living.

6. Sarah Elizabeth Marrs was given her middle name from her mother, Elizabeth (Barbee) Marrs. The name Elizabeth was given to one of Sarah's daughters and is found in the names of her Barbee ancestors.

7. The three oldest of the four daughters of Nathan and Elizabeth Marrs were located and identified by (1) Calvin E. Sutherd in his Supplement to a Compilation of the Gaines Family Data...1969; and (2) by Howard L. Jones in his Genealogy of Nathan Marrs 1790-1847...1972, which was included as a section in the Family Bible Records Volume V, collected by the Vigo County Historical Society, (Indiana) 1975. However, Mrs. Lois Finfgeld--the wife of Clifford Finfgeld, who with Howard L. Jones were both direct descendants of Nathan and Elizabeth Marrs--had arranged with Howard L. Jones to include a note on page 12 of his publications, Genealogy of Samuel Shields 1968, reporting that she had considerable information about their descendants and was trying to obtain more data about the Shields and the Marrs families. This was done in part as a result of her long search for the fourth daughter (Sarah Elizabeth Marrs) of Nathan and Elizabeth Marrs.

 A search of the Vigo County, Indiana records by genealogist, Mrs. Robert I. Clark revealed that Sarah Elizabeth Marrs had married Barnet A. Dean in Vigo County 31 Dec. 1848. This information was reported in Mrs. Clark's letter of 26 Aug. 1974. When this information was reported to Mrs. Lois Finfgeld, she concluded that Sarah Elizabeth Marrs was the missing daughter of Nathan and Elizabeth Marrs on the basis of her research and knowledge of the Marrs family.

8. Mrs. Robert I. Clark, genealogist, reports in her letter dated 12 July 1979 that, although the Vigo County index showed "Nathan Marrs estate settlement", the actual records were not found. Mrs. Clark also reported during a telephone conversation that some loss of records had resulted from a policy that permitted individual searchers to use the record files.

Comment: In the office of the Registrar General, N.S.D.A.R. there are a number of members who trace their lineage to this William Barbee whose wife was Mary Smith. Some of these members are deceased or resigned and I have seen their applications. These applications say that this William Barbee was born in Mecklenburg Co., Va. 9-19-1759 and died 9-21-1813 in Troy, Ohio. One of these applications says that he died of wounds received in the War of 1812. Troy, Ohio is in Miami Co., Ohio.

"Barbe', Adrien Barbe' was witness at the baptism of Adrien, son of Jean Barbe', Sept. 14, 1625."

Of course you know that the French name "Jean" is equivalent to the English John.

1625 is a long jump from the War of 1812., but it is worth knowing that some members of the BARBE' family stopped long enough in Holland to have a baby baptised.

William Gaines, son of Richard and Dorothy Gaines was born in Middlesex County, Va., March 3, 1737/8. Register of Christ Church, Middlesex County, page 146. He was buried in a private cemetery about 5 miles from Danville, Ky., and grave stones were legible in 1952, as follows:

In Memory of William Gaines
Who was b. Mar. 3, 1738, d. Mar. 7, 1827.

In Memory of Ann Gaines
b. in 1745, d. Nov. 1820

William Gaines married, according to tradition, Ann Strother, and the tradition appears authentic. They are said to have removed to Ky., from Culpeper County, Va.

The will of Wm Gaines is of record in Mercer Co., Ky., Bk. 9, p. 33, It is dated Jan. 3, 1821, and was proved in April Court, Mercer Co., Ky. 1827. The will names the following children: (1) Patty Barbee; (2) Ezekiel F. Gaines; (3) Mary; (4) Lucy; (5) Dolly; (6) Betsy; (7) Kitty; (8) Susannah; (9) Sally; also grand-daughter Nancy Gaan(Garr)?

Following the name of Patty Barbee in the will, as copied by Mr. Jackson D. Guerrant, is the phrase"and her two sons, Gabriel and Strother Gaines." This last should doubtless read "my two sons."

Not mentioned in this copy of the will is a supposed daughter "Frances", called Fanny, who married August 2, 1792, William Threlkeld.

Issue of William and Ann (Strother) Gaines:

1. Martha Gaines, b. 1762; m. Lincoln County, Ky., Jan. 21, 1782, John Barbee, who was b. in Pr. Wm.(now Faquier)County, Va., May 5, 1755; d. 1826; son of John and Elizabeth (Welch) Barbee. John and Martha (Gaines) Barbee lived near Harrodsburg, Ky., which is a Mercer County, and later in Shelby County, Ky., whence they removed in 1815 to Terre Haute, Vigo County, Ind. It has been suggested that Alameth Barbee(1785-1840), of Shelby County, Ky., and Vigo Co., Ind. was one of their children.

For Revolutionary services see D.A.R. record of Lucy Brown Flint and S.A.R. record of Worthington S. Telford. His military record should be in Va. State Library where a certified copy is on file.

John Barbee moved from his farm in Mercer Co., which was called "Stony Point", now called Boyl Co., and was given a large tract of land on the Lexington Pike for his serviced in the Revoluton. "Letter Miss Nannie Barbee, May, 24, 1926:

John Barbee may have had a brother George or Andrew or both. Possibly Thomas also.

Randolph of Cincinnati and Mrs. Frank Allen of Ann Arbor.

Bible records, in the writing of Charles Linnea Telford, state: Mary Tullis was born in Culpepper Co., Va., Sept. 16, 1760, nee' Mary Smith, wife of William Barbee, and died Sept. 7, 1845, the widow of Aaron Tullis.

Mrs. Anna D. Fish who married grandson of Nancy Ann (Telford) Fish, and who lives in Minneapolis, Minn., writes that Louis Burgess of Richmond Va., who either compiled or published "Virginia Soldiers of 1776" says in this work that William Barbee Sr. was with Washington when he crossed the Delaware River.

There is on record at the Court House in Lexington, Fayette Co., Ky., in the oldest record book, the sale of the home by William and Mary Barbee on Oct. 8, 1804, prior to their departure for Kentucky. The deed was delivered to the owner Mar. 14, 1809.

Nannie Barbee says her nephew, Joshua Barbee of Kansas City, Mo., has the old bible of John Barbee Sr., and the dates of all his children are copied from it. That her father was in the banking business with William Barbee Jr., and that the portrait of Joshua Barbee was secured for her by Nancy Telford Fish.

The Draper Letters state that Joshua Barbee pursued a mercantile life in company with his brother Thomas until death of Thomas who left him all his stocks in trade.

6. Elias Barbee born June 14, 1763 married in Virginia a Miss Slaughter and had several children among them:

(1) John born 1793, was living in Campbellsville, Green Co., Ky., in 1846. In the Draper Letters, he says that Elias settled in Green Co., Ky., in spring of 1792 and died there Oct. 6, 1843. That he was for a long time a Judge of the Circuit Court. John had a son, Elias L. old enough to go to Mexico in 1846.

(2) William went to Missouri.

(3) Lucy a deaf mute, because of her affliction her father used his influence to establish the Deaf and Dumb Institution of Kentucky.

Nannie Barbee, daughter of Col. Thomas, writes that the old Barbee home in Culpepper Co., built some time in the 1600's is still standing. That William Randolph Barbee, sculptor, born at Barbee homestead near Luray, Va., Jan. 17, 1818 was the son of Andrew and Nancy (Britton) Barbee and his line was: 1. Thomas Barbee, died in 1752. 2. Capt. Thomas Jr. who fought in the Revolution in 1777; 3. Andrew who with his wife settled in Va. in 1764; 4. Joseph married Ann Withers; 5. Andrew married Nancy Britton. This was copied from the National Cyclopedia of American Biography published by James T. White & Co., N.Y. This was sent Miss Nannie Barbee by Wm Randolph Barbee's niece a Mrs. James of Maryland, who believes she was descended from a brother of John Barbee.

Mrs. Randolph of Cincinnati, copied the following from a book in the Cincinnati Library--"Notes on Culpepper Co." Dr. Slaughter, St. Marks Parish, p. 48.

There is a most interesting volume entitled: Les Combatants Francais de la Guerre Americaine, 1778-1783.
This is a reprint made at the U.S.Government Printing Office from the original which is in the French Archives.

In this list there are numerous men named Barbe. The name is written with one final e which has the acute mark over it. I have copied some of these, but they do not seem pertinent to this search immediately.

There is another publication in French which is titled: La Societe Des Cincinnati de France it la Guerre D'Amerique, 1778-1783.
Edition, August Picard, Paris, 1934.

This is a very "Delux" publication and contains portraits of two men named respectively, Lieut.-General Comt Alexandre de Lameth and Lieut.-General Charles de Lameth.

There is much about the Lameth Family in France. One Theodore de Lameth, born 1756; died 1854, was the last living founder of the Society of the Cincinnati and "Dean" of the French Generals."

Comment by N.P.Waldenmaier. I think the above is undoubtedly the origin of the Lameth Barbee. Just how and why remains to be determined. It may possibly be that there was a Barbee intermarriage with one of these French Generals. However, I am more inclined to think that one of the Culpepper County brothers Barbee served under one of these Generals at Yorktown. We know that they were there and might easily have come in contact with these distinguished Frenchmen. In which case it was just as natural to name a child for one of them as to name a child Wahhington or Lafayette as hundreds of fathers did so name their offspring.

"Barbie, (Barbee, Barbier) Among the Huguenot emigrants was one Claude (Glaude) Barbie and his wife. Of his descendants there were about twenty of the name who took an active part in the Revolution." The name is variously spelled in the records Barbie, Barby, Barber, Barbee. A distinguished member of the family was Francois de Barbe-Marbois, the negotiator of the Louisiana Treaty of 1803 and was from 1779-1785 Secretary of the French Legation to the United States under Luzerne as Minister.

Captain Thomas Barbee

Daniel and Joshua Barbee

Thomas Barbee and Sarah Hopkins of Boyle Co., Ky., sole children and heirs of Joshua Barbee, deceased, a soldier ranked as Sergt. who served 3 years in the Virginia Continental Line.

Joshua was a brother of Daniel Barbee, late of Mercer Co., Ky., who was also a Sergt. in the Va. C L.

In his lifetime Daniel assigned to Joshua all of his claim for land from the State of Virginia.

Now the above mentioned Thomas and Sarah apply for bounty land.

Comment by N.P. Waldenmaier: The last time I was in Richmond I tried to locate the documents in this case. The Staff at the Archives was very slim that day because of sickness and death and the ones who were there could not find these papers. However, this record must be somewhere in the vast pile of archival material in the Va. State Library and I feel confident that it will be located when certain of the older members of the staff can look for it. I left an order for a photostat of this record when it is located.

THE NAME AND FAMILY OF BARBEE

Compiled by

THE MEDIA RESEARCH BUREAU

Washington, D.C.

THE NAME AND FAMILY OF BARBEE

The name of Barbee is generally believed to have been used originally as a nickname for the baptismal name of Barbara, the literal meaning of which is "foreign or strange". There is evidence, however, of a town named Barby, in Northamptonshire, England, and it is possible that some of the families so called took their surname from their residence at this place. The name appears in early times both in England and in France and is found in ancient European and early American records in the various spellings of Barbe, Barbye, Barby, Barbey, Barbi, Barbie, and Barbee. Of these, the last is the form most frequently found in America in more recent times.

Normandy, Mantoue, Lorraine, Brittany, Orleans, and Torraine were among the early seats of the family in France; while in England the family resided in early times in the Counties of Somerset, Devon, and Northampton. The early bearers of this name belonged to all walks of life, but many of them were of the landed and educated classes.

According to family tradition, the name of Barbee is in some cases an American corruption of the French Barbier, which means "Barber". Of this family, Jacques and Richard Barbier were living in Brittany about the beginning of the fourteenth century, certainly before the year 1324. Also of this line were Guillaume Barbier, of 1379, and Alain Barbier, of 1382. Guillaume, Lord of Lanarnut, was the father of a son named Jean, who was the father of Thomas and Jean Barbier, of whom the first left only female issue. Jean, the younger son, married Sibylle Pelguen about 1431 and was the father by her of Yves Barbier, Lord of Kerhouet. Yves married Marguerite de Kersulguen, who gave him, among other children, a son named Jean, who married Jeanne de Parcevaux in 1512 and later took a second wife, Jeanne de Kersauson. His son, Louis Barbier, Lord of Kerjean, first married Francois; while his second wife, Jeanne de Gouzillon, gave him a son named Jacques. The last left issue by his wife, Claude de Lescoet, of a son named Alain, who was married in the year 1638 to Renee d'Attouity. To this union was born at least one son, Sebastien Barbier.

As early as the year 1327 one Richard Barbe was living in Somersetshire, England. The records of this f family are only fragmentary.

About the beginning of the sixteenth dentury John

Barby was living at Barby, in the County of Northampton. His son Edmund Barby, removed to Ashbricke, in Devonshire, and married a sister of Sir James Dyer, of that county. To this union were born three sons, John, Thomas, and William, of whom the first was buried about the year 1578 at Washfield, in Devon. By his wife Alice, daughter of John Eyre, of Atherington, he was the father of Thomas and Edmund Barby. Of these, Thomas married Johanna, daughter of Thomas Dyer, of Shobrooke, in 1581 and was the father by her of two children, William and Alice. The son, William Barby, of Washfield, married Ciciley, daughter of Sir John Wood, of Shebinge, County Devon, and had issue by her of a son named Thomas. The last was married in 1639 to Joan Culliford, who gave him at least one son, Robert Barby of Washfield.

In the early seventeenth century one Manaud Barbe was living at Claverie, in Armagnac, France. He was the father of Jean Francois Barbe, who was grandfather to Julien de la Claverie, attorney to the King, who was married in 1674 to Anne d'Hautpool in Salettes. Toward the end of the seventeenth century Jean de Barbe, of this family, was the father of a son named Jean, who married Marie Martin in 1710 and was the father of at least one son, Francois Annibal de Barbe, chevalier de Saint Louis.

There was also a family of the name of Barbey which belonged at an early period to the upper middle classes of La Manche, France. Of this line, Andre Theophile Barbey was born at Saint Sauveur in the year 1785. The earlier records of this family are not available.

In 1656 one Jane Barby came from England to Virginia but nothing further is known of this early settler.

According to some historians, the first male representative of the family in America was Glaude or Claude Barbie(Possibley Barbier), a Huguenot, whose descendants are said to have spelled the name Barbie, Barby, and Barbee. It is believed that he settled in Virginia sometime before the beginning of the eighteenth century, but records concerning him are not complete.

As early as the year 1704 one William Barbee, whose ancestry is not known, owned one hundred and fifty acres of land in Middlesex County, Va. His records are equally incomplete, but it is possible that he was the progenitor of George Barbee, whose name appears in the Princess Anne County records in the year 1745 and who, at that time, had a wife named Elizabeth. Another, or the same, George Barbee was married in 1759 to the Widow Martha Fagan, of Middlesex County, Va.

According to some family historians, John Barbee, the immigrant ancestor of the family in Kentucky, came from England to Culpeper County, Va., about the middle of the eighteenth century. Toward the end of the century he removed with three of his sons to Kentucky and settled near Danville, in that State. There were three other sons, who remained in Virginia, and alll six were said to have taken part in the Revolutionary War. By a second marriage the immigrant John had two sons and six daughters, who made their homes in Kentucky.

John Barbee, son of the immigrant John, settled near Shelbyville, Ky., and Married Martha Gaines, of that State. They had many children, of whom all but one son, James Barbee removed to Illinois. The last mentioned James married a Miss Sherrard of an old Virginia family, and died in 1826, leaving five children, Strother, Martha Gaines, Thomas, John, and Eliza Barbee.

Others of the name who are believed to have belonged to the last mentioned family include Joshua Barbee of Kentucky, before the year 1787; Thomas Barbee, who was a member of the Kentucky Legislature in 1795; Elias Barbee, of Green County, Ky., before 1800; and Daniel Barbee, of Danville, about the same time.

Elias Barbee, a Revolutionary soldier was born in Virginia in 1763 and was probably descended from the immigrant John of Culpeper County. He married Elizabeth Slaughter and removed with her to Green County, Ky. His son, Elias, Jr., first married Mary Durham, by whom he had issue of James D., Mary W., Oscar H., and William T. Barbee. By his second wife Sarepta Graham, Elias Jr. had further issue of Nannie O., Johnson, Laura, Graham, and Emmet Barbee. Many of the descendants of this branch of the family settled in Missouri.

William Barbee, who was born in Virginia about the year 1760, was descended from one or another of the Before mentioned lines. He served in the Revolution and was married in 1780 to Mary Smith, of Mecklenburg County, Va. His children were William, Thomas, Nancy, Sarah, and John. Of the last mentioned brothers, William married Sarah Pierce and had issue by her of William Frederick Barbee who settled in North Carolina; while Thomas married Alice Winston, of Virginia.

Captain Thomas Barbee, of the Virginia Revolutionary forces, was probably another descendant of the before mentioned lines. He was the father of a son named Andrew, who was, in turn, the father of Joseph Barbee. This Joseph married Ann Withers and had issue by her of Andrew Russell Barbee, who married Nancy Britton sometime before the year 1818 and resided with her in Shenandoah County, Va. In the last mentioned year Andrew and Nancy had a son, William Randolph Barbee, who became noted as a sculptor.

Others of the name who served with the Virginia Forces in the Revolutionary War, but whose exact connections with the lines already mentioned are not in evidence, included Benjamin Barbee (also recorded as Barbe, Barbey, Barbie, and Barby); Daniel Barbee(also of Kentucky); Elijah or Elisha Barbee (also recorded as Barbe, Barbey, Barbie, and Barby), Francis Barbee or Barby; Joshua Barbe(e) or Barbie; and Jesse and Jonathan Barbey.

The record of the family in America is that of a conservative and intellectually able race, of high integrity and idealism. Members of the family have achieved distindtion in art, theology, history, medicine, and other lines of endeavor.

Of the bearers of the name who have been prominent in America in comparatively recent years, the following are considered representative:

William J. Barbee (1816-1892), of Kentucky, educator, clergyman, physician, and author.
William Randolph Barbee(1818-1868), of Virginia, lawyer and sculptor.
James Dodson Barbee (nineteenth century), of Tennessee, clergyman.
Herbert Barbee(1848-1936), of Virginia(son of William Randolph), sculptor.
Waitman Barbe(b. 1863), of West Virginia, Educator and author.
David Rankin Barbee (B. 1874), of Tennessee and Washington, D.C.(son of James Dodson), writer and historian.
Hugh Arthur Barbee (B. 1874), of West Virginia, Physician.
John, Thomas, Edmund, William, George, James, Elias, Joseph, Daniel, and Robert are some of the masculine Christian names which frequently recur in the annals of the family.

The coat of arms of the English family of Barby, to which many of the Barbees of America are believed to be related, is described in Heraldic terms as follows(Burke, Encyclopaedia of Heraldry, 1844):

Arms.--"Argent, a chevron between three garbs sable."
Crest.--"An heraldic tiger argent, attired with four horns, turned round like rams' horns, or."
The ancient family of Barbey, of Normandy, France, bears the following heraldic device (Riestrap, Armorial General, 1884):

Arms.- "Coupe: au 1 fasce d'azur et d'or: au 2 de gueules au lion d'or."

Barbe-Marbois, who was the first French diplomatic representative to the United States, was a member of the family. He came over with the French army in 1779 and stayed two decades. The coat of arms borne by the family of "Barbe de Marbois" is given in the following heraldic terms (Riestap, Armorial General, 1934):

Arms.--"De gueules au cheval barbe d'or, cabre et contourne, et une fasce d'argent, charge de trois stoiles de gueules, brochant sur le tout: au franc-quartier d'azure charge de trois bandes d'argent."

INFORMATION GIVEN BO ME BY AUNT JO PETERS, EFFINGHAM, ILLINOIS.

Helen Cook Barbee, deserted her three children-Arkie-William and Oscar-in Vigo County(1882) went to her father Thomas Cook near Effingham, Illinois, taking one child, Ivor, four years old, with her. She secured a divorce and waited for George Hollenbeck to secure his and in September 1883 they were married at Effingham, Illinois. They persuaded her brother, Marcus McClelland Cook to leave with them. They went to New Mexico(?) Because they had taken this younger son from his father the sister, Joan, told her she never wanted to hear from her again.

The Cooks and Bebeess came she said from England. She remembered an oak chest bound with steel, known as the Bebee Chest. This contained records of the Bebee family and letters from England. My grandmother took this with her to New Mexico.

Charlotte Bebee had two brothers, Marcus and one known as "Doc". The Beebe's were an Indiana family, she thought northern Indiana.

HUGUENOTS

WORLD BOOK VOL. H. PAGES 3568-69

"The Huguenots were a group of Protestants who were the center of political and religious quarrels in France in the 1500's and 1600's. The Huguenots believed the teachings of John Calvin. They were members of the Reformed church. The name Huguenot was given to them by the French Roman Catholics. The name may have come from that of Banqanson Hugues a Swiss religious leader.

During the reign of Henry II (1547-1559), the Huguenots became strong in number and influence in France. As they became strong they were persecuted more and more by the Catholic government. Under Francis II, the Huguenots became important politically. Such figures as Anthony, King of Navarre, Prince Louis of Conde', Admiral Coligny and others were Huguenots. At the head of the Catholics was the Guise family, which influenced King Francis against the Huguenots.

After Francis II died and CharlesIX became king, the queen mother, Catherine de Me'dicis controlled France. For a time she encouraged the Huguenots as a balance against the Guises. But feeling in both parties became so bitter that civil war broke out. Catherine allied herself with the Duke of Guise. They carried out the massacre of Saint Bartholomew's Day, August 24, 1572, in which many Huguenots were killed.

But the political pendulum swung again into the other direction. Henry III feared the popularity of the Guise family and had the Duke of Guise and his brothers, the Cardinal assassinated. These murders aroused public feeling against Henry and he allied himself with Henry of Navarre and the Huguenots. Soon afterwards Henry III was assassinated, and Henry of Navarre became king.

Most of France was Catholic and Henry thought he must become a Catholic to be a successful king. But he remembered the Huguenots, and in 1598 issued the Edict of Nantes. This law gave the Huguenots freedom of worship in about seventy-five towns and cities. They were also given complete political freedom. The Huguenots thus formed a sort of Protestant republic within the Catholic kingdom.

The Huguenots lost their political freedom during the reign of Louis XIII. His minister, Cardinal Richelieu, conquered their cities. But they were still allowed freedom of worship. They did not lose this until 1685, when Louis XIV repealed the Edict of Nantes. Thousands of Huguenots fled France to new homes in England, Germany, Holland, and America. Many settled and prospered in South Carolina, Virginia, Massachusetts and New York. Among the well known Huguenots in the United States have been the Legare, Petigru, Maury, Revere, Jay and DeLancey families.

The Huguenots did not receive religious and political freedom in France until the time of the French Revolution. Shortly before it began, some of the laws were relaxed. The Constituent Assembly(1789-1791) gave equal rights to all Catholics, Protestants, Jews.

The persecution of the Huguenots was costly for France. Most of the Huguenots were craftsmen and many were in the textile trades. The countries to which they went benefited by their skills. They played a large part in building textile industry."

It is obvious from William Barbee's will (1720 that he had two or more wives. From his will and Christ's Church Register above, his first wife was Elizabeth-----and his last wife was Mary Gray. Their families appear to be as follows:
William and Elizabeth Barbee:
Children: John Hannah
Ann married Morgan
William

William and Mary Barbee:
Children: James Benjamin
John
Elizabeth

John B arbee son of William and Elizabeth Barbee married Ann Miller in Middlesex County, Virginia in 1708. Elizabeth, William, Mary, George and Gray were the children born to this couple in Middlesex County before their move to Essex County according to the Register of Christ's Church. The will of John Barbee probated in Essex County in 1750 did not mention names of his children but left property to his wife, Ann. Ann Barbee's will made in 1764 and probated in Essex County, Virginia in 1766 named her children as Mary Sears, Rose Sears, and Micall Pitts, Daughters, Christopher, John, Joseph and Francis, Sons and Christopher Barbee, Thomas Redd, Grandchildren.

This would lead one to believe that Ann's Children Rose, Micall, Christopher, John, Joseph and Francis were born in Essex County, Virginia subsequent to the 1717 and the birth of George and Gray.

Ann's will mentioned her grandson Christopher Barbee but did not mention her son William born in 1711, leaving the impression he was dead. In Orange Co., N.C. in 1758 letters of Administration were granted to Rachel Barbee, widow of William Barbee on the partition of William Barbee's estate. Also in Orange Co., N.C. in 1758 John Barbee was appointed guardian of Francis and Christopher Barbee, sons of William Barbee, deceased and his wife Rachel. If William Barbee was the son of Ann Barbee, William's son Christopher would then be Ann Barbee's grandson. It therefore seems logical that William Barbee was Ann Barbee's son, particularly when it can be shown that six other children of Ann Barbee migrated to Orange and adjacent counties in North Carolina. These were Rose Sears and her husband Henry, Micall Pitts and her husband John, Christopher, John, Joseph and Francis Barbee. Although Gray Barbee died in Chatham Co,, N.C. in 1829-30, it is hardly likely that he was Ann Barbee's son as he would have been 112 years of age.

Thomas Redd, grandson of Ann Barbee may have been the son of Elizabeth Barbee as his mother was not identified in Ann Barbee's will.
Of the seven children of Ann Barbee named in her will, all except Mary Sears are found in Orange Co., N.C. before the Revolutionary War.

William Barbee of Middlesex Co., Va., husband of Elizabeth and Mary left his Middlesex Co. lands and money to his son William and money to son John and daughter Ann. The balance of his estate was to "be equally divided amongst my children which God has blessed me with----by my last wife."

His son John moved to Essex Co., Va. and died there in 1750. William Barbee whose will was probated in Essex County in 1757, deeded his property to Ann Barbee, probably because he was a bachelor or widower without living children and Ann Barbee was his nearest of kin. Since it is know that Ann Barbee's husband John had a brother William, it is probable that this was the actual relationship of William and Ann.

What became of John Aand William Barbee's half brothers, James and Benjamin is problematical. They may have emigrated north and west to Fauquier, Stafford and Culpepper Counties where many Barbees were known to have been during the middle and late 1700's or fathered locally some of the Barbees (James and Gray, 1770; Abemeleck, 1789,1795; Benjamin 1793; Goin, 1792) whose names are found in the records of Orange and adjacent counties of North Carolina, where the children of John and Barbee were found as early as 1754.

Comment: Some time ago I was in Chillicothe, Ohio* and found there many transactions concerning sales and purchases of land by the Barbees. Daniel Barbee seemed to have been in partnership with one of the Green men from Culpepper Co., Va. They bought and sold many hundreds of acres. Also Elias Barbee of Green Co., Kentucky gave power of Attorney for the selling of land in Ohio which he owned. His wife's name was Mary

I have your letter of March 23, 1939, in which you request information relative to Elias Barbee of Green County, Kentucky, said to have enlisted in the Revolutionary War or the War of 1812 from Virginia.

The records show that one Elias Barbee, rank not stated served in the Revolutionary War in the Virginia Infantry. His name appears only on a list of soldiers of the Virginia Line on Continental Establishment who have received certificates for the balance of their full pay agreeable to an Act of Assembly passed November Session 1781, which shows that on December 13, 1782, the sum of L18 S5 D8 was received by one F. Strother.

The name Elias Barbee has not been found on the records of Virginia soldiers in the War of 1812.

The collection of Revolutionary War records on file im my office is far from complete, and it is suggested as a possibility that additional information may be obtained from the Librarian, Virginia State Library, Richmond, or from the Veterans Administration, Washington D.C.

The cost of photostats from the State Library is about eighty cents a page.

Dear Miss Barbee:

The ones which I have checked seem to me most pertinent to your search.

Of course it is not probable that Thomas who left will in Stafford in 1752 was father of your Lameth by he could have been gr. father.

The Andrew of Fauquier, 1795, might give some information; or Thomas of Powhatan.

Please let me know if you want me to write for the wills.

Sincerely,

Nellie P. Waldenmaier.

Dear Miss Barbee:

I see no way to get the necessary Barbee line exept to go to Stafford Court House and dig it out of the few records that may be there. Our weather is doing all the miserable things that the March "lion" can think up. As soon as it clears up I shall try to go to Stafford. There is no town there. It is just a wide spot in the road — Court House on one side and a filling station, grocery store. There is no place to stay over night so I would have to come home same day. It is ½ way to Richmond. Sincerely M. P. Waldemaier

Dear Miss Barbee,

I am sending you a couple family charts. As you can see I have very little on the McCoskeys and Barbees. I do know Maude Mc Coskey had several brothers & sisters who were Clarence McCoskey, Charles McCoskey, Rose Layers, and a sister named Georgia. I will appreciate any information you can give me on both families (The Barbees and Mc Coskeys)

I have all the information on Ross Barbee's children. If you would be interested I could send you a copy.

I am sending a self addressed stamped envelope for your convenience.

Yours truly,
Martha Davis

Now Brandon Barbee + wife Mickey will be coming to see Jody + family for Christmas. I have only met this oldest son of Clay + Hagel Barbee when he was about 18 yrs or so. They always called him Bud. He has lived near Milwaukee, Wis. - ~~Brown Deer~~ ~~Jody is the Torres~~. Here is his address - Brandon + Mickey Barbee

June 20, 1985

Dear Cousin Rula;

I just finished talking with you on the phone, but wanted to express my appreciation for all your work and efforts on the Geneology of the Barbee family. I have found it extremely rewarding and ever so interesting going over all the copies of records which were passed on from Estell Barbee to the Henry Clay Barbee family, of which my husband is the youngest.

For the past five years we have hosted an annual Barbee Reunion at our home in Minong, Wis. where we live on a lake, and it seems to work out the best for a place for a large gathering. This years will be Labor Day Week End, and I have hopes of compiling the information I have on the Barbee family, and distributing it to the other members of the family.

The information I have is copies of typewritten transcripts which I dont' know if you had typed them, or if Karen Barbee did. Some of them are quite faint, so do not make good copies, so am planning on retyping and copying them from a more black and white master.

It really makes me sick now, when I realize that the records that Estell gave to Helen a few months before he died, have sat around for 20 odd years, and since we just came into possession of them, its even more difficult to trace back with so many more people who have passed on in the meantime. Thank God you are still alive and we can communicate with you.

For your records, Henry Clay married Hazel Keehr in 1917. He passed away in 1949, and Hazel passed away Jan. 30, 1977. We had just moved from Mpls. to Minong, and had just transferred her from a Nursing home in Osseo, Mn. to the Nursing Home in Spooner, Wis., in Dec. of 76, and she died a month later. They are both buried in the Cemetary in Minong. The following is an update of their children.

Helen Mae Barbee, born 5/6/1918 married John Antony Marta, who passed away 8/19/58 She remarried a Major William N. Preston who died in an auto accident June 27, 67 in Calf. She them married Jack May, who passed away on June 30, 1982. She is presently living in Reseda, Calf.

Dorothy Pearl Barbee, born 9/27/1921, married James Frizzell, and they had one son James Barbee Frizzel. Dorothy and James were divorced, and she married Leonard Soffia and they had two children, Roberta Maria, and Donita Richard. Dorothy died on Oct. 9th, 1983 of Cancer. She is also buried in Minong, Wis. Her son James B. Frizzell lives in Meadville, Pa. He is married and has two daughters, Terri and Cheri. Roberta lives in Coon Rapids, MN., she is divorced, and has two daughters by her first marriage to Richard Schreder. Kimberly and Lorinda. She remarried a musician, Otis W. Pharr, and they are also divorced, she has taken her maiden name back, and changed the spelling a little to Roberta Sofia.. Donita Richard married Ruby, and they are also divorced, but are presently living together in Kenai, Alaska. They have no children. Dorothy and Leonard Soffia were divorced, and Leonard is still living in Superior, Wis.

Ione Bernice Barbee, born 8/19/24, is married to Arnold A. Tysdale, and they are presently living in Marshalltown, Iowa. They have three sons, Christopher, David, and Rodney. Chris lives in Morristown, Mn., David married Vicki, and had one son, Justin. Vicki had a daughter Jillisa from a previous marriage, and David adopted her. David and Vicki are now divorced, she lives in Faribault, Mn., David lives in Owatonna, with his son, and is going to be remarried the 10th of August, 1985.

Rodney married Joanne and they have one daughter Amanda Sue born May 8th, 1984, and are expecting a second child in Dec. of 85. They live in Haverhill, Iowa. Bernice and Arnold are both retired. They have a summer cottage in Faribault, Mn. where they spend a good deal of their summers.

Brandon Bert Barbee, born 7/3/1926, married Lila Margaret Rohlinger (Mickey) on July 29, 1950, and presently live in Brown Deer, Wis. They have two adopted children, Jodi Ann Barbee and Jeffrey John Barbee. Jodi is married to Frank Torres, they have two children, Frank and Jesse, two darling boys, and they are living in Spanaway Wash, as Frank is in the service and is stationed out of Fort Louis, WA.

Jeffrey is single, and is in the Marine Corps. and is presently stationed in Okinawa, but is due home the end of July and will be attending the annual reunion.

Fredrick Richard Barbee, born 8/8/35 was married to Lorrayne Shupe in Jan. 1953, they had one daughter, Sherrilyn Rae. They were divorced in 1956. Sherri was married to Steve Berendt in 1972, and they were divorced in 1976. They had one son Steven A. Berendt born Jan. 3, 1973 who is presently living with his grandparents, Fredrick and Carol Barbee in Minong, Wis. Sherri was born Oct. 22, 1954. Sherri has remarried Jack Dunstan, and they are presently living in Crosby Texas.

Fred, or Dick as the family calls him, married Carol A. Durand on Dec. 7th, 1956, and three children are a result of this union.
Richard Scott Barbee, born Dec. 19, 1957 is married to Karen Lee Melton, on Sept. 29, 1983 and is in the Air Force, and they are presently in the Phillipine Islands at Clark Air Force Base. They have one daughter, Kyna Lynn Barbee, born Dec. 25, 1984 at Moody A.F.B., in Valdosta, Ga.

Jannyce Adel Barbee, born Sept. 9, 1959 was married on May 18, 1984 in Minong, Wis. to Dean Roger Berchied. They live in Fridley, MN. and have no children.

Anthony Clay Barbee, born July 19, 1961 married Nancy Lee Beardsley on July 3, 1981, and they have one daughter, Amber Lee, born July 27, 1984. They live in Minong, Wis., Tony works for his Dad.

Some of this information, you may have already, but just thought I would bring the family records up to date. As you see, our two sons are the last of the blood line and last year was a real pip with both of them expecting babies, and both of them turned out to be girls. But they are both trying for boys next time.

I'm typing faster than I'm thinking, so hope you will excuse the errors. I just wanted to bring you up to date on the Barbee side of the family. As you can see, Helen has no children, Dorothy and Bernice have 3, Brandon adopted two children, and my husband has 4. I should mention, that we are raising Steven now 13 years old, as he was being lost living with his mother, and a father who doesn't even know or care where he is, and he got into all kinds of trouble at 12 years old, so we volunteered to have him live with us for a few years. He arrived from Houston, TX. the 29th of Dec. 84, and is doing very well. My husband Fred, or Dick as We all call him, has his own business, "Repairs Unlimited" whereby he does service and repair work on all appliances, and has 17 different franchises. Business is usually slow in the winter months, as we live in a heavy resort area, and had a lot of time to devote to Steven. Sherri and Jack are coming for a visit the 18th of July for a week. She has been out of touch with her father for 3 or 4 years at a time since she was 16, and she just recently started communicating with him, well, for over a year now, and It is our hope to turn Steven around so he can go back to his mother and stepfather, and be a normal boy. My husband and I hadn't even seen Steven since he was two years old, until last summer, when he came for a visit for three weeks, and then he came back in Dec.to stay for a while.

We have really been blessed this past year, having Steven to stay with us, and then the arrival of Amber Lee in July, and Kyna Lynn in December. They are adorable little girls, and I wouldn't trade them for the world.

I have a pretty complete record of the Henry Clay family, as Hazel lived with us for several years, and she remarried a Frank Bantle from Hamburg, N.Y., who passed away in 1976, and she came to live with us in Mpls. until her health warranted placing her in a Nursing home in Osseo, Mn. So our home has been the centralized location for family gatherings for several years. We were living in Minong when Hazel died in 1977, and had the funeral, and arrangements in Minong. And also when Dorothy became very ill, she was in the Univ. of Mn. hospital for several weeks before her death, after we made arrangements to move her from where she was living in Anchor Point, Alaska. We also had her funeral and arrangements in Minong. Dick and I, and on Helens last trip home in 1983, Helen, all purchased lots in the Minong Cemetary, so I guess thats where most of the family will end up. Helens first husband is buried in Duluth, Mn., her second in Calf., and her third in Oklahoma, and she wanted to be buried in Minong with the rest of her family.

At this years reunion, we don't expect Helen to make it, due to the expense of traveling, and she has a difficult time finding someone trustworthy to take care of her house and dogs, she has two poodles, which are just like her children. Shes had a rough time since she lost her last husband, as he drank and gambled away most of her assets, and is just hanging on for dear life till the last minute before she has to sell her house and move. She doesn't want to leave Calf., but at the same time, wants to be near her family.She doesn't look forward to moving back to the midwest at all, and will delay it as long as she possibly can.

Estell and Karen visited us in Mpls. in 1964, which was the first time Dick had seen Estell since he was a boy. He figured it had been at least 15-17 years. We really enjoyed their visit, and we correspond with Karen as often as we can. Jodi Barbee Torres lives not too far from Aunt Karen, and visits her every so often, and this past Christmas, Brandon (Bud) and Mickey spent Christmas with Jodi and her family, and also had a nice visit with Aunt Karen.

We see Bernice and Arnold a couple of times a year, and will be seeing them the 10th of August at their son Davids wedding in Owatonna, Mn. And we will of course be seeing them at the Reunion. Also their sons and families.

Bud and Mickey and Jeffrey will be attending, and also Roberta Sofia. I don't know if Donita (Donnie) will make it down from Alaska or not. He was just home for a visit in February, and we had a nice visit with him. Leonard Soffia lives by himself in Superior, about 50 miles north of us, and whenever Roberta (Bobbie) comes up to our house, he comes down for a day or two to visit too. He is 76 and doesn't get around too much anymore. He really shouldn't drive, (but he does) and never seems to have dependable transportation. Dorothy left some property to her daughter (Bobbie), and Bobbie is presently in the process of clearing and making arrangements to make a seasonal home there, in Minong, so we see quite a bit of her.

So this should bring you up to date of all the news from this branch of the family. I really hope we can plan a trip to Terre Haute to meet you, and visit some of the ancestrial resting places. I also would like to ask if you could make some arrangement to have the Barbee Bible sent to us since our sons are the last of the male Barbee blood line and it would be well taken care of and treasured for beyond words and years. I hope you won't feel offended by my request, but I have had a recent shock while trying to trace my mothers family back, and just recently received word that their family bible was given to the church in the near locality, as there were no family members except a very distant cousin (not blood) who took it upon herself to give it to the church for their records. I know the Barbee Bible would have a lot of historical meaning for Vigo County, but I also know what it would mean to keep it in the family lineage.

Again, I really enjoyed talking with you, and hope and pray we can plan a trip to Terre Haute, Ind. to meet you and get to know you. I'll send you a cple. of pictures and maybe when you see us on film, you'll feel a little more comfortable in corresponding with us. I also hope and pray that you will look upon us as your family. When Estell visited us in Mpls. he took one look at my husband, and said "You sure can't deny your Clay's son, you look just like your dad." So maybe you'll see a resemblence to your father also.

If there is ever anything we can do for you, or any assistance we can give, please let us know. Till next time, God Bless You and thank you again for all your efforts past and present.

P. S. 6/25/85 Didn't send this right away, as I wanted to enclose some pictures which I had to get in Minong. I can't put my hands on one of Scott & Karen taken in the last year or so, but will find one eventually. I talked to Dick this week end, and he was as thrilled as I was to hear your still in Terre Haute. We are planning a trip to see you either the Week of 9/23 or 9/30 this fall, after Dicks business slows down and will plan to stay in a motel. Need you to send me a map showing where you live (What part of Terre Haute, and maybe you can recommend a motel nearby. We are really looking forward to it. Hope to hear from you soon.

Carol - Dick

P.S.S. Just wanted to mention, if you would be up to it, we would love to have you at the Reunion on Labor Day W.E. If you would be up to it, I'll send Bus Fare, for a round trip ticket. Please give it some thought. I know you said you had been ill, but don't know for sure how your feeling physically, or how well you are able to get around. Just a thought, we'd love to have you, or if you can't, we'll plan to see you in Sept.

Metro news

Man held after fatal head-on crash

A 33-year-old man was arrested Sunday morning for driving a car that crossed the center line on Hiawatha Av. Saturday night, killing the driver of another car, authorities said.

David Bryant, 37, 3023 47th Av. S., was declared dead at 11:40 p.m. Saturday. The suspect, who suffers from arthritis and sometimes walks with a cane, received minor injuries and was treated and released from Hennepin County Medical Center.

Police administered chemical tests to the man and said they expect to charge him Tuesday with criminal vehicular operation. Police said the suspect is from Massachusetts, but has been living at the Veterans Administration Home.

The suspect also was involved in a minor accident at 11th St. and Franklin Av. at about 11 p.m. Saturday. He gave the driver of the other car in the accident his driver's license and drove away. By the time police arrived, both cars had left. But the driver of the other car turned the suspect's license in at the Third Precinct.

The accident on Hiawatha near 41st St. was the second fatal head-on collision that day within a 10-block stretch. The other accident occurred at 32nd St. and Hiawatha at about 1:30 a.m. Saturday. Donna Mae Olsen, 21, 8530 Atlantic Av., Inver Grove Heights, died in that accident.

Information compiled from staff reports

Dear Rena —

I just wanted you to know of our Loss.

Hope you are well —

Sincerely,

Edna Bryant.

Dear Cousin Rula:

We were so happy to receive your letter on Saturday. I had started to worry that maybe I offended you or came on too strong in my letter, both of which I hope I didn't, I just get carried away when I get so excited, and didn't really think of how receptive you may have been to be contacted out of the blue like that. Anyhow, I hope I didn't offend you or upset you, I was so thrilled to find you still living and such a wealth of knowledge about the Barbee family.

We have set our plans now, and will be definitely coming in Sept., we are leaving Minong on the 21st of Sept., and will drive to Milw. and overnite, and then drive all the way to Terre Haute on Sunday. Don;t know just what time we will get in, but if its after 9:00 P.M., we will go right to the Motel. Thanks for writing the name of the nearest Motel, it sounds like it will work out great. It will be just Dick and myself coming. We are leaving his grandson home with our son and wife as he will be in school, and just want to sort of get away by ourselves this time. We took him to Georgia with us in Jan., and since he had just arrived, his school work wasn't as important then, as he'd had such a bad year anyhow, but want to start him out right this year, with a full school year and will be really working him on his grades. He's really upset that he can't go, as he'd like to meet you too, (as all the family would) but we told him it wasn't the kind of trip like in Jan. where we took him to Disneyworld, Sea World and Epcott Center, etc. etc.

Dick is enclosing a little personal note too. We have just had to cancel the Barbee Reunion this year, as in the last week, learned that Bud's wife Mickey is going to Seattle, Wash. the 1st of Sept. to visit her daughter and family. And their son Jeff who is in the Marines just got back from Okinawa, and had planned on attending, but the Marine Corp. is sending him to Nevada till the 6th of Sept., so Mickey had to change her trip plans to co-incide with his leave, as she wants to be home when he is.

Also, Bernyce had fallen last week, and broke her ankle and is in a cast up to her knee. She is so afflicted with Osteo Rhuematoid Arthritis and can't get around very well at all. So when she and Arnold wouldn't be coming, two of their sons and families decided they wouldn't be able to make it either. So under the circumstances, have sent out letters and called everyone to cancel it over labor day, and are setting it up for the July 4th week end in 1986 at our house. It doesn't make much sense for those who could come to go thru the expense and travel to come and see so few people, and most of them are getting together at our home this week end anyhow, to celebrate Dick's 50th Birthday, and to attend an Alumni Reunion of the local Northwoods High School. Bud may come up Labor Day week end anyhow and spend the week, which will be fine.

So since we aren't having the reunion, Dick and I have decided to drive to Bemidji, Mn. and visit his Uncle Jessie and Aunt Maggie Keehr. Uncle Jessie isn't too well, and Dick has never visited them there, when Helen came home for a visit a few years ago, she wanted to visit them so bad, so she and I drove up there for a couple of days. I'm also hoping to get some of the Keehr history from him on Dick's mothers side.

And we have advised everyone of our trip to Terre Haute, so none of them will be visiting us then. Bernyce and Arnold are planning a trip to Minong in Oct. so it will work out fine.

I also have some rather sad news. Karen Barbee (Estelles wife) went into a hospital in Tacoma in June to have some tests run as she hadn't been feeling well at all, and when they did a bone scan, discovered she had cancer in her ribs, and when she was leaving the hospital after the tests, she broke her leg. She was in the hospital for nearly two months, and we just heard a bout it the middle of July, when Bud and Mickeys Daughter Jodi called her folks. Karen has undergone Cobalt treatments and Chemo-Therapy and went home for a few days the middle of July with a private nurse, but when she went back for her last Radiation treatment, they felt it was best if she went into a Nursing Care facility to learn how to take care of herself. So the 18th of July she went into the "Manor Care Nursing Center of Meadow Park" at 56015 Orchard, Tacoma, Wash. 98409. They were to try it for 30 days, and hopefully at the end of the 30 days, she would be able to go home again. Helen had planned to fly up and see her the middle of July, but Karen had Jodi contact her, and ask her to delay her trip until after the 30 days. So Helen is waiting to hear again, when she would be able to spend a few days with Karen, and when she would feel up to having her come. I know when Mickey is in Seattle, she will also plan on seeing her. Bud and Mickey were at Jodi's over Christmas, and had a nice visit with Aunt Karen, and took several pictures, which we saw over Memorial Day W/E. when they were up for a long week end.

We plan to try and call her this week end. Jodi says she is in good spirits and seems to be rolling with the punches, but is very weak, which is no wonder after having Cobalt and Chemo. She didn't want any flowers, etc. so have been dropping her a card and note every week, she isn't able to answer, but just keep trying to keep her spirits up by letting her know how much we love and care about her, and are praying for her every day. Somehow it just doesn't seem fair, after all the years she looked after Uncle Estelle, and then after he passed away, she took on the care of her aged Mother for several years. She lived until just a year or so ago and passed away at the age of 96 or 97. I'm so glad Aunt Karen has some sisters and at least one brother in the Seattle area, so she is not all alone. She is a very special person, and altho her prognosis is not good, hope and pray she has a few good years left on this old earth.

I have also looked on all the maps of Arkansas, and have not been able to find Rosie, Ark. on any of them. Do you have any idea how far it is from Oil Trough, and is there any way you know of trying to pinpoint just where Helen Cook Barbee Hollanbeck's daughter or descendents are presently located. We are really serious about driving to Ark., and are hoping you are up to accompanying us. We have a 1985 Olds Cierra, which is quite a nice trip car, and you could have the whole back seat to put your legs up, etc. We could probably drive it from Terre Haute in one long day, so please get lots of rest so you will be able to go with us. If you are unable to go, Dick may not want to risk the trip, as it would take away some of the precious time we would have to spend with you. In 1970 Oil Trough had a total population of 524 people, so its about the same size as Minong. It looks like we could take 70 from Terre Haute to St. Louis, and pick up Hwy. 67 and take it right thru to Cty. 14 which is 10 miles from Oil Trough. All we need to know now is where is Rosie, Ark. and what is the most recent information you have on Helen's Dtr., and can we do any more tracing and acually pinpoint the address or city where we would find them. I know Helen is buried in Rosie, and it must be a real little burg somewhere. I also see there is a Beebe, Ark. northeast of Little Rock, thats interesting isn't it. Well, as you can see, there is alot we can do with your help before we plan to go in establishing just where we would be going. So let us know what you can, and maybe I can trace from this end too. I know there is a Barbee Quarter Horse Ranch just a few miles from Cameron, Missouri, as a gal I used to work with has driven by there a couple of times, but when I called information on a listing for "Bill Barbee" they couldn't help me. They did have a listing for a Louesa Barbee in St. Joseph, Mo. but I never called as I didn't have much information to go on. I figured 164 miles from Terre Haute to St. Louis, and 269 miles from St. Louis to Oil Trough, which would be a total of 433 miles if this Road atlas is anywhere near right, which would be just a days drive from Terre Haute to Oil Trough. Not bad at all, is it? Well, we will be waiting to hear from you again. Did you ever meet Estelle and Karen personally? I'm bringing pictures that were taken in our home when they visited us in Mpls. in the early 60's. Well, must run, its after 9:30 P.M., and I still have to stop and pick up some supplies for my Bosses Birthday celebration at work tomorrow. So take care of yourself, get lots of rest, and see if you can find out any more definite info on Helen Cook Barbee Hollanbeck's family.

God Bless you and Keep you in his care.

All Our Love
Carol + Dick + Jami.

Dear Cousin Rula,

It's nice to have finally made contact with you & Carol & I are really looking forward to seeing you in September. I'm sure that we can have some interesting conversations about the family history Etc. We are both very interested in the past generations.

I will be bringing some video tapes of past family reunions & the gear necessary to be able to show them to you on your TV. - also I'll be bringing my Video Camera & would like to tape (or video film) the cemetary & grave sites for others in the family to see, as well as our conversations with you about our mutual history. It will be very interesting to all members of our family & I can make copies to send to them.

It might not be feasible but, We have thought about the possibility of driving with you to Arkansas to visit "ol' Trough" Etc, Maybe distance & time available will make it impossible, but I would still like to consider it, so think about it if you would be interested in possibly doing that. Maybe we could get in the Arkansas area of interest to you, spend a day or two & return to Terre Haute.

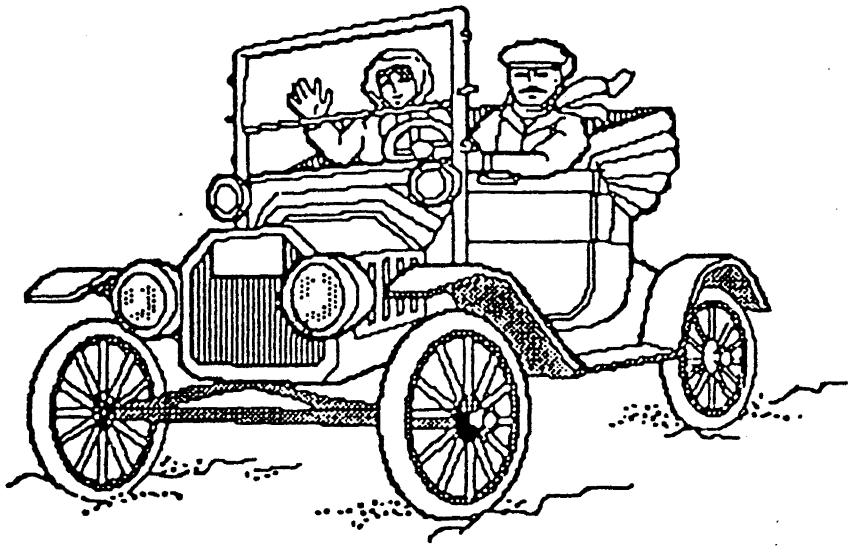

Carol will be writing something to send along with this note. I just wanted to say Hello & express how glad I am that we have made contact after all these years.

Love
Fred Barbee
